

SACCI GITA KHAND – I (True Gita Vol.- I)

NOTE: These are the points of the Sacci Gita Khand – 1 being translated gradually

WHAT IS SHRIMAT AND WHOSE (DIRECTION) IS SHRIMAT?

- Only the directions of God will be called shrimat. (Mu.08.03.73, beginning of pg.1)
- The children should always think: we receive shrimat. If we follow the shrimat, then Baba is responsible. The Father says: I give directions through these ones. Suppose something goes wrong, then I am responsible. I will make it right. (Mu.06.02.75, end of pg.2)
- It is not that Bapdada [and] the Mother have to follow the children's directions. No. The children have to follow the shrimat. They should not give their direction to the Father. Many also think that the Mother and the Father or Bapdada should follow their directions, but, this is not possible. (Mu.09.04.73, beginning of pg.2)
- The Father has certainly come for your benefit, but you don't follow the shrimat of the Father. If the shrimat tells you: go there, you don't go. You say, it is cold there, it is hot there. You don't recognize the Father at all. You don't understand at all, who speaks to us through these ones. Just this ordinary chariot comes to your mind. The two Fathers don't come to your mind at all. Everyone fears the great kings so much. They just shiver to go in front of them. (Mu.20.02.68, end of pg.1)
- You have to follow [the Father] at every step. You become the brides of the Unlimited Father, don't you? Then you will have to do whatever He says. Baba has said that even if you write a letter, write this below: Shivbaba, c/o Brahmakumaris. (Mu.20.12.73, middle of pg.3)
- Do not listen to anyone except Me. [...] Don't listen to the directions of human beings, just follow the directions of God. Whatever God says is right [and] what the human beings [say] is wrong. (Mu.23.03.68, middle of pg.1)
- The Father says, always follow the shrimat. You will be deceived by [following] your own opinion. You earn a true income by following the directions of the True Father. (Mu.17.01.73, middle of pg.2) (Mu.15.01.78, end of the middle part of pg.2)
- You should never face the Father. You should never say no to what the Father says. (Mu.06.09.69, middle of pg.1)
- [The children] will say, Baba, you may direct [us] as you wish. The Father will certainly give directions through these ones, won't He? But, they don't even take their advice. They still follow the same old decayed directions of human beings. They do see that Shivbaba comes and gives directions through this chariot; still, they follow their own opinion. They follow the directions that are said to be worth a *pai paisa*¹. At present, they have become like cowries² by following Ravan's directions. (Mu.10.12.68, beginning of the middle part of pg.2)
- By following demonic opinions, human beings will just continue to fall. Only the one Father's [direction] is shrimat. Everyone else belongs to the demonic community, the ones who give demonic directions. Ravan is the one who gives demonic directions. (Mu.19.05.73, beginning of pg.2)
- Shivbaba comes and makes you belong to Him. He says, you have become the Father's after sacrificing yourself³ to follow His directions. There is no need for the children to give directions to Him. He Himself is the Giver of directions. It shouldn't be [that you think:] why does He do this (say this)? Why does He take [children] on His lap? No. All these are [His] children. Shivbaba is very famous. Whatever directions He gives, whatever He does, He will certainly do the right thing. Whatever He makes this one (the corporeal Brahma) do, is also right, because He is *Karan-Karaavanhaar*⁴, isn't He? (Mu.24.05.64, beginning of the middle part of pg.1)

² Literally means shell; something of no value

³ Sar hatheli par rakhnaa: Lit. means, to take the head on the [hand] palm

⁴ The one who acts and makes others act

- You can be benefitted just by following the directions of the One. Now, when you have found the One whom you remembered for half a cycle (kalpa), you should catch hold of Him. Why are you confused about this? Baba says, according to the drama, I have come again to give you the fortune of the kingdom. You will have to follow My directions. Remember [Me] through the intellect. (Mu.13.04.77, beginning of the middle part of pg.3)
- [The directions] of the Supreme Father Supreme Soul alone is shrimat. [The directions of] everyone else are demonic directions. (Mu.02.06.73, middle of pg.3)
- You should neither read (ask) anything to the lokik (worldly) relatives nor should you follow their directions. You should follow the directions [of] the One alone. (Mu.16.02.68, beginning of the middle part of pg.1)
- Brahma's directions are famous. Shivbaba's shrimat is also famous. So, along with Brahma and Shivbaba, the directions of their children should also be famous. You should follow the directions of both, Shivbaba and Brahma. (Mu.21.03.73, pg.1, 2)
- Now I am in front of you. I too become a trustee and then make you a trustee. Whatever you do, ask [Me] and do it. I am living, am I not? Baba will keep giving His advice in every topic. (Mu.14.03.70, beginning of pg.3)
- You should follow the shrimat of the One. If you follow the opinion of your mind, you will die. If you follow the shrimat, you will become the most elevated human beings, meaning deities. (Mu.28.08.73, end of the middle part of pg.3)
- You have to become so faithful and obedient that not a second, not a [single] thought [of yours] should be without [His] orders. (Mu.22.06.71, middle of pg.114)
- Although he or she narrates the murli very well, they have a lot of body consciousness. If Baba warns them even a little, they will break away [from knowledge] immediately. Otherwise, it is sung: whether you beat me or love me... Here, even if the Father says the correct thing, they become angry. There are children like this as well. Some thank [Him] a lot within, [while] some burn within to death. (Mu.18.03.70, beginning of pg.3)
- You are sitting face to face with the Unlimited Father. You have to follow shrimat at every step and only those whose complete news is known to the Father will follow [the shrimat]. The Father should receive the complete news of the life, actions and so on of every child, then the Father will also know [about them] and He will give directions accordingly from time to time. You will have to take shrimat at every step. (Mu.29.02.72, beginning of the middle part of pg.1)
- The one who acts without being told is a deity, the one who acts after being told is a human being and the one who doesn't act even on being told, he will be called a donkey. (Mu.17.04.73, end of pg.2)
- If you are a *mukhvanshaavali*⁵, you must accept whatever Baba says through the mouth. (Mu.08.10.73, end of the middle part of pg.3)
- Maya doesn't give directions through the mouth, they (male or female forms of Maya) act that way. Now the Father sits and explains through the mouth. (Mu.09.10.73, beginning of pg.2)
- You should definitely follow the shrimat. You shouldn't enforce your own opinion. You should write letters to your friends and relatives as per the shrimat. If you don't follow the shrimat, you will bring no benefit to them at all. There are many who write letters secretly. The Father, the Teacher is sitting; you should inform Him: Baba, we write [letters] like this. Baba will teach you to write such letters that the one who reads it will be excited. Not a single one among you children knows how to write letters. Baba doesn't forbid [you to write letters]. You must maintain relationships⁶, otherwise how will charity begin at home! (Mu.24.04.72, end of pg.1, beginning of pg.2) (Mu.25.04.77, end of pg.1, beginning of pg.2)
- The work cannot go on without taking shrimat. You can't reach the destination alone without a guide. No one knows the way at all, then how can they go [to the destination]? A guide's help is certainly required. (Mu.05.08.73, beginning of pg.2)

⁵ Progeny born from the mouth, meaning the knowledge

⁶ Tod nibhaanaa: lit. to maintain and not break

- You should follow the Father's shrimat. Then, He will be responsible. Brahma's direction is also famous. Even if he gives a wrong direction, He will be responsible. (Mu.11.04.73, beginning of pg.3)
- Now you should certainly follow the Father's direction. When the Father gives directions, even if something goes wrong, He will Himself make it right. When He gives advice, He is responsible for it. (Mu.14.12.71, end of pg.3)
- You should take advice from the Father at every step. Some say: Baba, we have to speak lies in business. The Father says, this certainly happens in business. Continue to remember the Father. It doesn't mean that you indulge in vices and then say that you were in remembrance. (Mu.29.10.76, end of pg.3)
- No matter how much [someone] says that he loves the Father, if he speaks against the Divine (Ishwariya) rule, consider him to be a member of Ravan's community. (Mu.24.02.69, end of pg.1)
- You children should never believe in hearsay either. [...] It is the cheaters who do such bad tasks, they speak lies and upset others. (Mu.18.08.68, beginning of pg.3) (Mu.18.08.74, end of pg.2, beginning of pg.3)
- Always think that Shivbaba gives directions through these ones. [...] If you consider it to be human's directions instead of considering it to be Divine directions, you will be confused. The Father says, if you follow My directions, I will be responsible for it. Whatever happens through these ones, I am responsible for their activities. I will make it right anyhow. Just follow My directions. (Mu.13.01.70, beginning of pg.1)
- The Father comes face to face and gives shrimat. [...] Here, the Father gives directions, just as a teacher teaches in a school. (Mu.17.03.73, middle of pg.3)
- There are many opinions, aren't there? Many opinions lead to degradation. [...] This is a very good slogan: 'Human beings lead [other] human beings to degradation; God alone grants true liberation to every human being'. (Mu.11.03.69, end of pg.1) (Mu.21.02.04, beginning of pg.2)
- It is said for these very gems that every gem is worth lakhs (hundred thousands) [of rupees]. It is the Father alone who gives multimillions (padam) at every step, isn't it? (Mu.26.08.68, beginning of pg.3)
- The Father alone is the Ocean of Knowledge. [...] Only when they listen to knowledge from Me, they can be called knowledgeable. All the others are devotees. [...] Shrimat alone is righteous. Everything else is the opinion of human beings. (Mu.23.03.68, end of pg.1) (Mu.12.03.99, end of pg.1)
- You shouldn't make excuses when you get any order from the government. 'I can't do this' [saying] this is called [to be] disobedient. You do get shrimat for such actions; then you should think that it is the elevated direction of Shivbaba. [...] His direction is never wrong. So, you should consider all that to be Shivbaba's [direction] and act [accordingly]. Shivbaba is certainly the Giver of true liberation. [...] He will never give wrong directions. (Mu.03.10.69, beginning of pg.2) (Mu.18.10.00, end of pg.2)
- There, you get many directions. Here, you get just one [type of] direction. It is a wonderful direction. (Mu.07.04.69, beginning of pg.1)
- Whatever directions you receive, you receive them directly from the Father. Even if you receive [directions] through the souls who are instruments, the dadis, it is very necessary to give regard to it. You should neither make excuses nor should you be careless in this. (A.V.30.03.98, beginning of pg.146)
- Children who are sensible will take shrimat whenever they have to take any advice. They will never be deceived by following the shrimat. Shrimat is of Shivbaba alone. He is not far away. (Mu.11.12.77, beginning of the middle part of pg.2)
- Even if you receive direction from a BK, you should check whether the direction is right or wrong. You children have also received the sense of right and wrong now. (Mu.27.01.95, middle of pg.3)
- Baba says, now remember Me, become a trustee and follow the shrimat. Keep taking advice in everything. If you want to get your children and so on married, you are not forbidden. Everyone's karmic account is different. As is the child, he is given advice [accordingly] after considering his karmic accounts. [...] If you have money, you may build a house. You are not forbidden. Build a house and so on, get your children married and so on, settle your karmic accounts and then come and become Baba's [child]. (Mu.14.09.73, middle of pg.3)

- We are the true mukhvanshaavali Brahmins. So, the children should accept whatever the Father says through His mouth. (Mu.15.09.71, beginning of pg.3) (Mu.22.10.96, end of the middle part of pg.3)
- God gives directions directly: do this, I am responsible [for it]. [...] Always think that God gives you this direction. (Mu.13.01.70, end of pg.1)

BENEFITS BY [FOLLOWING] SHRIMAT AND HARMS [INVOLVED] IN [NOT FOLLOWING THE SHRIMAT]

- Nobody can become righteous without shrimat. (Mu.31.10.73, middle of pg.3)
- The Father fulfills all your wishes without being requested, only if you obey the Father's orders. If you violate the orders of the Father and follow the opposite path, then it is possible that you might fall in hell instead of going to heaven. (Mu.02.01.71, middle of pg.1)
- If you don't follow the shrimat of the Unlimited Father, you will die like animals. (Mu.18.02.69, beginning of the middle part of pg.2)
- If you violate shrimat, you will become a licentious person (lampat) or a prostitute. You won't even realize [this]. The Father certainly warns the children: you shouldn't violate the shrimat. You have reached such a miserable state just because of following demonic opinions. (Mu.02.01.69, end of the middle part of pg.1)
- If Baba tells [them], "don't do this"; they won't listen. They will definitely perform opposite actions and show it. The capital is being established. All types [of people] are required in it, aren't they? (Mu.10.12.68, end of the middle part of pg.3)
- There are many gops (brothers) who make committees etc. among themselves. Whatever you do, if you do it without the support of shrimat, you do disservice. If you do it without [taking] shrimat, you will just continue to fall. In the beginning as well, when Baba had committees organized, it was of the mothers alone. (Mu.02.01.69, end of pg.1)
- Whenever you violate any Divine (Ishwariya) rule or the directions of shrimat in thoughts, speech or actions, you are confused. (A.V.14.01.84, middle of pg.101)
- You have to work hard when you cross the line of the code of conduct through thoughts, words or actions. You have received a code of conduct for every step through Bapdada. By taking [every] step according to it, you automatically become *maryaadaa purushottam*⁷. (A.V.21.04.83, middle of pg.156)
- Only those who follow the shrimat become intelligent. Then, they can't remain hidden. They will always perform only righteous deeds. (Mu.09.08.71, beginning of the middle part of pg.3)
- You become stubborn; just like a child becomes obstinate, doesn't he? You become obstinate like a child and follow the opinion of your mind. That is why you trouble yourself. Don't be obstinate like a child. If you mix the opinion of your mind with shrimat, then the ones who do this mixture receive punishment. It is not the Father who gives punishment, but you yourself take the share of punishment. The loss of happiness, power itself is a punishment, isn't it? (A.V.03.05.77, middle of pg.123)
- If your step is according to the shrimat, your mind will never be dissatisfied. There won't be any type of confusion in the mind. By following the shrimat there will automatically be natural happiness. [...] There will be confusion in the mind of the one who follows the opinion of his mind. The one who follows the shrimat will always be light and happy. (A.V.29.05.77, beginning of pg.194)
- It is necessary to follow shrimat at every step. You should live very sweetly with each other, otherwise, you will bring disgrace to Bapdada. (Mu.09.02.73, end of pg.2)
- You will always remain safe by following shrimat. The meaning of being 'always safe' is really weighty. He makes you 'always safe' to such an extent [that] you will never be hurt, you won't have any trouble. Your body will remain healthy. (Mu.26.05.64, end of the middle part of pg.3)

⁷ The best among the souls in following the code of conduct

- Everyone else's opinion is bad advice, the Iron Age demonic opinion. You will just become the ones with a wicked intellect (kumat) through them. Now I make you wise (*sumat*⁸). Don't follow anyone else's opinion. I am the most elevated, [so] I will definitely make you high. So, you should grasp that shrimat. If you take opinions from anyone else, you will be deceived. (Mu.02.04.73, end of pg.2, beginning of pg.3)
- Whatever Baba says, keep doing it, then Baba Himself knows the plan [how to get it done]. Follow whatever Baba says, then it is beneficial. If Baba says, 'do this, live like this', [you should say,] yes, I am present. [You shouldn't say,] why? No. [You should say,] yes, I am present. Did you understand? If [you say,] 'yes Your Highness or yes, I am present', then you will always continue to go in the flying stage. (A.V.12.10.81, end of pg.40, beginning of pg.41)
- You should accept whatever the Senior Baba says, shouldn't you? [...] You should accept His words with closed eyes. But you aren't the ones with such an intellect with faith. Whether you suffer loss or gain through it, you should accept it. Even if you suffer a loss, Baba says - doesn't He? - Always think that Shivbaba says [this]. Don't think it is Brahma. Shivbaba is responsible. This is His chariot. He will correct it automatically. He will say: I am sitting. Always think that it is Shivbaba who speaks. (Mu.04.04.71, beginning of the middle part of pg.3)
- Only those who follow the Father's orders will attain true liberation (sadgati). (Mu.12.05.77, middle of pg.2)
- Now follow My shrimat. Stop your demonic opinions. If you follow your opinion it means, you make purusharth (spiritual effort) of attaining degradation. Finally, you attain the stage of decline. (Mu.25.01.73, middle of pg.2)
- Those who don't follow the shrimat, you should think for them that they are the worst Ajamil. (Mu.16.04.73, beginning of the middle part of pg.1)
- God is the Master, isn't He? He gives shrimat: do this. If you don't do it, you are an atheist, aren't you? (Mu.18.12.73, beginning of pg.3)
- Now follow My directions accurately. These Mamma and Baba follow it accurately, this is why it is they who receive the emperorship first of all. (Mu.03.03.72, middle of pg.2) [Mu.05.03.97, end of pg.2]
- Baba who gives shrimat, the Husband is sitting, isn't He? [...] If you do not follow shrimat at every step, you will be confused. Baba is not far away. You should come face to face [with Him] and ask. (Mu.03.01.78, end of pg.2)
- When someone follows the opinion of someone else, he dies. They write to Baba: Baba, ask Maya to forgive us. Baba says, no; in fact, now I order Maya to create a lot of storms. Drop mountains of sorrow and wrong actions (vikarm) at once. Shake them well by holding their nose. (Mu.07.05.73, pg.3,4) [Mu.11.04.03, beginning of pg.4]
- There are Chandikas⁹ as well, who don't follow the Father's shrimat, aren't there? If the Father's children are not obedient, He calls them *candaal*¹⁰. (Mu.13.02.68, middle of pg.2)
- The child who follows every shrimat of Your Highness [saying:] I am present Your Highness, all [kind of] powers also [say,] 'we are present your highness' in front of him. (A.V.02.11.04, end of pg.19)
- If you do not follow the Father's orders, you will suffer a great loss. Baba Himself says, if you don't obey My orders, if you become My children and create obstacles instead of helping [Me] in purifying Bharat, you will receive very severe punishments. The destination is very far away. (Mu.23.09.71, beginning of pg.3)
- [The Father] says, if you follow My directions, I will make you the master of heaven. You become so righteous in every cycle (kalpa) through My shrimat. After half a cycle, when My directions end and demonic directions begin, you become poor and like cowries¹¹. (Mu.07.04.73, beginning of pg.4)

TRIMURTI

- Brahma, Vishnu or Shiva certainly won't bring about destruction. Destruction through Shankar is famous. This is why the Trimurti is the main picture. (Mu.26.11.72, end of pg.1)
- The Trimurti Supreme Father Supreme Soul Shiva alone is the Giver of knowledge and the Giver of true liberation to everyone. Brahma, Vishnu and Shankar, all the three are born together. It is not just Shiv jayanti (the birthday of Shiva) but [it is] Trimurti Shiv jayanti (the birth of Trimurti Shiva). (Mu.27.09.75, beginning of pg.3)
- Baba makes it so easy and explains. Just go and sit in front of the picture of the Trimurti then the complete cycle will come in your intellect. [You will come to know:] This is Shivbaba, this is Brahma. (Mu.09.09.77, beginning of pg.3)
- They show the Trimurti (three personalities). But they have removed Shivbaba. Then they say that Brahma has three faces. Then, who is this one with one face? (Mu.12.04.72, end of pg.2)
- Children, you write the words: Trimurti Shiv jayanti but the three personalities certainly aren't present now. You will say that Shivbaba creates the world through Brahma, so Brahma is certainly required in the corporeal form, isn't he? As for the rest, where are Vishnu and Shankar at present so that you say Trimurti? These are the topics to be understood very well. The very meaning of Trimurti is Brahma, Vishnu [and] Shankar. Only you know the secret of the Trimurti Brahma, Vishnu [and] Shankar. (Mu.18.02.76, end of pg.1)
- This Trimurti is depicted. In it, it should actually be Brahma, Vishnu and Shiva, not Shankar. But, how can [the point] Shiva be kept next to them? So Shankar has been kept and Shiva (the Point) has been placed above. It is certainly graceful this way. There is no grace in just two. Otherwise, Shankar doesn't have any part in reality. (Mu.16.04.68, end of the middle part of pg.1) [Mu.07.05.69, middle of pg.1]
- People do say Trimurti Brahma. They won't say Trimurti Shankar or Trimurti Vishnu. Shankar is called *Dev Dev Mahadev*¹², then why do they say Trimurti Brahma? [Shivbaba] creates subjects (prajaa) through this one (Brahma), so, he becomes His wife (banni). Shankar or Vishnu do not become [His] wife. These are very wonderful topics to be understood. (Mu.11.01.73, middle of pg.3)
- The Trimurti (three personalities) is certainly shown. Only Shiva has been removed. They have destroyed Him. They have put Him in lumps of soil (thikkar) and walls (bhittar) and hidden His corpse. He is certainly a soul. He also eats; He is also the Ocean of Knowledge. (Mu.10.09.73, middle of pg.1)
- The vice less world of deities is being established through Brahma. There will also be destruction through Shankar, and then there will be the kingdom of Vishnu. (Mu.22.01.78, beginning of the middle part of pg.2)
- In the exhibition, firstly you should explain everything just about the Trimurti: this is your Baba. That one is dada (grandfather). (Mu.31.10.71, middle of pg.2)
- They have ruined [the picture] by removing Shiva from the Trimurti. Just like there are people who ruin pictures as well, aren't there? There was a Muslim king who used to just destroy the pictures of the deities. Now you children understand, there is so much secret in the picture of the Trimurti. (Mu.17.11.76, beginning of the middle part of pg.1)
- These Brahma, Vishnu and Shankar will also play their part and go back. (Mu.22.05.71, beginning of the middle part of pg.2)
- In India, they also prepare the picture of the Trimurti, but they have removed the picture of Shiva from it. Just like humans are beheaded, Shiva, the head has been removed from the Trimurti. (Mu.26.06.71, end of pg.2)
- Just like the Father also has to have the task performed through the three personalities, that is why the Trimurti are specially praised and worshipped. You say Trimurti Shiva. There are three special officers of the One Father through whom He has the tasks of the world performed. (A.V.04.01.80, end of pg.173)

¹² The greatest deity

- There is complete knowledge in the picture of the Trimurti Shiva. Just the picture of the Giver of knowledge (Shiva) is missing in the picture of the Trimurti. There is the picture of the taker of knowledge (Brahma). (Mu.23.01.70, beginning of the middle part of pg.2)
- Now Shiv jayanti is arriving; you should prepare the picture of the Trimurti Shiva. Why not prepare the accurate [picture] of the Trimurti - Brahma, Vishnu [and] Shankar? (Mu.19.01.75, beginning of the middle part of pg.3)
- Shankar certainly won't be called Prajapita. In fact, Shankar has a part just once. (Mu.09.09.77, end of the middle part of pg.2)
- Nobody can know the glory of the Trimurti. [...] The unique (ananya) children explain that all their desires are being fulfilled. (Night class mu.10.03.92, middle of pg.3)
- They have ruined [the picture] by removing Shiva from the Trimurti. [...] Now you children understand, there is so much secret in the picture of the Trimurti. (Mu.17.11.76, beginning of the middle part of pg.1) [Mu.20.11.96, middle of pg.1]
- Shivbaba sits and explains to everyone. Because of not understanding, they don't keep Shiva in the Trimurti at all. They show Brahma, who is called Prajapita Brahma. (Mu.13.10.68, end of pg.1) [Mu.18.09.04, beginning of pg.2]
- When the Father comes, Brahma, Vishnu [and] Shankar are also certainly required. It is said: Trimurti God Shiva speaks. Well, He won't speak through all the three [simultaneously], will He? (Mu.26.02.67, beginning of pg.1)
- His Shiv jayanti (birthday of Shiva) is celebrated. Actually, there should also be the Trimurti along with Shiva. You celebrate the Trimurti Shiv jayanti. Nothing will be proved by just celebrating Shiv jayanti. (Mu.19.01.75, pg.2,3)
- Nobody except the Father can be the one who establishes the new world and destroys the old world. It is also written: establishment through Brahma, destruction through Shankar, sustenance through Vishnu. It is for here itself. (Mu.09.10.70, middle of pg.3)
- The Supreme Father Supreme Soul brings about the establishment of the new world through Brahma [and] the destruction of the old world through Shankar. The very meaning of Trimurti is the establishment through Brahma, [and] the sustenance through Vishnu. (Mu.15.01.67, end of pg.1) [Mu.17.01.90, end of pg.1]
- People also remember Brahma, Vishnu [and] Shankar. They are certainly visible through these [physical] eyes. (Mu.19.08.73, middle of pg.1)

SHANKAR IS PRESENT HERE ITSELF
(THE CORPOREAL ACTOR IN THE SUBTLE STAGE)

- Shankar says, my part is [to bring about] destruction. I also inspire the elements [saying,] bring earthquakes, torrential rains. This direction of destruction is received through Shankar, the direction for the establishment [is received] through Brahma. (Mu.07.04.73, end of pg.3)
- Kumarka! Tell [Me], how many children does Shivbaba have? Some say 500 crore (five billion); some say that Brahma is the only child. Isn't Shankar [My] child? Then whose child is he? There is a margin for this, too. I say, Shivbaba has two children, because Brahma becomes Vishnu. The one who is left is Shankar. So, there are two, aren't there? Why do you leave out Shankar? It is said, 'the Trimurti', but their occupations are different, aren't they? (Mu.14.05.72, end of pg.2)
- I have been given names based on the tasks that I have performed. They say, Har Har Mahadev, the one who removes the sorrow of everyone. I Myself am that one as well. It is not Shankar. Shankar is also present for service because of My inspiration. Brahma is also present for service. (Mu.04.11.73, middle of pg.2)
- What does Shankar do? His part is so wonderful that you can't believe it. (Mu.14.05.70, beginning of pg.2)

- Hadn't Shankar existed, they wouldn't have combined Me (Shivbaba) with Shankar either. They have prepared his picture, so, they have also combined Me with Shankar. They call him Shiv-Shankar Mahadev. So, *Mahadev*¹³ becomes the eldest. (Mu.26.06.70, end of pg.2)
- Actually, Brahma, Vishnu [and] Shankar are called Dev Dev Mahadev, because Shankar is next to Shiva. Brahma and Vishnu are reborn, but Shankar isn't. Just like Shivbaba is subtle, Shankar is also subtle. (Mu.29.09.77, end of pg.2)
- The Father has explained, Shankar doesn't have much of a part. He is next to Shiva. (Mu.08.03.76, middle of pg.2)
- Vishnu and Shankar can also have bodily ego. (Mu.07.04.72, middle of pg.1)
- Your marshal is certainly Shankar. His very task is to bring about destruction. Neither you nor he uses any weapons. Shankar's task is to bring about destruction. Shivbaba's task is to have the task of establishment accomplished. Certainly, Shiva and Shankar are not the same. Actually, that Shankar is Shivbaba's child. (Mu.20.12.73, middle of pg.2)
- Shivbaba is the head. Next are Brahma, Vishnu, and Shankar. Their dynasty has 84 births. Shankar is for destruction, so, he is next to Shiva. (Mu.21.02.71, end of pg.4)
- It is not that Shankar-Parvati don't exist at all. This is the corporeal world. (Mu.08.05.70, beginning of pg.2)
- The Father is ever worship worthy. He never becomes a worshipper. Acchaa, then, at the second number, it will be said that Shankar is also ever worship worthy. He never becomes a worshipper. He doesn't have a part here (in the corporeal world). (Mu.28.08.71, middle of pg.2)
- The world was created through the thoughts of Brahma and the gates will open through the thoughts of Brahma themselves. Now who is Shankar? This is also a deep secret. When Brahma himself is Vishnu, who is Shankar? Have a spiritual chit-chat on this too. (A.V.01.01.79, beginning of pg.166)
- They say for Shankar, don't they? He opened his eyes and [there was] destruction in a second. This is the sign of the task of the destructive form. (A.V.04.11.76, end of pg.1)
- Actually, Shankar doesn't have much of a part. Destruction certainly has to take place. The Father brings about destruction through the one who isn't stained with any sin. If you say that God destroys [the world], then He will be blamed. (Mu.29.04.70, middle of pg.1) [Mu.11.05.90]
- Many people ask, what is the part of Shankar? How does he bring about destruction through inspiration? Tell [them], this is famous. There are pictures as well, so they are explained. Actually, you don't have any connection with these things. (Mu.20.03.73, beginning of pg.3)
- Firstly, understand that we have to take the inheritance from the Father. Become manmanaabhav (merge in My mind). What does Shankar do? What does such and such person do? What is the need to be involved in these [topics]? Just hold two words: remember the Father and His inheritance, then you will get the capital. As for the rest, you don't have any connection with these things: why they have shown snakes around the neck of Shankar, why he sits in such a yogic posture. The only main thing is to remember the Father. As for the rest, many questions like this will arise. [Tell them:] How will you be benefitted by this? Forget everything. [...] If someone asks wrong questions, tell him: First, at least understand the knowledge, consider yourself to be a soul and remember the Father. Leave everything else. You will understand [these things] in future. (Mu.20.03.73, beginning of pg.3) [Mu.14.03.88, end of pg.2, beginning of pg.3]
- Destruction has to take place through Shankar. He is also doing his duty. Shankar does exist, that is why, people have visions [of Shankar]. (Mu.26.02.73, end of pg.1)
- Shankar is a deity. Then, they have combined Shiva and Shankar. Now the Father says, I have entered this one, so you say Bap-Dada. And they say Shiv-Shankar. They don't say Shankar-Shiv; they say Shiv-Shankar. (Mu.11.02.67, beginning of pg.2) [Mu.11.02.75]
- If you ask Shankar, [but] you can't ask. Suppose you ask [him] in the subtle world, he will say, this subtle body is mine. Shivbaba says, this [body] doesn't belong to Me, I have taken it on loan. (Mu.16.04.71, beginning of pg.1)

¹³ The greatest deity among all the deities

- There is one God, He has just one child. It is said: Trimurti Brahma. Who is the eldest among the deities (devi-devataayein)? Shankar is called Mahadev. (Mu.10.02.72, end of the middle part of pg.4)
- It has also been explained about Shankar that he doesn't have any part. It doesn't mean that Shankar should be removed. [...] On one side they also sing: *Dev Dev Mahadev*¹⁴. In fact, Shankar is called Mahadev. Mahadev is certainly the eldest, isn't he? (Mu.24.09.69, beginning of pg.2)
- God the Highest on high also has a strange part. The part of Brahma and Vishnu won't be said to be strange. Both pass through the cycle of 84 [births]. As for the rest, Shankar doesn't have much of a part. (Mu.26.08.69, beginning of the middle part of pg.1)
- They are just three. Even among them, in reality, Brahma is physical, Vishnu is also physical. Only Shankar is subtle. (Mu.10.12.83, beginning of pg.1)
- Well, Shankar is a subtle world dweller. There aren't bulls and so on in the subtle world at all. Bull means a male. Bhagirath¹⁵ is shown to be a male. (Mu.22.10.71, end of the middle part of pg.3)
- They call [him] Bhola Bhandari (the innocent supervisor of the storehouse) Shiv-Shankar. They consider Shankar to be Bholanath¹⁶. Actually, Shankar does not appear to be Bholanath. (Mu.20.03.69, pg.1,2) [Mu.11.02.99, middle of pg.2]
- Shankar is certainly beyond [the cycle of] birth and death. (Mu.14.05.70, beginning of pg.2)
- Actually, only Vishnu is a couple. [...] Shankar isn't a couple either. This is the reason ... they say Shiv-Shankar. Well, what does Shankar do? Destruction certainly has to take place through atom bombs. How will the Father sit and bring about the death of children? This will be a sin. (Mu.21.10.75, beginning of the middle part of pg.3) [Mu.17.11.00, end of pg.3]
- [The Father] establishes the new world through Brahma and destroys numerous religions through Shankar. (Mu.04.06.66, middle of pg.1)

REVELATION OF THE FATHER

- Whether in dreams, or with a glimpse of one second or through the sound of revelation in all the four directions, the souls of the entire world will certainly have visions: the hero actors of this drama have been revealed on the stage, the stars of the earth have been revealed on the earth. Everyone will be very happy on finding their favorite deity (ishta dev). They will get support. (A.V.20.02.86, middle of pg.200)
- The last bomb meaning the bomb of the Supreme Soul is [the bomb] of the Father's revelation. This voice should come from anyone who sees [Him], anyone who comes in contact and listens to [the knowledge from Him]: the Father has come. The task of the direct Almighty Authority is going on. [...] The Teacher is the direct Almighty. The Sun of Knowledge has risen in the corporeal world, this is a secret at present. [...] Through this last bomb [...] the Father will be revealed amidst everyone. The Father of the World will be clearly visible in the world. (A.V.28.12.78, beginning of pg.159, middle of pg.161)
- The curtain of revelation has begun to rise. Now a desire is arising in the souls of all the four directions to go near and see. The hearsays are now changing into [the desire to] see [...] This result of the powerful effect of the Father and some elevated souls who have become instruments has been seen until now. If the majority [of the souls] achieve success in this way, then very soon, all the Brahmins will be revealed in their successful form (siddhi swaruup). (A.V.02.11.87, middle of pg.113)
- The Diamond jubilee means to raise up the slogan of revelation. So, from this year, the curtain of revelation has now begun to rise. On one hand [the Father] was revealed in India through the foreign countries, on the other hand, the instrument great heads of zones (mahaamandaleshvar) attained success in the great task. Abroad, the people of U.N. became instruments. They are especially famous and in India too, there is a famous religious authority. So, when the religious souls are revealed

¹⁴ The deity of the deities, the greatest deity

¹⁵ A mythological character who performed intense meditation to bring the river Ganges down to earth

¹⁶ The Lord of the innocent

through the people of the religious authority, this will be the beginning of raising the curtain of revelation. Now, it has begun to rise. [...] The children abroad who became the instruments in [this] task, this was also a special task. Because of this task, they became instruments in the special task of revelation. So Bapdada is also giving special congratulations to the children of the foreign countries for the service of becoming instruments in the final revelation of the hero actor. (A.V.01.10.87, end of pg.63, beginning of pg.64)

- This is the Divine (Ishwariya) task that is going on, it is not an ordinary thing. [...] You should come and experience this here. [...] Through all types of means, the revelation of the Father's practical part should certainly be seen on the land of incarnation in practice. (A.V.17.05.72, end of pg.280)
- Sometimes Bapdada is visible directly and sometimes he appears to be hidden behind the curtains, but Bapdada is always visible in front of the children. [...] Why do you make the imperishable relationships perishable by saying, 'Baba has left'? Only the part has changed. Just like you too change your place of service, don't you? So Brahma [and] the Father have also changed the place of service. The form is the same, the service is the same. The role of the thousand-armed Brahma is going on at present. So, there is the praise and the memorial of this form in the corporeal world. The arms can't perform tasks without the Father. The arms are enabling the revelation of the Father. The one who makes them do it is present; that is why they are doing this. (A.V.18.01.78, end of pg.34, beginning of pg.35)
- This year, something new certainly has to happen, which has been planned for the year 76. But [someone] has to become the instrument, and it has to happen according to the drama. The one who becomes an instrument becomes famous in the entire Brahmin clan. This is also a prize. (A.V.31.10.75, end of pg.255)
- The part of Brahma in the task of establishment is fixed till the end. Until the task of establishment is completed, the part of the soul who has become the instrument (Prajapita Brahma) will not be completed. He can't play another part till then. The part of the World Father of completing the creation of the new world is fixed in the drama. Only Brahma is famous for creating all the dynasties of the human creation. So he is praised as the Great Great Grandfather. Only the state, place and speed have changed, but the part of Brahma is the same even now. (A.V.30.06.74, middle of pg.83)
- Just like in the beginning, only one [soul] became the instrument in the corporeal form in the task of establishment. The telegram of Alaf was received by one [soul] (Lekhraj Brahma) at first; he alone became the one who renounced everything for the sake of service. [...] Now, in the end too, (in order to uplift the children and make them subtle) the Father Himself had to become the resident of the subtle world. He had to attain the subtle world, a place higher than this corporeal world. Now the Father says, make the service and yourself perfect like the Father, become the resident of the subtle world like the Father. (A.V.18.01.79, beginning of pg.228)
- Till now they have reached the great souls, not the Supreme Soul. They do understand that they (the great souls) are the ones who will enable them to meet the Supreme Soul but [the great souls] will have to make a plan for what they will do on meeting the Supreme Soul. (A.V.23.02.78, end of pg.2, beginning of pg.3)
- You can have indestructible lines of fortune drawn through God, because both the Fathers, the creators of fortune are present in front of the eyes (haazir-naazir) of the children at present. (A.V.14.10.81, end of pg.55, beginning of pg.56)
- There is a support in the corporeal form even now. Just like earlier too, the corporeal body which became an instrument was the support, similarly, now also there is a support in the corporeal form, which has become an instrument in the drama. Earlier also, it was an instrument and even now it is an instrument. This corporeal support of the entire family [of the Advance knowledge] is very elevated. He is certainly with [the family] in the subtle form. [...] Love for the corporeal one means love for the whole dynasty. The corporeal one is not alone. [There is] Prajapita Brahma, so there is a family with him. (A.V.18.01.70, end of pg.166)
- Who and where in India is the instrument to spread the spiritual light, this is yet to become clear. There is this search within everyone now, that there are many souls in India who are said to be spiritual souls, but finally, who is a religious soul and who is the Supreme Soul among them? Is it this one? Is it that one? They are busy thinking just this. They haven't reached this very decision yet: it is this one. (A.V.28.12.82, end of pg.15)

- Just this voice should come out of everyone's mouth and mind: he is the same one. They should experience: just by meeting him, we have met the Father. Whatever we have received, we have received it just through this one. This one alone is the master, the guide, angel, and messenger. There should be just this obsession within everyone: It is just this very one, it is this one, it is that very one [whom we were searching]. There should be the craze of just these two words: It is this one and it is that very one. They should clap with joy [saying:] we have found him, we have found him. Make them experience this. (A.V.10.01.82, end of pg.229)
- In the coming two months, you should especially beat the drums (nagaaraa) of the Father's revelation in all the four directions with raised voice. After hearing the sound of those drums, the souls who are sleeping should wake up. (A.V.23.01.73, end of pg.14, beginning of pg.15)
- On this *Shivraatri*¹⁷ you have to perform the task of revealing the Father. You should become fearless and give the actual introduction [of the Father] with authority. While celebrating the Shivraatri festival this time, everyone should organize such a programme that everybody's attention is drawn towards the creator of the world and they should recognize Adidev, meaning the corporeal Brahma through whom [He] played the part. This Shivraatri should [be the festival] that especially reveals the Father, [the festival] with newness. [...] Celebrate this Shivraatri as the Shivraatri of revelation. Who they are and with whom they enable [us] to form a relation, everybody's attention should be drawn towards this. Everyone should experience that their requirements can be fulfilled just here. They will find the key to all kinds of happiness here itself. (A.V.03.02.79, end of pg.266, beginning of pg.267)
- For example, at different time intervals, just one Sun or Moon can be seen, can't it? Similarly, these children of the Sun of Knowledge should be visible in every corner. [...] There should be just this thing in everybody's thoughts [and] mouth that the stars of knowledge have been revealed along with the Sun of Knowledge. It is then that the collective voice from all the directions will echo everywhere and the time of revelation will arrive. Now an incognito part is going on. Now reveal it. Make a plan, then Bap-dada will also tell you [what to do, what plan should be made]. (A.V.11.03.81, beginning of pg.40)
- It is a wonder when the seed is revealed through expansion. They hide the seed in the expansion. Now it is the last stage of the tree, isn't it? It is incognito in the middle. It can't remain incognito till the end. After expanding a lot, ultimately, it is the seed that is revealed, isn't it? It is the nature of the human souls that they are attracted more to variety. (A.V.17.05.72, middle of pg.281)
- Now you will have to make preparations, won't you? Do not think that [just] you will go, but think: we will take everyone along [with us]. We will make everyone have visions, satisfy everyone, beat the drum of revelation and then go. Why should we go first? Now we will go along with the Father. We will go after experiencing (seeing) the wonderful scene of revelation as well, won't we? (A.V.26.11.84, middle of pg.32)
- Unless the uniform stage of this divine gathering becomes famous, the revelation of Bapdada will not come close. (A.V.14.04.73, end of pg.32)
- On this Shivraatri [...] make the vow that [people] should also take the *prasaad*¹⁸ of having a glimpse of the Father or experiencing [Him] along with [His] introduction. (A.V.05.12.78, end of pg.102, beginning of pg.103)
- It is the children who will show the Father. [It is said:] son shows the Father. Then the Father shows the son. He shows the soul, doesn't He? (Mu.19.12.70, beginning of pg.3)
- Bapdada knows that there are many such gems in this group, who are the beads of the rosary on Bapdada's neck. The Father is also seeing many scenes of always revealing such beads in front of the world or the Father being revealed in front of the world through the children. They are being revealed now and will be revealed in future, too. (A.V.01.01.79, middle of pg.167)

¹⁷ Lit.the night of Shiva; a Hindu festival celebrated in the honour of Shiva

¹⁸ Food offered to an idol

- This should come [in the intellect:] it is just this one, this one, this one [...] Till now this hasn't come [in the intellect:] this one is also [the corporeal one], it is this one. (A.V.11.03.02, end of pg.74, beginning of pg.75)
- Who is supposed to reveal [the Father], is it the children or the Father? Even the Father has to reveal [Himself] through the children, because even if [people] have the vision of the Point of Light, then many poor ones - they are poor, aren't they? - they won't understand at all, what this is. In the end, the Father is to be revealed through the *shaktis*¹⁹ and the Pandava children. (A.V.16.12.00, end of pg.4)
- Whenever someone turns on the radio, switches on the TV, this voice should be heard: 'Our Shivbaba has come'. Then it will be said that the flag of revelation was waved. (A.V.31.12.05, beginning of pg.6)
- Dadi had just one thought in her life: now, we should spread the voice of the Father's revelation as soon as possible. So, the first chapter, a small chapter of the revelation of the Ishwariya Vishwavidyalaya and Bapdada has begun through the revelation, the revelation [done] through Dadi. (A.V.06.09.07, middle of pg.1)
- The service of both quality and quantity should take place simultaneously. [...] The Father will be revealed when the quality [souls] reveal the task and the Father. (A.V.20.03.04, beginning of pg.4)
- The land of revelation of Brahma and the Father is Calcutta [...] The end should also be at the place it (the yagya) began from. (A.V.18.01.05, end of pg.2)
- This voice should emerge from everybody's heart: our Father has come, He is my Father. Not the Father of the Brahmakumaris, He is my Father. [...] This drum will continue to sound through all the means of science: my Father has come. [...] Wherever they hear, they will hear just one voice: those who had to come have arrived. This is called the clear revelation of the Father. (A.V.18.01.97, end of pg.16)
- Now, you shouldn't [reveal] the Father alone. He has to be revealed along with the children. Just as special Brahmins also became instruments along with Brahma in the establishment, in the end too, the unique children will also appear in practice in the form of deities along with the Father. (A.V.13.11.97, middle of pg.68)
- They also know that some authority is the backbone of these ones, but he himself is Bapdada and we too have to take the inheritance from the Father [...] this is yet to happen. (A.V.18.01.97, beginning pg.17)
- When you prepare heirs here, the Advance Party will also be revealed and the drum of the Father's name and [His] revelation will be beaten everywhere. As per the result obtained till now, people say that these people are also doing a good job or some say that only these people can do [a good job], but their attention should be drawn towards the Supreme Soul, the task of the Supreme Soul is going on here, this is still incognito. (A.V.31.12.96, middle of pg.8)
- This curtain of 'I' comes in front a little. When this curtain is removed, [people] will have the visions of the Father through everyone. Then this slogan will be raised: the Father has come in practice, the Father has come [...] They won't have visions through divine insight (drishti), they will have the visions of the form in practice. Just one voice will come from everybody's mouth: this is the Father incarnate. (A.V.28.02.03, middle of pg.92)

ENTRANCE OF THE FATHER SHIVA

- The Highest on high Father should certainly enter the highest one. People think that Shri Krishna is the highest. (Mu.11.02.69, middle of pg.2)
- Those who stayed [together] for 10 years used to go into a trance and make Mamma and Baba also perform the drill. They sat as the heads (chiefs). Baba entered them and gave directions. They had such a high position. Even Mamma and Baba used to learn from them. Even they aren't present today. There wasn't so much knowledge at that time. (Mu.25.07.67, end of pg.2)

¹⁹ Consorts of Shiva

- There can't be any defect in the incarnation of Shivbaba at all. It isn't known at all when He comes. It isn't even so that He came (entered) when he had visions. No. You can [only] guess. However, it won't be said that He entered [him] at that time. He did have visions: I will become this and this, the world will be set on fire. The minute or second [of His incarnation] can't be calculated. His incarnation is also alokik (subtle). (Mu.12.01.69, end of pg.3, beginning of pg.4) [Mu.01.01.76, end of pg.3]
- This Brahma is also adopted. The Father Himself says, I come and become the Charioteer of this chariot. I give him knowledge. I begin with him. I give the pot [of knowledge] to the mothers. This one (Brahma) is also the mother, isn't he? At first this one becomes [the instrument], and then you [become that]. (Mu.02.03.73, beginning of pg.2) [Mu.02.03.78, beginning of pg.2]
- The Father explains: I do not enter the devotees of this birth. I enter the one who commenced bhakti (worship) first of all. (Mu.26.06.68, end of pg.2)
- The Father also explains: I enter this sinful body. I make everyone *satopradhaan*²⁰ through these very ones. (Mu.20.01.75, middle of pg.3)
- Baba says: I entered these ones in their vaanprashtha stage²¹, at the end of many births, at the age of 60 years. (Mu.26.11.72, end of pg.2) [Mu.06.11.02, beginning of pg.3]
- I enter [them] even at the end of the last birth of many births. (Mu.26.03.74, end of pg.1)
- The Father says, I won't come in a bull, a donkey and so on. I come only in the one who was the highest on high and then, has completed 84 births. (Mu.03.06.68, end of pg.3) [Mu.31.05.99, middle of pg.4]
- I enter those very ones who have taken complete 84 births. They were village lads. Then they becomes beautiful (sundar) from dark (shyam). [...] The Father Himself says, I enter in the end of their many births. The one who has become the most sinful himself will also become pure again. It is he who has taken 84 births; so have you (tat twam). (Mu.09.09.68, end of pg.3) [Mu.14.08.04, middle of pg.4]
- The Father tells you who is the most sinful. I enter that very chariot. (Mu.26.06.68, end of pg.3)
- He enters the very one whose part is fixed in the drama and He names him Brahma. [...] If He enters anyone else, that one will also have to be named Brahma. (Mu.17.03.73, end of pg.2)
- People make a guru [theirs] in the vaanprashtha stage itself, after the age of 60 years. Even in the case of this one, the Father entered him after [his] 60 years, then he became the Father, the Teacher and the Guru. (Mu.26.12.68, beginning of pg.2)
- The name of the sinful body is Prajapita Brahma. He enters this one and says, I enter an ordinary human at the end of [his] many births. [...] He doesn't come in the pure subtle world dweller Brahma. (Mu.04.11.65, beginning of pg.1) [Mu.06.11.97, middle of pg.1]

ENTRANCE IN CHILDREN

- I can enter any child and bring benefit to anyone. As for the rest, I won't enter an animal and make [people] have visions. (Mu.06.09.73, end of pg.3)
- The entire attention of the children goes towards Shivbaba. He can never fall sick. He can narrate the murli through the body of Brahma or through any other good child as well. (Mu.17.01.70, beginning of the middle part of pg.1)
- The Father also sees, he is an intelligent, educated [person]. The one he has found to explain is dull, then He Himself will enter [the one who explains] and uplift him (the listener). Then there are many intelligent children who say, we didn't have as much knowledge as the Father who sat and explained [through me]. [While] some develop ego about themselves. (Mu.20.03.68, end of pg.3)
- Baba says, no matter how a child is, I have to enter him too to bring benefit to others. Baba enters [him] and narrates the murli. (Night class mu.02.01.73, end of pg.4)

²⁰ Consisting in the quality of goodness and purity

²¹ The stage of retirement

- Even if she is a little girl, I enter this one (Brahma) and make [her] have visions so that she is astonished and then belongs to Brahma; [so that] she becomes the one with a loving intellect towards the Father. (Mu.05.08.73, beginning of the middle part of pg.2)
- The Father keeps doing a lot of service through the children as well. He enters someone and does service. He certainly has to do service. How can the one who has responsibility sleep? (Mu.17.01.70, end of pg.2)
- The Father says, I don't enter anyone at all. [...] Yes, if there are some children with a dull intellect and if a good seeker [of knowledge] comes, then in order to do his service I can enter [the children with the dull intellect] and give drishti. I can't sit [in him] forever. [...] He can take different forms and bring benefit to anyone. However, nobody will say, 'Shivbaba is in me, Shivbaba tells me this'. No. (Mu.28.09.68, middle of pg.1) [Mu.09.09.04, end of pg.1]
- Baba has explained, I go (enter) [someone] to bring benefit to anyone. I certainly come in a sinful body, don't I? Still, this one has knowledge. There are some who are completely idiots. I enter even them to bring benefit to anyone; the only condition is that they should be Brahmins. (Mu.07.03.67, middle of pg.2)
- I enter these ones and then depart. I don't ride a bull the whole day. Whenever the children remember Me, I am present. (Mu.04.06.66, beginning of pg.3)

COMPLETE AND INCOMPLETE MAMMA-BABA

- Scriptures are shown in the hands of Brahma. There should be one scripture, shouldn't there? So now, there is the Gita, the crown jewel in the hands of Brahma. Baba sits and narrates the essence of all the Vedas and holy books (granth) through Brahma. (Mu.31.07.73, end of pg.2)
- It isn't that Mamma has gone away so she doesn't teach. Just as Bapdada are combined, Mamma and Baba are also combined. Both have opened this Spiritual University; both of them teach [the knowledge] together. (Mu.25.08.70, end of the middle part of pg.2)
- I transform Bharat into heaven through these Brahma-Saraswati and the Brahmins. The memorials of those who work hard are made. (Mu.05.02.71, middle of pg.2)
- Shivbaba is the main one, then Brahma-Saraswati, the couple. (Mu.04.11.78, middle of pg.2)
- I, the Husband am old, so, I certainly need an old wife. [...] Saraswati is Brahma *mukhvanshaavali*²². She isn't Brahma's wife, she is Brahma's daughter. Then why is she called Jagadamba? Because this one (Brahma) is male, isn't he? So, she has been kept to take care of the mothers. Actually, Brahma mukhvanshaavali Saraswati is Brahma's daughter. Mamma is young, Brahma is old. The young Saraswati certainly isn't suitable as Brahma's wife. She can't be called [his] half partner. (Mu.04.11.73, end of pg.2, beginning of pg.3)
- There will definitely be [this] in the mind of everyone of you: where has our Mamma gone? Now this secret isn't to be revealed at present. Where and what task she is performing, this will be said after some time. She is also cooperative in the task of establishment, but with a different name and form. (A.V.02.02.69, beginning of pg.33)
- If you perform any bad action, you will be disgraced, won't you? That too, in front of the Father. Shivbaba sits [in this one], doesn't He? He will make you have visions: I was in this one. I used to explain to you so much. Now I am in the complete one (Brahma). You daughters go to the complete Baba. Shivbaba gives directions and so on through that one, doesn't He? (Mu.07.11.71, beginning of pg.2)
- Those who have been companions of the form of Brahma in every action, in every character, at the time of every service, from the beginning till the end, will be [his] companions in the future too. (A.V.27.10.81, end of pg.82)
- People think Brahma is Adam, Saraswati is Eve. Actually, this is wrong. When there is Incorporeal God the Father, there will certainly be the mother as well. (Mu.18.05.73, middle of pg.2)
- Actually, Brahma-Saraswati aren't Mamma-Baba either. (Mu.31.03.72, middle of pg.1)

²² Progeny born from the mouth, meaning the knowledge

- Who is offered *bhog*²³, Baba explains this as well. In fact, Shivbaba is *abhoktaa*²⁴. He isn't offered bhog. This bhog is offered to the complete Mamma-Baba. (Mu.22.12.71, end of pg.3)
- What is established through Brahma? The Deity Religion. Brahma is not in the Golden Age (satyug). He will certainly be said to be present here, in the Confluence Age. Brahma is also required for sure. No one has the real photo of Brahma. Some show him with a beard and some show him in some other form. (Mu.03.08.72, beginning of pg.4)
- Brahma is Baba as well as Shiva is Baba. Vishnu and Shankar won't be called Baba (the complete Brahma). (Mu.15.01.67, end of pg.3)
- Tell [them:] (the incomplete) Brahma is not our guru and so on. In fact, he is Dada (the elder brother). [He is] not even Baba, [because] we receive the inheritance from Baba. We don't receive the inheritance from Brahma. (Mu.03.02.67, end of pg.2)
- The Father Himself comes and establishes heaven through the body of Brahma. (Mu.21.01.75, end of pg.2)
- This Prajapita Brahma, who is corporeal (vyakt) now, when he becomes complete, when his sins are destroyed, he becomes an angel. The residents of the subtle world are called angels. (Mu.21.01.73, beginning of the middle part of pg.2)
- This is the Sun of Knowledge. The incognito Mamma is different. Someone can hardly understand and explain this secret. The name of that Mamma is different. There are temples of her. There is no temple of this old mother. (Mu.15.11.72, end of the middle part of pg.3) [Mu.17.11.77, middle of pg.3]
- The Supreme Father Supreme Soul gives knowledge through Brahma. This is called the knowledge of Brahma. Certainly, someone will have given it to Brahma as well, won't he? In fact, the Supreme Father Supreme Soul is the Ocean of Knowledge. He comes and gives [the knowledge] through Brahma. (Mu.03.12.71, end of pg.1)
- Children also have visions of the complete Mamma. [...] If it is very necessary sometimes, Baba will also enter [the children]. (Mu.09.03.68, end of pg.2) [Mu.11.03.04, beginning of pg.3]
- He is called the Mother and the Father. When you sing, 'the Mother and the Father', Brahma-Saraswati can't be called this. Brahma certainly doesn't create heaven. (Mu.14.10.72, beginning of pg.3) [Mu.11.10.87, end of pg.2]
- In the path of bhakti, Narad is considered to be the best among the male [devotees and] Meera among the female [devotees]. [...] Then, in the path of knowledge, you see that Mamma and Baba are famous. (Mu.29.09.73, end of the middle part of pg.2)
- Mamma-Baba will go as well as the unique children will go in the advance [party]. [...] It is not that Mamma-Baba have become complete. The complete stage will be [attained] in the end. (Mu.10.11.88, middle of pg.3)
- Dada is *purushaartha*²⁵, he is not complete. (Night class mu.20.07.68, pg.1)

RECOGNITION OF THE FATHER (THROUGH NAME AND FORM)

- How do we come to know that God the Father is in this one? [It is] when He gives knowledge. He sits and explains to the children. (Mu.26.10.68, middle of pg.2)
- The name Somnath has been given, because He gives nectar (somras) to drink, He gives the wealth of knowledge. Then, when they become worshippers, they spend so much to build His temple, because He has given the nectar, hasn't He? Somnathini²⁶ will also be along with Somnath. As are the king and the queen, so are the subjects, everyone is Somnath-Somnathini. (Mu.03.03.70, beginning of the middle part of pg.2)

²³ Food offered to an idol

²⁴ The One who doesn't enjoy pleasures

²⁵ The one who makes spiritual effort

²⁶ The cooperative power of Somnath

- The Somnath temple is so big. It is decorated so much. [...] Just as the soul can't be decorated, the Supreme Soul can't be decorated either. He is also a point. And whatever decoration there is, it is of the bodies. [...] Now you (children) know within: we are becoming [like] Somnath. (Mu.05.07.75, beginning of the middle part to the end of pg.1)
- There is also an example of Hanuman²⁷, isn't there? That is why you have been named Mahaviir (*Tiirthankar*²⁸). Now, there isn't even a single Mahaviir (the bravest ones) [...] Now there are brave ones (viir). There will be the complete Mahaviirs in the end. (Mu.08.01.74, beginning of the middle part of pg.1)
- When the Father comes, Brahma, Vishnu and Shankar are also certainly required. It is said: the Trimurti God Shiva speaks. Well, He certainly won't speak through all the three [simultaneously], will He? These concepts should be properly assimilated in the intellect. (Mu.26.02.67, beginning of pg.1) [Mu.22.02.75, beginning of pg.1]
- The eldest brother is always considered to be equal to the father. [...] All this depends on the knowledge. The one who has more knowledge is elder. Although he is young with respect to the body, if he is sharp in knowledge, we understand that in the future, he will become senior in terms of position. The ones who are senior in this way should certainly be given regard, because they are sharp in knowledge. Those who have less knowledge should give regard to them. (Night class mu.03.05.73, middle of pg.1)
- They become such Mahaviir that Maya can never shake them. They are unshakable, stable, they remain constant. Constant means they continue to follow [the knowledge] from the beginning. (Mu.07.11.72, end of the middle part of pg.2)
- In fact, Mahaviir invoke their enemies [saying:] come, so that we become victorious. [Those who are] Mahaviir won't be afraid on seeing the [question] paper. They will challenge [the enemies]. For being *trikaaldarshi*²⁹, they know that they have been victorious every kalpa (cycle). (A.V.19.12.78, beginning of pg.139)
- Shivbaba alone is the Giver of true liberation to everyone. [...] They also sing 'the One Ram'. They call Shivbaba Ram. [...] The real name is Shiva. He is also called Somnath. He made [us] drink nectar, meaning he gave the wealth of knowledge. (Mu.26.06.71, middle of pg.2)
- Those who remain stable will be called Mahaviir, Hanuman. You are Mahaviir-Mahaviirni. You are certainly *nambarvaar*³⁰, aren't you? The most [powerful] wrestler is called Mahaviir. Adidev is also called Mahaviir, through whom these Mahaviirnis are born. They rule the world. (Mu.16.09.68, beginning of the middle part of pg.3)
- Now the Father sits and explains: I am not Krishna. You can call Me Rudra or Somnath. (Mu.11.01.73, end of the middle part of pg.2)
- Very good children are making their preparations. [This] thought came to Sudama as well, [so] he brought a handful of rice. (Mu.18.07.69, middle of pg.2) [Mu.24.08.00, end of pg.2]
- When you gain victory over Maya, nobody will be able to shake you. There is an example of Hanuman as well, isn't there? This is why you have been named Mahaviir. (Mu.08.01.74, beginning of the middle part of pg.1) [Mu.29.01.99, middle of pg.1]
- You all are Parvatis; you are listening to *Amarkatha*³¹ through Shivbaba. He is the Highest on high. [...] Shivbaba is Amarnath. They make a ling of ice at Amarnath³². [...] How did Amarnath or Shankar-Parvati go there? (Mu.05.01.72, beginning of pg.1)
- The Father is Rudra. Call Him Rudra the Father, Shiva or Somnath, He has organized the yagya of knowledge where you are sitting. (Mu.25.09.73, beginning of pg.2)
- The name Prajapita suits the Father. (Mu.11.01.73, beginning of pg.1)

³² A pilgrimage place of Hindus in Jammu & Kashmir, North India

- It is said: Shiv-Shankar Mahadev. Well, where did Krishna come from? He will certainly not be called Rudra or Shankar. (Mu.11.01.73, beginning of pg.1)
- [People of] Pakistan also considered Nehru to be their enemy. So they prepared his effigy and burnt it. (Mu.24.09.73, middle of pg.1)
- His name is Shiva. [...] He shouldn't be given any other name at all. [...] There is a temple of Shiva in Kashi³³ as well, isn't there? The sages go there and chant mantras: Shiva Kashi Vishwanath Ganga. Now certainly, I am not Vishwanath³⁴. It is you who become the controllers of the world; I don't become [that] at all. (Mu.07.08.67, end of the middle part of pg.2)
- Janak, who was Sita's father, attained liberation in life (jiivanmukti) in a second. [...] Just like Janak, you have to become pure like a lotus flower. The same Janak later became Anujanak. (Mu.29.12.73, from beginning till the middle of pg.1)
- For example, they call [Him] 'Babulnath' in Bombay, meaning the one who transforms the jungle of thorns into a garden of flowers. Otherwise, His real name is just Shiva. Even when He enters these ones, His name is just Shiva. (Mu.08.09.68, middle of pg.1)
- The narrator is called Vyas, the one who narrates the murli. (Mu.04.11.65, end of pg.1)
- They repeat the name of Ram because nobody knows what is the name and form of God. (Mu.05.12.71, pg.1, 2) [Mu.19.12.01, middle of pg.2]
- Baba says: I am giving you the *raajtilak*³⁵. [...] If I don't give you the rajtilak, who else will? It is said, isn't it? – Tulsidas candan ghise (Tulsidas rubs the sandalwood)... this is about this time. Actually, Shivbaba is Ram. (Mu.05.03.73, beginning of pg.3)
- If they don't know one Alaf, the rest [of the knowledge] becomes zero. There is benefit in adding a zero with Alaf. (Mu.22.04.05, end of pg.2)
- The father Alaf himself explains. The inheritance is obtained from Alaf alone. (Mu.29.07.70, end of pg.2)

{Look at the fourth last point in the topic 'Shiv-Shankar are the same personality, [but] two [different] souls'}

THE FATHER'S FORM, COSTUME

- The Father says: I certainly come in an ordinary body. Neither too poor nor too rich. (Mu.21.04.70, beginning of pg.2)
- Does Shivbaba have any ego? He is such a great authority. He also says: I come in an ordinary body, in an ordinary house. I don't come in the house of rich people. (Mu.09.07.71, end of pg.2)
- He has the same ordinary form, the same dress and so on. There is no difference. That is why nobody can understand. (Mu.11.02.68, beginning of pg.2)
- He is incorporeal, egoless, He doesn't have any ego. The clothes etc. are also the same; nothing has changed (except the soil like body). [...] He has the same ordinary body and the same ordinary dress. There is no difference. (Mu.30.04.68, end of pg.1) [Mu.08.04.74, end of pg.1]
- The Father says: I come in a very ordinary body (but Brahma, meaning the senior mother's body was extraordinary), that is why some rare ones recognize Me. Even those who live with Me can't recognize who I am and how I am. (Mu.05.02.68, end of pg.3)
- It is the same Mahabharat war. So certainly, God will also be present. Except you children, nobody knows in which form and in which body He is. He also says: I come in a very ordinary body. I don't come in Krishna's (meaning Brahma's beautiful) body. (Mu.13.08.76, end of pg.3)
- Shrinath³⁶ and Jagannath³⁷ are the same, but as is the land, they make the idol according to it and offer food. If he is fed food fried in butter or oil (pakvaan) to eat, he will have a stomach ache. (Mu.20.07.73, end of the middle part of pg.1)

- Becoming a beggar is not an easy task³⁹. A beggar doesn't have anything (money, status, honour and respect). (Mu.21.01.74, end of pg.4)
- They just live in that [intoxication] of the big position that they have received. Rich people just remember their money. [...] Otherwise, they will keep remembering [their] wealth and respect. (Mu.25.01.68, middle of pg.2) [Mu.26.01.74, end of the middle part of pg.2]
- When he is fair, he should have a crown and when he is dark, how will he have a crown? [...] A village boy will certainly be poor, won't he? (Mu.08.02.70, middle of pg.2)
- It is not the rule to have a crowd here. The work [here] will continue in a secret form. (Mu.11.01.73, end of the middle part of pg.1)
- The Father is certainly very ordinary, isn't He? The dress etc. is the same; there is no difference. As regards the Sanyasis, they leave their household and wear ochre-coloured clothes (*kafni*⁴⁰). He has the same dress. Just the Father has entered [him], there is no other difference. Just like the Father takes care of the children lovingly and brings them up, this one also does. There is no question of ego. He walks in a very simple way. As for the rest, a house has to be built for living; that is also ordinary. (Mu.25.04.68, end of pg.2)

{Look at the seventh point in the topic 'Recognition of the Father (through name and form)'}

THE FATHER'S ABODE (LOKIK⁴³ BIRTHPLACE)

- It is the Master who will have mercy on all the children. There are many who believe in the Master of the World, but who is He? What do we receive from Him? They know nothing about it. In Farrukhabad, they just believe in the Master. They think: that Master alone is everything for us. (Mu.22.02.78, beginning of pg.1)
- Just as the people of Farrukhabad say, we remember that Master. But in reality, Lakshmi-Narayan become the masters of the world or the creation. (Mu.12.01.78, end of pg.2)
- In Farrukhabad, they believe in the Master, don't they? You have understood the meaning of 'Master' as well. That one is the Master, we are His children. So, we should certainly receive the inheritance, shouldn't we? (Mu.07.12.73, middle of pg.2)
- Just as the residents of Farrukhabad believe in the Master. Certainly, there are various opinions, aren't there? [Ask them:] acchaa, then what will you receive from that Master? They don't know anything at all. How to remember the Master? What is His name and form? They don't know anything. The Master is the Master of the World, isn't He? He is the Creator [and] we are the creation. (Mu.22.01.72, beginning of pg.1)
- There are daughters in Farrukhabad, but they don't have so much power yet. There are the ones who believe in the Master there, so they should be explained: you say, 'that one is the Master', but the Father says, 'you are the master'. (Mu.22.01.72, beginning of pg.3)

³⁷ Temple of Vishnu at Puri, Orissa

³⁸ The carefree defamed one

³⁹ Maasi kaa ghar: 'auntie's house'. It is a Hindi saying for an easy job.

⁴⁰ An ascetic's unsewn garment

⁴¹ Ruup means beauty; which Baba describes as the embodiment of yoga

⁴² Basant means spring; which Baba describes as the embodiment of virtues

⁴³ Worldly

- Baba is the Master of the entire unlimited world [and] the Father of all the souls. The Father is called the Master. Towards Farrukhabad, they believe in the Master. The father himself is the master of a home. Children will just be called children. When they too grow up [and] give birth to children, they become the masters. All these secrets are to be understood. (Mu.11.04.68, end of pg.3) [Mu.02.05.69, end of pg.3]
- I come in the gathering of monkeys. I never come in the gathering of deities. I don't come at all in the place where wealth is available, where 36 kinds of food are available. I come in the place where the children don't even get a roti (a chapati), I take them on My lap and make them [My] children. I don't take the rich ones on My lap. (Mu.15.08.76, beginning of the middle part of pg.3)

- Baba hasn't studied English so much. You will say that Baba doesn't know English. Baba says: Wah! To what extent will I sit and learn all the languages? The main one is certainly Hindi, so I narrate the murli in Hindi. Even the one whose body I have taken knows just Hindi. (Mu.26.11.73, middle of pg.2)
- Well, God won't teach [the knowledge] in all the languages. He just explains in Hindi. Just as everyone knows broken English, everyone also knows broken Hindi. It is very easy. (Mu.01.02.72, middle of pg.2) [Mu.02.02.77, beginning of the middle part of pg.2]
- Where is Shivbaba, the One who sits in the Somnath temple teaching today? In the path of bhakti, He has been given palaces [made] of diamonds and precious stones. He is held in high regard. Here, they don't recognize Him, so they don't give Him full regard either. Look, the Rajrishis, the ones who transform Bharat into heaven, they study in such an ordinary way. It is like a satsang (spiritual gathering) of the poor. The rich have very big halls. (Mu.11.03.73, middle of pg.4)
- The land where the Father is born is the highest pilgrimage place. (Mu.07.11.72, end of pg.2)

- The Father says: I too come in the country of Magadh. (Mu.08.06.70, end of pg.3)

ALOKIK (SUBTLE) BIRTHPLACE

- Ahmedabad has to do more service than everyone else because Ahmedabad is the seed form of all the centres. A seed has more power. Give a great challenge (lalkaar), so that even those in deep sleep may wake up. (A.V.24.01.70, middle of pg.190)
- There are 108 temples of Swami Narayan⁴⁴ in Ahmedabad. They might be getting millions of rupees. It is Swami Narayan who might be getting them, mightn't he? So, (at the end, when the Pandav Bhavan of Ahmedabad is ready, in order to form a connection with the 108 beads, who are victorious over the world) it is here that they (the children) will certainly come from all the centres, won't they? (Mu.05.03.75, beginning of pg.3)
- In fact, Ahmedabad has received the boon: there is the fruit of service as well as the power of service. (A.V.21.11.98, end of pg.9)

⁴⁴ Swami Narayan was a founder of a religious cult in the Gujarat state of India

QUALITIES OF THE FATHER

- The Ocean is both salty as well as sweet. Clouds draw the sweet water and rain. (Mu.29.05.72, middle of pg.1)
- Two special powers will always be seen in the Ocean. [...] It faces [everyone] through the waves [of knowledge] as well as assimilates everything and everyone in itself. (A.V.21.09.75, beginning of pg.121)
- You know that the Highest on high is God, then in the second place is Brahma. There is no one higher than him. There is no greater personality than him, but look, he behaves in such an ordinary way. He sits with the children in such an ordinary way, he travels by train. How will anyone know who he is? (Mu.13.08.76, middle of pg.3)
- The entire thread itself is entangled. Except the Father, no one else can unwind it. (Mu.20.05.65, end of the middle part of pg.5)
- These Sanyasis etc. are so proud of themselves. They keep the eye on the rich people first. Baba keeps an eye on the poor people first. He is the Friend of the poor, isn't He? (Mu.28.06.70, end of pg.2)
- The son of a rich father will never accept to be adopted by a poor. (Mu.28.01.68, beginning of pg.3)
- We are the children of the Father who doesn't have any father. He is our Teacher, [the One] who doesn't have any teacher. [We] have to receive the inheritance from that One. (Mu.19.08.72, middle of pg.4)
- We become the number one [deity], then why will we worship the [deities] who are at the second or third place? (Mu.12.08.68, beginning of the middle part of pg.3)

- The Father says, I know you have to suffer so much misfortune. [People] think that God will come in some or the other form. Sometimes He is also shown riding a bull. Well, no one can ride a bull. (Actually, it is about the stubborn nature.) (Mu.17.02.69, middle of pg.3)
- The Father is the Ocean of Knowledge. In comparison to Him are the gurus of the path of bhakti, the oceans of ignorance. (Mu.25.02.68, middle of pg.2)
- Just like we can't see the soul, we can know it. Similarly, we can also know the Supreme Soul [through knowledge]. Both, the soul and the Supreme Soul will look alike, a point; all the rest is knowledge. These are very sensible topics. (Mu.11.01.66, end of the middle part of pg.3)
- Anyone who speaks meaninglessly is called mad (cariyaa). [...] The Father comes and takes [us] out of this madness [of the path of bhakti by narrating the meaning]. (Mu.29.01.70, end of pg.3) [Mu.28.01.75, end of pg.3]
- No matter what happens at any time, the Father won't take [anyone] out. The children say, whether You love [us] or reject [us], we won't go out of Your door. The Father says, I don't reject you. In fact, I love [you]. (Mu.29.04.73, end of pg.3)
- The Father says, I am very ordinary. So, very few wealthy people come [here] [...] but in the end. (Mu.21.01.73, end of pg.2)
- The Father will certainly mention [the complaints], won't He? The Father will slap you too. Mamma is sweet, but as regards Baba, sometimes... but he doesn't raise hands. (Mu.17.04.72, end of the middle part of pg.3)
- Look, the Father teaches [us] in such an ordinary way to make us the masters of heaven. [Children] even forget to remember such Father. (Mu.01.11.73, beginning of pg.3)

⁴⁵ A female character in the epic Ramayana who turned into a stone idol because her husband cursed her and was brought back to life by Rama

⁴⁶ A female character in the epic Mahabharata who was hunchbacked and was turned into a normal person by Krishna

- Now we are in the Confluence Age. We neither belong to that kingship nor this kingship. We are in the middle. We are going [to that kingship]. The Boatman is the Incorporeal One as well as the boat is incorporeal. The Supreme Father Supreme Soul pulls and takes the boat [across]. The Father will take all His children along with Him. (Mu.17.01.69, end of the middle part of pg.3)
- The Father as well as the knowledge is hidden and your purusharth (spiritual effort) is secret as well. (Mu.13.09.68, end of pg.2)

- Baba has explained that a *pai*⁴⁷ of the poor and a rupee of the rich are equal. Both receive the inheritance to the same extent. The Father is certainly the Friend of the poor. This is why sinful ones like Ajamil, Ahilya are also famous. Rich people are not praised. (Mu.29.11.76, beginning of the middle part of pg.2)

SPECIAL POWERS OF THE FATHER

- You have many enemies too. The whole world becomes your enemy because you take back your kingdom secretly. (Mu.20.05.76, end of pg.3)

Someone may be a close relative to whatever extent before Justice, law is law. Now it is the time of love, later, it will be the time of law. (A.V.30.05.73, middle of pg.80)
- Everyone certainly has the aim to become equal to the Father [...] [but] what is in reality now? They don't have the power to face like the Father. There is a difference [among them] at different levels (nambarvaar) according to their purusharth [...] 50% difference is a lot. [...] Now you have to become ready to face the final time, haven't you? (A.V.13.03.78, beginning of pg.1)
- At the beginning of the establishment, the entire world was on one side and one soul was on the other side, wasn't it? It is later on that everyone became cooperative. [Just] one soul became the instrument first, didn't it? (A.V.09.04.73, end of pg.19, beginning of pg.20)
- Now, special souls are in the form of Justice. (A.V.22.05.73, beginning of pg.1)

THE FATHER'S DUTIES

- The Father doesn't have anyone to remember except the children. You have many [people to remember]. Your intellect wanders here and there; it goes towards business and so on. - What is the first specialty that makes souls the masters of even the Father [and] they become even greater than the Father? That specialty is revealing the Father, bringing the relationship [of other souls] closer to the Father [and] making [them] the inheritors of the Father. This is the duty of you, the first creation. The Father is revealed through the children themselves. (A.V.18.06.73, middle of pg.101)
- When and how was the flame of destruction ignited? Who became the instrument? Did Shankar become the instrument or did the creators of the yagya, the father and the Brahmin children become the instruments? Ever since this yagya was created for the purpose of the task of establishment, the flame of destruction also appeared from the *yagyakund*⁴⁸ along with the establishment. [...] So, those who ignited [the flame] should also accomplish it (make the final offering), not Shankar. You have to become the form of a flame and accomplish [the task of] the flame of destruction that has been ignited. (A.V.03.02.74, end of pg.13)

⁴⁷ A third of a paisa

- The Father brings about destruction through the one who is not stained with any sin. (Mu.29.04.70, middle of pg.1)

- It is just the One Father who saves [us] ... from drowning. There are many who entrap [us]. (Mu.24.02.69, beginning of the middle part of pg.3) [Mu.30.01.74, middle of pg.3]
- [The souls] will be reborn just according to the sanskaars here (in this birth). Just as only the sanskaars of fighting are recorded in the intellect of the soldiers, so they carry those sanskaars [with them]. They can't live without fighting. (Mu.09.02.68, beginning of pg.2) [Mu.06.02.74, beginning of pg.2]

RECOGNITION OF THE FATHER (THE OCEAN OF KNOWLEDGE, THE FATHER)

- No matter how great Sanyasis, pandits (Hindu scholars) and so on they are, nobody has the power to give [someone] the third eye [of knowledge]. The Sun of Knowledge, the Father has to come to give this third eye. (Mu.04.10.68, end of pg.1)

be able to imbibe as much as those who live in the outside world. It is said that ‘the thing that is easily available is not valued⁴⁹’. (Mu.03.08.68, beginning of the middle part of pg.3)

- Only when you rub (churn) the knowledge, you will become worthy of the rajtilak. (Mu.08.08.73, end of pg.3)
- The Father has both, knowledge and yoga. (Mu.02.01.69, beginning of pg.3)
- It is not that I give the mantra and go away. I also have to check the children, how far I have reformed [them] and then I reform them as well. If He gives the knowledge for a second and goes away, He won’t be called the Ocean of Knowledge. (Mu.09.10.79, middle of pg.2)
- You haven’t come to Dada, the jeweller. Actually, you have come to Shivbaba. Actually, that one is the Ocean of Knowledge, isn’t He? (Mu.14.12.71, beginning of pg.4)
- That Supreme Father Supreme Soul says, I am the Ocean of Knowledge; but how can I, the Incorporeal One, teach through inspiration while sitting above? Teaching never takes place in this way. Would a professor be able to teach through inspiration if he sits at home? He will definitely have to come to the school, won’t he? (Mu.11.08.83, end of pg.1)
- I alone can narrate this knowledge face to face. (Mu.16.02.74, beginning of pg.3)

LOKIK AGE OF THE FATHER

- The Father calls the souls to explain: you used to come [to take knowledge], didn't you? You were explained so much to remember the Father [and] become pure, still, you didn't accept. That is why these obstacles arise. 500 [students] don't sit together and study, otherwise, microphones will have to be installed. What will the old women understand through a microphone? That is why there is a limit [for the number of students], whom the Father can also see face to face. When the Father looks [at you], He looks at the souls not the body. If He looks at them with force, they will just forget their body. He is a magnet, isn't He? So it is as if they will become unconscious. (Mu.27.06.73, end of pg.3) [Mu.25.06.78, end of pg.3]

[...] Similarly, there are the pictures of the deities (devi-devtaayein) in the Jagannath [temple]. They are also placed on a chariot and taken out for a circumambulation. This is their [way of showing] respect. (This is about the Confluence Age.) (Mu.28.04.73, end of the middle part of pg.1)
- Those who live there, at their home and make purusharth can go faster than those who live here and make purusharth. (Mu.05.04.71, beginning of pg.2)

- It is explained that the Supreme Father Supreme Soul came through the body of Brahma and adopted this [Brahma] too. [...] It is also famous: establishment through Brahma. [The Father] narrates the essence of all the scriptures through Brahma. (Mu.30.12.73, end of pg.1, beginning of pg.3) [Mu.11.12.83, end of pg.1, beginning of pg.3]
- Bap-Dada is definitely not the name of just one person. (Mu.06.11.71, beginning of the middle part of pg.3)

(Mu.24.09.73, middle of pg.3)
- Brahma is in the subtle world, but Prajapita will certainly be present here itself, won't he? (Mu.25.11.73, end of the middle part of pg.5) [Mu.15.11.83, end of pg.2]

BRAHMA ISN'T THE FATHER, TEACHER AND SATGURU,
NO ATTAINMENTS ARE MADE THROUGH BRAHMA

- When the mother and Father are present, you have to go on [their] lap face to face. If you have faith [but] don't go on [their] lap and die, you can't receive the inheritance. There are many like this who don't receive the inheritance [and] then they become subjects. The Father will say, [...] when you have faith that these are the same mother and Father, you will have to go on [their] lap. Then you have to do service and make [others] equal to yourselves. (Mu.30.07.64, beginning of the middle part of pg.3) [Mu.26.07.78, end of pg.2, beginning of pg.3]

- Shivbaba says, ‘children, keep this in the mind, you have to take the inheritance from Me. You won’t receive it from Brahma; you don’t receive it at all. (Mu.01.02.68, middle of pg.2)
- You should always make purusharth to take the full inheritance from the Father. Just like Mamma-Baba are also taking the full inheritance from those mother and Father. (Mu.17.04.73, end of pg.4)

When Brahma attains true liberation, he becomes Vishnu. (Mu.04.09.72, end of pg.3)
- [He] is the one who takes everyone back [to the Soul World] in the form of the Satguru. There (in the outside world), if one guru dies, they make another one, the follower sit on the throne. In fact, this is adulteration. This Baba guarantees: I will take everyone [along with Me]. Where? [To the abode] for which you have done bhakti for half the cycle. I will take you to Muktidhaam (the Abode of Liberation). (Mu.25.04.78, end of pg.3)
- Both, this mother and father, Brahma and Saraswati are sitting below the Kalpa Tree. They are learning Raja Yoga. So certainly, they need a guru. (Mu.28.01.73, beginning of the middle part of pg.2)
- You have become the children of the Father. You are receiving teachings from Him in the form of the Teacher. In the end, he will become the Satguru and take you to the land of truth (sackhand). He performs all the three tasks in practice. (Mu.17.02.73, beginning of pg.1)
- There, you didn’t find the Father, you didn’t find the Teacher but they became your guru immediately. Here, the knowledge is so systematic. Here, I alone am your Father, Teacher and Guru. (Mu.20.04.72, end of pg.2)
- To call the founder of a religion a guru is number one unworthiness. (Mu.30.07.67, end of pg.3)

- There is no one like this who could say, I am the Father, the Teacher as well as the Guru. Even this Brahma can't say this. Only the one Shivbaba says, I am the Father, the Teacher and the Guru of everyone. (Mu.19.10.76, beginning of the middle part of pg.1)
- This is just one personality, but He is all the three, it means He becomes the Father, the Teacher as well as the Guru. (Mu.28.06.84, beginning of pg.1)
- When this one himself says that you can't receive the inheritance from him, then what inheritance will you be able to obtain from that Gandhi bapuji? (Mu.11.10.68, end of pg.2) [Mu.01.09.04, middle of pg.3]
- Even the purifier of Brahma is that one Satguru. The true Baba, the true Teacher [and] the true Guru (Satguru), all the three are together. (Mu.25.09.73, end of pg.2)
- Brahma also receives the inheritance from Shivbaba. This one is also [your] brother. [...] You receive the inheritance from the grandfather (dada). (Mu.16.07.73, middle of pg.2)
- There is just one Creator. Everyone else is studying. This one (Brahma) is also included among them. Then, he became the creation, didn't he? (Mu.08.01.68, pg.2, 3)
- Brahma isn't the Creator. The one Father alone is the Creator. (Mu.05.03.73, middle of pg.1)
- [...] You know that there are two Fathers. You receive the inheritance from [those] two. [...] You don't receive the inheritance from Brahma. In fact, he is an medium (dalaal). [...] The Father teaches you through these ones [and] gives the inheritance. (Mu.01.02.68, middle of pg.2) [Mu.30.01.04, end of pg.2]
- Baba has explained that you don't receive any inheritance from the creation. The creation will receive the inheritance from the Creator. (Mu.25.06.65, end of pg.1)
- Baba says, even if Baba goes away, you children have still received the knowledge that you have to take the inheritance from Shivbaba, haven't you? You didn't have to take it from this one, have you? (Mu.25.06.65, beginning of pg.3) [Mu.30.08.03, middle of pg.2]
- Those people think that these people consider this very Brahma to be the Supreme Soul. [...] We certainly don't receive the inheritance from this one. (Mu.25.03.69, beginning of the middle part of pg.3)
- Baba narrates his experience, in the beginning when he went to Banaras⁵³, he used to draw circles etc. on the walls. He didn't understand anything [thinking], what is this? It is because this one simply became a child. (Mu.21.08.73, beginning of pg.2)
- Whose son is Brahma? Because Brahma is also a creation, isn't he? (Mu.08.09.68, beginning of pg.2)

NEW ROLE

- Everyone will sacrifice himself on you. There will definitely be an impression, won't there? Now, many people face you, because you are everyone's enemy. You bring about the destruction of everyone and take [back] the kingdom, so they will become your enemy, won't they? Even among them, first, the members of the family will become the enemies. Even in the case of Baba, the members of his family, his friends, relatives, etc. became his enemies. (Mu.17.02.73, beginning of pg.3)
- Until this body of him exists, I will keep giving the knowledge. The kingship will be established, then the destruction will begin and I shall go [back]. (Mu.01.12.73, beginning of pg.3)
- Television will also come up. [People] will sit and keep watching it anywhere. [They will see,] this is Brahma, Shivbaba has come [in him]. Shivbaba narrates the murli. This will also come up in the future. (Murli of 1965) (Mu.26.06.70, end of pg.3)
- One day, television will also come up, but not everyone will be able to see it. They will see: Baba is narrating the murlis; they will also hear the voice. (Mu.23.08.73, beginning of pg.3)
- If the Father is not [present], how will He caution the children? Through the murlis; He will explain through tape [recorders]. Then, when there is television, He will stand in front and speak. He will even call out the names: You, so and so, quarrel⁵⁴ with each other. (Mu.31.07.68, end of pg.2.)

⁵³ A pilgrimage place in Uttar Pradesh, also known as Varanasi

- You become the masters of the world as well as the masters of the universe. That is why the Father says namaste (greetings) to you. (Night class after mu.05.09.70, end of pg.1)
- This is an iron box. By sitting in them continuously, finally, this box will also become a golden [box]. They will become like a diamond. Only the Diamond will give a diamond like birth, won't He? (Mu.02.06.69, middle of pg.3)
- When you become pure, you are praised so much. Through you, the human beings are benefitted for 21 births. All their wishes are fulfilled for 21 births. (Mu.17.02.73, middle of pg.1)
- Don't worry! In order to take a challenge, Bapdada the backbone will certainly be revealed through any person (physical body⁵⁵) on time and he is being revealed even now. (A.V.16.01.75, beginning of pg.2)
- In this drama, you have the part of hero-heroine. You become the masters of the world. Nobody [else] can ever have this intoxication. (Mu.02.05.68, end of pg.2)
- The eye of every soul in the corporeal form is just going towards this great place and will go [there]. [...] It is from this great corner of the world that [everyone] will receive the gift of life forever. [...] Similarly, this place of the reward of spiritual treasures, which is incognito at present, by seeing it through the eyes of experience, [people] will just think that they have found the place of the lost secret treasure again. [...] Make it very famous, then people will feel happy just on seeing the wonderful Father, the wonderful play and the wonderful place. (A.V.26.01.83, beginning, middle, end of pg.57)
- This is new knowledge, when this hasn't been revealed, how will the Giver of Knowledge be revealed? First the knowledge comes [and] then the Giver [of Knowledge] comes. So, how will it be proved that the Giver of Knowledge is the Highest of the high or that one alone is the Giver of Knowledge? It will be proved through this new knowledge itself. What do the souls say and what does the Supreme Soul say, until this difference becomes clear in the intellect of human beings, how will they leave the weak support that they have taken? [...] But the foundation, the newness, the seed is the new knowledge. [...] He is the authority of true knowledge, this is yet to be revealed. Whoever comes should think that this is new knowledge, a new topic. (A.V.01.06.83, beginning of pg.235)
- You do celebrate the meeting [with Baba] in the subtle form, still you always have the good wish to meet [Him] in the corporeal form. [...] They didn't bring about the meeting [between] us [and Baba] through words. Bapdada also wants to meet every child to his heart's content but he has to consider the time and medium. [...] When you have to meet [the Father] in the corporeal world through the corporeal body, you have to see [Him] with respect to the corporeal world and the physical body. (A.V.24.02.83, beginning of pg.83)
- You do know how to follow the Father, don't you? You don't think that you too should leave the body and become subtle (avyakt), do you? Don't follow this. The father Brahma became an angel for this very reason that you could follow [the Father] easily by observing the example of the subtle form. Even when he is not in the corporeal form, he makes us have visions just like the corporeal form through the angelic form, doesn't he? [...] Just like the subtle father Brahma is sustaining like the corporeal form, he is making [you] experience the sustenance [given] by the corporeal form, experience the subtle angelic form while living in the corporeal (vyakt) form. (A.V.13.03.81, beginning of pg.43)
- You have to study only from the one God. You have to study orally whatever the Father teaches. (Mu.17.03.68, beginning of pg.1)
- Nobody's part is always the same. It changes to make [you] move ahead. So now, Bapdada is especially giving an easy boon of having a subtle meeting with the corporeal form. There is a special boon in the first month of this New Year. [...] Now, the subtle meeting through the corporeal one will also end gradually. Then what will you do? Won't you celebrate the meeting? You will experience long-lasting meeting instead of short-term meeting. You will experience as if you are celebrating the meeting very closely [and] face to face. [...] So, celebrate this year considering it to be especially the year of speeding up your purusharth (spiritual effort). (A.V.24.12.72, beginning of pg.387)

⁵⁴ Luun-paani lit.means salt water

⁵⁵ Vyakt tan lit.means, the body that is visible

- The Father also became subtle from corporeal, then incorporeal from subtle and then He will become corporeal again. (A.V.15.09.74, middle of pg.131)
- Now this is the last birth of many births. I have entered this one. I enter [him] and explain to you children. As long as his body exists, you have to drink the nectar of knowledge. (Mu.09.11.72, middle of pg.2)
- Bapdada didn't hide from giving [you] company, but he hid himself from the corporeal world and appeared in the subtle world. We'll live together, go together, this is certainly the promise. This promise can never break. That is why Brahma [and] the Father are waiting [for the children], otherwise, they can go [to the Supreme Abode] when they have become *karmaatii*⁵⁶. There is no bondage, is there? But there is the bondage of love. (A.V.07.05.84, end of pg.298, beginning of pg.299)
- To see both the fathers in the corporeal world through these corporeal eyes, to eat, drink with them, walk, talk, listen, experience every act, to see the One without a picture (*vicitr*⁵⁷) in the one with a picture (citr), this is the great fortune of the Brahmin life. (A.V.03.05.84, end of pg.287)
- The soul said God the Father, so He should definitely meet [the children]. If we just call Him the Father and never meet [Him], how can He be the Father? He meets all the souls of the entire world. He fulfills all the wishes, of all the children. (Mu.28.06.84, end of the middle part of pg.1)
- Just as the Father is wonderful (vicitr), the plays (lilaa) of the wonderful Father are also wonderful. People of the world think that the Father has gone but the Father can celebrate the meeting with the children in a wonderful way whenever He wants. The curtain [of ignorance] was drawn before the eyes of the people of the world. Anyway, an affectionate meeting is good behind the curtains. (A.V.18.01.79, beginning of pg.231)
- The name should become famous in all the four directions. Because of this race, each one is moving ahead of the other. It is correct that the name has to become famous from the foreign [countries], but from which corner [of the world] will it become famous, which place will become the instrument, the person from which place becomes the instrument? That is why everyone is passionate about this. (A.V.27.05.77, middle of pg.176)
- Today, especially for the foreigners, Bapdada has also been compelled to become a foreigner. Hadn't Bapdada become a foreigner, he couldn't have met [them] either. In order to see such a forthcoming group, the special foreigner souls who have become instruments for the special task and to meet [them] in the corporeal form, even the Incorporeal One and the subtle one also had to take the support of the corporeal form . (A.V.02.08.75, end of pg.73)
- Except this incorporeal Supreme Father Supreme Soul, nobody can teach the Brahmakumar-kumaris. Brahma won't be called the Ocean of Knowledge either. He will be called Prajapita. Only the one incorporeal Supreme Father Supreme Soul is called the Ocean of Knowledge. He Himself is the Purifier of the sinful because true liberation is brought about only through the Ocean of Knowledge. This is something new. (Mu.24.08.73, beginning of pg.1) [Mu.25.08.78, beginning of the middle part of pg.1]
- He is *Karan Karaavanhaar*⁵⁸, so He played the part of Karanhaar and now He is playing the part of Karaavanhaar as well. Since it is the Father's throne, you don't feel it a burden to be seated on the throne; because it is the throne of the Father, isn't it? (A.V.14.02.78, beginning of pg.2)
- Now Brahma [and] the Father are playing the part of being more helpful in the service day and night in an avyakt (subtle) form compared to the corporeal form. (A.V.07.10.75, beginning of pg.159)
- There were many kinds of bondages in the corporeal [form], but now he is free from bondages. Now the speed is much faster. As soon as you call the Father, He is present in front of the eyes. (A.V.05.12.78, beginning of pg.104)

⁵⁶ The stage beyond karma

⁵⁷ Vicitr – this word has two meanings – 1. The one who has no picture, 2. The one who has an extraordinary picture. Prefix vi means 'opposite' and 'special'

⁵⁸ The one who acts and makes the others act

- You are such long lost and now found elevated souls that God Himself comes from the Supreme Abode to teach you. (A.V.12.01.79, beginning of pg.203)
- [When] 42-43 years of the corporeal [form] and 10 years of the subtle [form are added], it comes up to more than 50 [years], doesn't it? (A.V.16.01.79, beginning of pg.226)
- There is the corporeal form in return for the love in the corporeal. (A.V.18.01.79, end of pg.229)
- Just like when the souls of the Golden Age princesses used to come, they felt surprised on seeing the future forms in practice, didn't they? [They thought:] He is such a big emperor (maharaja) and what work is he doing! [He is] the World Emperor and [he is] cooking food! (A.V.10.12.78, end of pg.116)
- Everyday, at *amritvelaa*⁵⁹, the *tilak*⁶⁰ of success [...] it is famous, isn't it? God came to apply tilak to the devotees. So, this year, the Father will Himself come to the place of service, meaning the pilgrimage place of the obedient children to apply them the tilak of success. (A.V.06.02.80, end of pg.279)
- Bap and Dada are also two [different souls]. The world is transformed through the tasks of both. (A.V.08.06.72, end of pg.298)
- At last, till when will there be this meeting with the subtle form through the corporeal [form]? (Dadi Gulzar herself becomes avyakt, it means, definitely, there is some other corporeal form.) (A.V.24.12.72, beginning of pg.387)
- Now when you are giving the notice of the change of time, there will also be a change in the [way of] meeting Bapdada, won't there? (A.V.15.02.83, end of pg.64)
- Just like you remember, - don't you? - in the corporeal form He used to feed [everyone] with his own hands and entertain every group as the form of special affection. The same sanskaar of affection is going on now too in practice. (A.V.06.01.83, middle of pg.32)
- The soul which is free from karmic bondages, the perfect soul, the soul that ends the cycle of birth and death of this kalpa, the first companion soul of the incorporeal Father, the first soul who has become an instrument for the benefit of the world, the soul that has achieved all the attainments for the self and the world can play the part independently wherever and for whatever time it wishes. When the souls who attain temporary attainments can change their form based on their attainments, can't the soul that has attained all the attainments become the one with a subtle form and live as long as it wants according to the drama? (A.V.30.06.74, end of pg.83, beginning of pg.84)
- The thought of some children reaches [Baba:] it is alright that [they are] a husband and a wife, but if the husband is incorporeal and the wife is corporeal, they don't really match each other [...] This is why they have to appoint a judge (kaji), but the Husband you have found is such that He is a multifaceted one (bahuruupi). Whichever form you wish [to see Him], He can present Himself [before you] in a second by saying, 'Yes, Sir'. (A.V.28.11.79, middle of pg.58)
- The Father says, you can always play with Me in whichever form you wish. You can become [My] friend and play [with Me] , you can become [My] brother and play [with Me], you can become [My] child and play [with Me] as well as you can make [Me your] child and play [with Me]. You will never get such an imperishable toy that will neither crack nor break and you won't have to spend money on it either. (A.V.07.01.80, end of pg.182)
- Everyone does understand that 'there is someone', but 'it is this one and it is this one alone ', this state of commotion hasn't yet started. (A.V.05.12.84, end of pg.50)
- [You] take the inheritance from God. If someone goes away while taking the inheritance, he will certainly have some other part somewhere of doing some other task. [...] He might have to do some task more important than this. (Mu.25.06.65, beginning of pg.2) [Mu.30.08.03, end of pg.1]
- The Father is certainly the Ocean of Peace, isn't He? He will have a part in the end. (Mu.02.05.68, end of pg.2)
- There is nothing that isn't applicable to You. You are the Surgeon as well as the Jeweller and the Washerman too. All the specialties come in You. (Mu.14.04.68, 05.05.69, end of pg.3)

⁵⁹ Early morning hours

⁶⁰ A vermilion mark on the forehead

- The language in which the Father explains, He will explain in the same [language] every kalpa. He will certainly explain in the language of these ones, won't He? Nowadays Hindi is in practice a lot. (Mu.28.09.68, beginning of pg.2)
- The Father has also come for the destruction, so, He won't go away in between. When the fire has burnt completely, He will go away. [...] He will take everyone along [with Him]. This certainly has to happen. (Mu.20.09.77, beginning of pg.3)
- The biography of the Father is known through the Father Himself. Well, how can there be a biography of the Incorporeal Shivbaba? Certainly, He will have a biography when He comes in the corporeal form. [...] There can't be just the biography of the Soul. Only when He becomes a living soul (jiivaatma), will He be reborn and He can have a biography as well. (Mu.20.02.72, end of the middle part of pg.2) [Mu.22.02.92, beginning of the middle part of pg.2]
- Those who have done maximum bhakti, they themselves will also be cleverer in knowledge and will also achieve a high status. (Mu.22.07.68, beginning of the middle part of pg.3) [Mu.03.07.04, end of pg.3]
- You won't say that the father Brahma has gone. He has made the promise: we will live together, go together. If even the first soul doesn't keep the promise, who will keep the promise! Only the form and the method of service has changed. [...] All the children are being sustained by Brahma himself even now. (A.V.18.01.91, end of pg.1)
- The Father just talks to you children (not even to this Brahma). Earlier, He used to meet everyone [and] talk to everyone. Now He will decrease [it] gradually [and] won't talk to anyone at the end. The son shows the Father, doesn't he? (Mu.17.12.67, middle of pg.3) [Mu.15.12.85, middle of pg.3]
- There is a speaking and walking throne of *akaalmuurt*⁶¹. (Mu.21.07.69, middle of pg.1)
- It is not that the Father has gone away and He won't come back. [...] He is Karan Karaavanhaar, isn't He? He [Himself] performs [the tasks] as well as makes [others] perform [them]. (Mu.08.03.69, end of pg.3)
- The Father sits and explains exactly the same way He teaches His children. (Mu.17.09.68, middle of pg.3)
- Only you children know that the Father has come in this body again. (Mu.20.08.68, beginning of pg.1)
- Baba says, how will I explain without the corporeal one? There is no question of inspiration in this at all. (Mu.25.09.72, end of pg.2)
- This Father is certainly Ever Pure and He is also incognito. He is double, isn't He? The entire power is of that one, not of this one (Brahma). In the beginning, that one attracted you, because He is Ever Pure. You didn't run after this one. (Mu.17.02.68, middle of pg.2) [Mu.14.02.99, end of pg.2, beginning of pg.3]
- Delhi has received the boon, and even in that Jagdish, the gem of the beginning has received the boon in the task of establishment. (A.V.23.02.97, end of pg.33, beginning of pg.34)

{Look at the first point in the topic 'The duration of the Confluence [Age]'.}

THE FIRST ONE, HIMSELF IS THE LAST ONE,
THE LAST ONE, HIMSELF IS THE FIRST ONE

- The first one himself is the last one, the last one himself is fast; you have to explain this as well, haven't you? (Mu.15.12.68, end of the middle part of pg.3) [Mu.15.12.70, end of the middle part of pg.3]
- [This is] a wonderful drama, isn't it? Those who come first of all, they themselves will stay till the end. (Mu.06.03.74, beginning of pg.2)
- [There were] very good daughters who used to even bring directions for Mamma and Baba [and] make them perform the drill [of meditation]. We followed their directions. They degraded the most. Even these daughters⁶² know [them]. (Mu.28.05.69, end of pg.2)

⁶¹ The one who is in the corporeal form and cannot be devoured by death

- They used to teach the drill to Mamma-Baba. They gave directions, ‘do this, sit down’. We thought that they would obtain a very good number in the rosary. They too vanished. So, all this has to be explained, hasn’t it? Actually, the history is very long. (Mu.25.05.68, end of pg.2)
- Very good, first class [children], who used to go into trance, on whose directions even the mother and the father used to play their roles, they are not present today. What happened? They had doubts on some topics. (Mu.08.07.73, end of pg.1)
- Very good children stay for five-ten years and play very good roles; then they accept defeat. This is the battlefield. You should never stop remembering the Father. (Mu.08.07.73, end of pg.1)
- [They] were very good mahaarathis (great warriors). They used to even bring programs for Mamma-Baba from above (the subtle world). They used to sit and make them perform the drill (of meditation). Today, they aren’t present. Maya gobbled them up; the python gobbled them up completely. (Mu.02.06.70, middle of pg.3)
- He who stayed (with him) for 10 years and she used to go into trance. She even made Mamma-Baba perform the drill. Baba used to enter them and give directions. They had such a high position! Even they aren’t present today. There wasn’t so much knowledge at that time. (Mu.23.07.69, end of pg.2)
- You don’t think that it is the old and unique children who are praised and worshipped, do you? The new ones, who follow [the knowledge] while making intense purushaarth (spiritual effort) are especially merged in the eyes of Bapdada. Just like, the Father is always merged in the eyes of the children, they always experience the company and closeness [of the Father], similarly, despite coming late you aren’t distant, you are close [to Him]. That is why according to the drama, the children who come last have especially received the golden chance of going fast, meaning first through a high jump. (A.V. 22.01.76, end of pg.7, beginning of pg.8)
- It is not that only those who come first will go ahead. The Father says, when the ones who come in the end receive the throne (position), they become clever. The old ones are left behind. [...] Those who come late have the interest of running fast. In a way, the old ones become tired while making purushaarth continuously. (Mu.08.03.76, end of pg.3)
- Wherever and in whichever corner [of the world] are the children who were separated, those souls certainly have to come close [to the Father]. That is why the service also keeps increasing. No matter how peacefully you wish to sit, you can’t. The service won’t let you sit, it will make you go ahead, because the souls who belonged to the Father, certainly have to belong to Him again. (A.V.06.01.88, middle of pg.204)
- In the end, there will be the passion of visions just like it used to be in the beginning. [Some children] became kings and queens and played their parts; today, they aren’t present. If you listen to the history of degradation of each one [of them], you will wonder. (Mu.21.09.68, end of pg.4)
- It is not that only those who are old will be clever. Many new [souls] even become cleverer than the old ones. (Mu.13.04.77, beginning of pg.3)
- The very old children were so good; Maya gobbled them up. [...] You can understand that [the souls] among them will come again. They will definitely remember that they used to study from the Father. [...] Baba will let them come [thinking:] they may come again and make purushaarth. They will attain some good position. (Mu.09.10.70, middle of pg.2)
- The one who was number one pure, himself has become the last number, sinful. I make him alone My chariot. The first one himself has come last; he has to be first again. (Mu.21.05.68, pg.2, 3)
- You yourself came first of all; now, you yourself are the last as well. Then, you yourself will become a deity from a human being first of all. (Mu.16.07.73, end of the middle part of pg.2)
- There were very good children. Today, they aren’t present. It is a wonder, isn’t it? Maya is so hard to overcome (dustar) that the great mahaarathis, who were called Hanuman aren’t present today. They went into the stomach of a python. (Mu.30.09.77, middle of pg.2)
- The ones who [have been here for] 25 years haven’t even learned this much that He is the Unlimited Father from whom we receive the inheritance. [...] Even a seven days old [child] becomes cleverer than a 25 years old [child]. (Mu.22.08.73, middle of pg.2)

⁶² Refers to the daughters sitting in front of Baba when the murli was narrated

- You children also understand that the soul and the Supreme Soul remained separated for a long time. You yourself, who separated first have come and met [the Father] again. (Mu.07.07.71, beginning of pg.3)
- How many births do you have in the Brahmin religion? (One birth.) Some also have two-three births, don't they? (Mu.12.03.69, end of the middle part of pg.3)

{Look at the first point in the topic 'Lokik age of the Father'.}

THE FATHER IS CALLED RAM

- Shivbaba has come. People celebrate the birthday of Ram (Ramnavami). He definitely came. He ruled and then left, so, they celebrate his day. First, the creator Shivbaba would have come, only then will He have created the creation of heaven. After that there was the kingdom of Ram. (Mu.06.04.73, middle of pg.1)
- Ravan isn't strong. Ram is strong, so Ravan is also strong, because each of them rules for half a kalpa. (Who? Is it Shiva?) (Mu.04.04.72, beginning of pg.1)
- Both pictures of Ram meaning God and Ravan should be brought together. Then show [them:] this is Ram and that is Ravan. This One creates heaven [and] that one makes it [into] a hell again. (Mu.02.09.69, beginning of pg.2)
- Just as Ravan is wonderful, Ram Shiva is more wonderful than him. That Ravan is an incognito enemy and this one is the visible Friend. (Mu.09.10.73, end of pg.4)
- Prajapita Brahma, who is called Adam, he is called the great great grandfather. He is Prajapita (the father of the subjects) in the human world. (Mu.05.02.71, end of the middle part of pg.1)
- Ram departed, Ravan, who had a big family, departed... the family of Ravan is so big! You are just a handful. This entire [world] is Ravan's community. There are so few of your community of Ram, [they are] nine lakh (900 thousand). (Mu.17.02.68, beginning of pg.3)
- The kingdom of Ram is obtained only through Ram. The kingdom of Ram begins from the Golden Age. (Mu.17.07.72, end of pg.1)
- Human beings don't know that Ram has come. He will certainly come in an incognito form. The Father says, those who didn't recognize [him] in the previous kalpa, will never recognize [him now]. (Mu.01.02.71, middle of pg.4)
- Actually, it is the Supreme Father Supreme Soul who is called Ram. (Mu.26.07.73, beginning of pg.2)
- The Father... He is also called Ram by the Bharatwaasis (residents of Bharat), but because of not knowing [him] accurately, they consider Ram to be in the Silver Age. Actually, it isn't about him at all (it is about the Confluence Age). (Mu.04.02.67, beginning of pg.1)
- There is the temple of Ram here, isn't there? They have shown Ram to be dark. Perhaps Ram is alone..., he won't have married. If Sita is with him, it will be said that he is married. It is you who understand all these things. (Mu.07.09.76, end of pg.3)
- Everyone is Sita, there is one Ram. Ram is the husband of Sita and because of calling Me Ram as well, [people] have mixed [both]. Actually, My name isn't Ram. People don't worship Me considering Ram. They call [Me] Shiva or Rudra and worship [Me]. They have entangled all the thread. The thread of the intellect is entangled. (Mu.19.11.71, end of pg.2) [Mu.16.11.76, end of pg.2]
- Why do they say the word 'Ram'? Because it is the kingdom of Ravan, isn't it? So, in comparison to that, it is called the kingdom of Ram. Ram is the Supreme Father Supreme Soul, he is also called Ishwar, Bhagwan (God). His real name is Shiva. (Mu.10.02.67, beginning of the middle part of pg.1)
- The Father alone comes and gives the inheritance of heaven. People do call Him out: O God! O Ram! (Mu.30.01.70, beginning of the middle part of pg.3)
- Only the One Father is Almighty, He is also called Ram. (Mu.20.02.68, beginning of pg.3)
- Shiva is called Ram. When they chant [the name] 'Ram, Ram', they don't remember the Silver Age Ram. In (the Confluence Age) rosary, (a lotus) flower is also shown on the top. (Mu.07.11.68, beginning of pg.2)

- At this time, you souls follow the direction of Shri Shri Ram Shivbaba. (Mu.02.03.73, beginning of the middle part of pg.2)
- The Father alone teaches this Raja Yoga. Krishna won't be called the Father. In fact, he is a child. (Mu.19.01.75, end of the middle part of pg.2)
- The vicious world is created just through Ravan. The father Ram comes and makes everyone pure. (Mu.27.02.69, end of the middle part of pg.1)
- The Father is called Ram. He isn't that Ram whose Sita was abducted. (Mu.06.09.68, middle of pg.3)
- Even if you say Ram, it is the One, the Incorporeal One alone. (Mu.26.08.73, beginning of pg.3)
- The Father Ram is righteous [and] Ravan is unrighteous. (Mu.02.05.68, beginning of the middle part of pg.2)
- Shivbaba is called Ram. (Mu.07.09.68, beginning of pg.3)
- Baba has explained that Sita is called bhakti, Ram is called Bhagwan (God). (Mu.27.08.69, beginning of the middle part of pg.1)
- There is a story of Luv, Kush⁶³ as well, isn't there? The children of Ram fainted on the battlefield. Ram doesn't have just two children, actually, there are numerous children here. (Mu.03.08.66, middle of pg.1)
- The Supreme Soul alone is called Ram. They say 'Ram, Ram' and then salute (namaskaar) before Shiva in the end. He Himself is the Supreme Soul. (Mu.08.11.68, beginning of the middle part of pg.3) [Mu.14.10.99, middle of pg.3]
- [...] Krishna can't be anybody's father. In fact, he is a small child. He is the prince of the Golden Age. He can't be the Teacher either. He himself sits and learns from the Teacher. (Mu.21.10.75, beginning of pg.1)

THE FATHER RAM HIMSELF IS THE PURIFIER OF THE IMPURE [AND] THE GIVER OF TRUE LIBERATION

- They also sing, Ram is the giver of true liberation to everyone, but because of having a monkey like intellect, they don't understand who is called Ram. [...] They will say, 'wherever I see, Ram and only Ram delights. Now (in the Confluence Age), it is the human beings who delight, isn't it? (Mu.07.03.67, end of pg.1) [Mu.11.03.75, end of pg.1]
- They call [Him] the Purifier of the impure (Patit Paavan), so, He will certainly come here, won't He? He won't purify the impure through inspiration. (Mu.25.02.68, end of pg.2)
- If Shivbaba doesn't play the part, He won't be of any use. He wouldn't have any value at all. He has value only when He brings about the true liberation of the entire world. It is then that He is praised. (Mu.15.12.68, end of pg.1) [Mu.16.12.74, end of pg.1]
- Only the One Father sits and purifies everyone. When one [soul] becomes pure, everyone becomes pure. When one [soul] is impure, everyone becomes impure. (Mu.13.04.69, beginning of pg.3) [Mu.21.03.74, beginning of the middle part of pg.3]
- When the Father, the Purifier of the impure comes, then not only the human beings of the entire world, He even makes nature *satopradhaan*⁶⁴. (Mu.20.01.75, middle of pg.2)
- Nobody can either go to the pure incorporeal world nor can they go to the pure corporeal world without the Father, the Purifier of the impure. (Mu.16.04.73, beginning of the middle part of pg.2)
- Since He has to come to bring about the true liberation of everyone, He will definitely come in some form, won't He? He has to come while he (the permanent chariot) sits at home. (Mu.07.07.72, end of pg.2)
- The Father says, I am the Servant of all the religions. I come and bring about the true liberation of everyone. The Golden Age (Satyug) is called true liberation. (Mu.22.03.68, beginning of pg.2)

⁶³ Sons of Ram in the epic Ramayana

⁶⁴ Consisting in the quality of goodness and purity

- The Father is certainly incorporeal, then how is He the Purifier of the impure? Does He do magic? He will definitely have to come here to purify the impure. (Mu.07.05.72, beginning of the middle part of pg.1)
- The Giver of liberation and true liberation to everyone is the One Ram. They sing, 'Ram is the Purifier of the impure', then why do they make others [their] guru? The Father liberates [us] from them, He liberates [us] from the chains of the gurus. (Mu.04.09.73, end of pg.3)
- The Supreme Father Supreme Soul Shiva doesn't change the body again and again. In fact, He comes just once. He alone is called the Purifier of the impure (Patit-paavan). They say, 'Patit-paavan Sita-Ram'. Now, you also have to understand the meaning of Sita-Ram. Bhakti is called Sita. Her husband is God, who is called Ram. (Mu.01.06.65, beginning of pg.1) [Mu.02.06.72, beginning of pg.1]
- The Father alone takes [you] out of degradation (durgati) and brings about the true liberation. He Himself is famous as the Creator, the Director [and] the main Actor. How is He the main Actor? The Purifier of the impure, the Father comes and purifies everyone in the impure world. So He is the most important, isn't He? (Mu.17.06.72, end of pg.2)
- When the Father, the Purifier of the impure comes and purifies [us], we can go [to the Supreme Abode]. Now the Father is telling you the method to become pure. (Mu.01.11.71, beginning of pg.3)
- [The souls] call out: 'O Purifier of the impure! Come.' So, He certainly needs a chariot (body), in which He enters and purifies [us], doesn't He? [The souls] certainly won't become pure through the arrows of knowledge. (Mu.30.05.70, beginning of pg.2)
- Everyone keeps singing: 'Sita-Ram, the purifier of the impure.' We are impure, the Father is the Purifier. All those are the Sitas of the path of bhakti; Ram is the Father. (Mu.31.01.71, middle of pg.3)
- Shivbaba is the Liberator, the Ocean of Knowledge. Brahma won't be called [that]. Brahma is also liberated through Him. (Mu.03.01.74, end of pg.1) [Mu.02.01.84, end of pg.1, beginning of pg.2]
- They also sing: The Supreme Soul is the Purifier of the impure, the Giver of true liberation to everyone. [...] Not a single one is impure in the pure world. This is certainly an impure world. Not a single one can be pure [here]. (Mu.23.09.71, end of pg.1) [Mu.27.10.96, end of pg.1]
- Only the One Father is the Giver of true liberation to everyone, the Purifier of the impure. [...] The Father of the world, the Teacher of the world, the Guru of the world is only the One. (Mu.23.08.67, beginning of pg.1)
- At this time everyone is in the jail of Ravan. [...] Ram comes to liberate [us] from Ravan's jail. (Mu.12.06.69, beginning of pg.2)
- The first main thing that the Father explains is, 'Shri Krishna isn't the Purifier of the impure, the Ocean of Knowledge'. (Mu.16.04.71, beginning of pg.1) [Mu.27.04.01, middle of pg.1]
- Shivbaba is Baba as well as the Husband. He is Ram of all the Sitas. He Himself is the Purifier of the impure. (Mu.16.04.71, end of pg.2)
- Ram is praised as the Giver of true liberation to everyone, so, He will certainly come when everyone is degraded. (Mu.12.06.72, end of pg.1)

THERE IS THE KINGDOM OF RAM THROUGH THE DIRECTIONS OF RAM

- Now you children are receiving the directions of God which is called Ram's directions (not Krishna's directions). (Mu.12.06.69, beginning of pg.1)
- The unlimited Bapuji is required to establish the kingdom of Ram (Ram raajya), the one who establishes the kingdom of Ram and destroys the kingdom of Ravan (Ravan raajya). (Mu.06.07.71, end of the middle part of pg.1)
- If you want to go to the kingdom of Ram, follow the directions of Ram. (Mu.12.05.77, beginning of the middle part of pg.3)
- You have obtained the kingdom through Ram's directions and lost it through Ravan's directions. Now you receive Ram's directions to climb up again. (Mu.07.06.68, middle of pg.3)
- Now Ram Shivbaba gives [His] directions. There is victory just in faith. (Mu.10.12.68, middle of pg.2)

RAM FAILED

- Ramcandra didn't gain victory. That is why he has been given the mark of a Kshatriya (warrior). (Mu.23.07.68, middle of pg.3)
- You all are Kshatriya, who gain victory over Maya, aren't you? [...] Ram has been given arrows and so on. There is certainly no violence in the Silver Age. (Then, where is it prevalent?) (Mu.23.07.68, middle of pg.3)
- There is Ramcandra. He too had to suffer punishments, because he failed. That is why he is shown with arrows. In fact, we all are Kshatriya, warriors, aren't we? (Mu.05.01.67, beginning of the middle part of pg.3)
- The Father explains: it won't be said that Ramcandra failed. No. Some children (in the yagya) failed, who become Ramcandra in the future. Ram and Sita don't study in the Silver Age, so that it will be said that they failed. This is also [something] to be understood, isn't it? If someone hears [the word:] 'Ramcandra failed', he will ask: where did he study? He studied in this way⁶⁵ in the previous birth and attained this position. (Mu.09.08.70, beginning of the middle part of pg.1)
- Even Ram (and Sita) will have to become the servant and maid of Lakshmi-Narayan first, because Lakshmi-Narayan passed fully. He (Ram) failed (in the yagya), that is why he is called Kshatriya. (Mu.20.05.64, end of pg.3)
- Ramcandra also learned Raja Yoga. He failed while learning, so he was named Kshatriya. (Mu.31.08.70, end of the middle part of pg.3)
- Ram failed, with 33% marks, so he went to the Moon dynasty (Candravansh). (Mu.14.10.72, end of pg.2)
- *Candravanshi*⁶⁶ Ram has been given arrows and so on. Actually, it is about the arrows of knowledge. He failed, so he has been given [this] sign. (Mu.02.12.82, end of pg.1)

PRAJAPITA (THE CORPOREAL ONE)

- The title Great Great Grandfather is of Prajapita Brahma. There will certainly be the Grandmother, grandchildren too. (Mu.19.10.73, end of pg.3)
- Prajapita is also called the creator. The human world is born through Brahma. That is why he is called Prajapita, meaning the father of human beings. (Mu.27.07.65, beginning of pg.2)
- There will be Brahmins when Prajapita is face to face. Now you are face to face [with Prajapita]. (Mu.06.08.75, end of pg.1)
- Now you belong to Prajapita Brahma. You know that Shivbaba will take [you] to heaven through Prajapita Brahma. (Mu.18.04.73, middle of pg.4)
- Prajapita Brahma is certainly required; he should be here, at the confluence of the kalpa. Only then the new world of Brahmins will be created. (Mu.16.03.73, middle of pg.3) [Mu.17.03.78, middle of pg.3]
- The corporeal (vyakt) Prajapita Brahma is needed. Prajapita is certainly not present in the subtle world. Prajapita Brahma is needed here (in the corporeal world). (Mu.05.08.73, end of the middle part of pg.2)
- The word 'Prajapita' should definitely be written before [the word] 'Brahmakumaris'. Saying 'Prajapita', proves [the presence of] the Father. The very question that we ask is: 'what is your relation with Prajapita?' Because many have the name 'Brahma'. Some females also have the name 'Brahma'. Certainly, nobody has the name 'Prajapita'. That is why the word 'Prajapita' is necessary. (Mu.04.09.72, beginning of pg.2)
- Prajapita will exist here itself. He is Lekhraj in the last birth. He certainly can't become Prajapita. (Mu.21.08.73, end of the middle part of pg.5)

⁶⁵ With a doubting intellect

⁶⁶ The one who belongs to the Moon dynasty

- This one was a jeweler. How can he be Prajapati? (Mu.28.07.72, end of pg.4) [Mu.29.07.77, end of pg.3]
- Prajapita Brahma, an ordinary human being was poor at the end of many births, wasn't he? At this time, he is certainly *khaadi*⁶⁷ clothes. (Mu.19.10.69, end of pg.1)
- [The Father] will certainly come in the body of Brahma to give the inheritance. He is Prajapita Brahma. The subtle world dweller Brahma won't be called Prajapita. He won't create subjects (prajaa) there. We Brahmakumar-kumaris are in the corporeal form, so Prajapita Brahma is also in the corporeal form. Sit and understand this secret. (Mu.04.11.72, beginning of pg.2)
- The name of the impure body is Prajapita Brahma. [Shiva] enters them and says, I enter an ordinary human being in the end of his many births. He comes in an impure body. He doesn't come in the subtle world dweller [and] pure Brahma. (Mu.04.11.65, beginning of pg.1)
- Brahma is also called Prajapita. The very meaning of prajaa is the human world. Shiva is the Father of the souls. Everyone does have two fathers but the Father of all the souls is Shiva. (Mu.11.11.71, end of pg.1)
- Prajapita Brahma has such numerous children. He is such a [great] householder. This is the unlimited household. (Mu.04.12.76, end of pg.3)
- There is Shivbaba as well. There are so many Brahmakumar-kumaris, so, it is certainly understood that there is Prajapita as well. (Mu.31.01.70, middle of pg.3)
- Brahma doesn't narrate the essence of the scriptures. From where did he learn? He too will have some father or guru, won't he? Prajapita will certainly be a human being and he will be present here itself. (Mu.21.10.73, end of pg.2)
- There are so many Brahmakumar-kumaris, [so] certainly, there will be Prajapita as well. (mu.13.02.67, middle of pg.2) [Mu.31.03.75, end of pg.3]
- It isn't written anywhere that Prajapita Brahma is a resident of the subtle world. There aren't subjects in the subtle world. Prajapita Brahma is certainly needed here, isn't he? (Mu.04.10.77, end of the middle part of pg.2)
- The Father is explaining the Brahmakumar-kumaris through Prajapita Brahma, not the Shudrakumaris. (Mu.14.06.72, middle of pg.1)
- The one through whom the creation is created at the very beginning is called Prajapita Brahma. He is the Great Great Grandfather. Shivbaba won't be called the Great Great Grandfather. (Mu.03.05.72, end of pg.1, beginning of pg.2)
- They say, 'Prajapita Brahma', but don't know him accurately. Whose child is Brahma? You will say that the Supreme Father Supreme Soul Shiva has adopted him. This one is a bodily being, isn't he? All the souls are the children of God. Later, when they get a body, they are called the adopted [children] of Prajapita Brahma. That is not an adoption. The Supreme Father Supreme Soul didn't adopt [Brahma]. You have been adopted. You are Brahmakumar-kumaris. Shivbaba doesn't adopt [anyone]. (Mu.11.01.71, end of pg.3)
- The children of Prajapita Brahma will also certainly be along with Brahma. The Brahmin clan is also required. That is called the best, the highest on high Brahmin clan. (Mu.04.06.66, end of the middle part of pg.2)
- [The Father] comes and brings about the true liberation of everyone through Prajapita Brahma. Everyone just calls him; they see him, don't they? (Mu.06.03.76, end of pg.1)
- Prajapita Brahma is certainly present here. You have visions, when the corporeal Brahma becomes pure, the complete form is seen there. (Mu.31.03.72, end of pg.2)
- Prajapita, who existed in the past, is present now. (Mu.11.03.73, beginning of pg.1)
- Shiva or Krishna isn't called Prajapita. They have stained Krishna falsely [by saying:] he had 16,108 queens. It is Prajapita Brahma who gives birth to so many sons and daughters. (Mu.03.03.73, middle of pg.2) [Mu.03.03.78, end of the middle part of pg.2]
- Now Prajapita Brahma is certainly in the human world. (Mu.07.12.73, end of pg.2)

⁶⁷ A thick, coarse type of cotton cloth

- They don't even understand that Brahma should certainly be present in the corporeal form through whom the Supreme Father Supreme Soul creates the world. (Mu.30.12.98, middle of pg.2)
- The Supreme Abode won't be called the place of residence of Prajapita Brahma. Actually, he will be here, in this corporeal world, won't he? He isn't in the subtle world either. The subjects are certainly present in the corporeal world. (Mu.26.12.67, beginning of pg.2) [Mu.09.12.00, end of pg.2]
- Souls are children of Shivbaba and then we all brothers and sisters in the corporeal form are the children of Prajapita Brahma. He is the Great Great Grandfather of everyone. [...] Shivbaba and Prajapita Brahma [are] the Father of the souls and the father of all the human beings, [respectively]. (Mu.13.01.70, end of pg.1)
- Prajapita Brahma is the Great Great Grandfather. The eldest in the human world is Brahma, isn't he? This won't be said for Shiva; He will just be called the Father. [...] There will certainly be the Grandmother and grand children too. (Mu.19.10.73, end of pg.3)
- They also understand that Prajapita Brahma will certainly be present in the corporeal world itself. They are confused. [...] That (corporeal one) is in karmic bondages, that (subtle one) is *karmatiit*⁶⁸. [...] The Father sits and explains the meaning: Prajapita Brahma, who was a human being, himself becomes an angel later on. (Mu.30.01.68, end of the middle part of pg.1, beginning of pg.2)
- Prajapita Brahma will certainly be present here itself, won't he? Many become confused just on this [topic]. (Mu.15.10.69, middle of pg.1)
- Shiva is the Incorporeal Father. Prajapita Brahma is the corporeal father. Now you are taking the inheritance from the Incorporeal Father through the corporeal one. (Mu.15.01.67, end of pg.3)
- Many children adopt the method of becoming the master of the treasure only through the One Father instead of Bapdada, meaning both the fathers. They are also deprived of the attainments because of this. We have a direct connection with the Incorporeal One, [...] where is the need of the corporeal one? But such a key becomes a broken key. (A.V.14.10.81, beginning of pg.58)
- You should definitely write the word 'Trimurti' too. The word 'Prajapita' is also necessary, because many also have the name Brahma. If you write the word 'Prajapita', they will understand that Prajapita is in the corporeal form. Because of just writing Brahma, they think [him to be] the one [who resides] in the subtle world. (Mu.16.10.69, beginning of the middle part of pg.2)

BEGGAR TO PRINCE OF FARRUKHABAD

{Look at the first six points in the topic 'The Father's abode (lokik birthplace).}

BRAHMA IS THE SENIOR MOTHER

- Brahma is your senior mother but many children haven't recognized her completely. They are still [in the process of] recognizing her [completely]. (Mu.01.05.73, beginning of pg.2)
- Though there is Saraswati, actually, Brahmputra⁶⁹ is the real mother. Brahmputra [is the eldest] among everyone, she is even elder to Saraswati. So who will be named Brahmputra? [People] have named [a river] Brahmputri. (Mu.02.01.75, beginning of the middle part of pg.2)
- There are two unlimited Fathers as well, then, there will definitely be two mothers as well: One is mother Jagadamba [and as regards] the other one, this one (Brahma) is also a mother. (Mu.10.02.73, beginning of pg.1)
- [It is said:] You are the Mother and the Father... so, this one is proved to be the Mother. That Father enters him and creates [the creation]. So he is old Prajapita as well; then, the mother is also old. Certainly, old ones are required, aren't they? (Mu.05.01.78, end of the middle part of pg.1)

⁶⁸ The stage beyond karma

⁶⁹ Lit. means son of Brahma

- This Satguru (true guru) speaks the truth. Those false gurus leave [you] in between and die. They don't bring about the true liberation. I will certainly take you along with [Me]. The Iron Age gurus can't say this. (Mu.17.06.78, end of the middle part of pg.3)
- He also brings about the true liberation of everyone in practice. It is not that Shivbaba will go away and we will just sit here [and] then we will have to make some other guru [ours]. No. (Mu.12.11.68, end of pg.1)
- This Brahma is adopted. Brahmins [are created] through Prajapita Brahma. (Mu.06.02.71, end of pg.1)
- He has made their body His chariot at the end of [their] many births. He adopts [them], doesn't He? A wife is also adopted, then they change her name in the parental home and give her a [different] name in the father-in-law's house. The Father also entered these ones so He changed their name. He adopted them and made them [His] housewife in a way. (Mu.05.05.67, end of pg.2) [Mu.05.05.75, end of pg.2]
- Brahma is also the creation of Shivbaba. (Mu.26.06.70, beginning of pg.1) [Mu.26.06.75, beginning of pg.1]
- First He creates Brahmins. From where did Brahma come? He adopted Brahma. Just like a wife is adopted, then children are born. I too adopted these ones. I create you through their lotus like mouth. A mother is required, isn't it? (Mu.28.11.65, end of the middle part of pg.7)
- This Brahma is the mother [...] but a mother is required to take care of the mothers. So, daughter Brahmakumari Saraswati has been adopted. These are such deep topics! (Mu.17.04.72, end of pg.2)
- He created a wife through the mouth, so He became the Creator. He says: she is Mine. I have given birth to children through them. (Mu.01.10.75, end of pg.1)
- Brahma isn't a creator. (Mu.05.03.73, beginning of the middle part of pg.1)
- You must be thinking that people will ask: your Brahma Baba went away before he was 100 years old. This is a very easy question. It is not difficult at all. The age was certainly around 100. It is not wrong that it has been said 100 years. If something has remained, he will complete it through the subtle [role]. Brahma's part in establishment is for 100 years. Those 100 years certainly have to be completed. But now the part of Brahmins after Brahma is to be played in between. (A.V.21.01.69, middle of pg.21)
- The Father is incorporeal. He will definitely have to come here when He gives the inheritance, won't He? - so that He gives His introduction. So, these ones will definitely have to become the mother. So, this one is the senior mother. Dada (the grandfather) is incorporeal and dadi (the grandmother) is also required. Then He found Mamma. This is such wonderful knowledge. Certainly, nobody can become dadi. This one himself will be called so. But the male became the dadi as well, because he is *mukhvanshaavali*⁷⁰, isn't he? This is very wonderful! (Mu.12.08.73, end of the middle part of pg.3)
- He Himself is the Father, then He adopts [the children] through these ones, so this one became the senior mother. Then Saraswati was adopted first. The Father has entered these ones. She (Mamma) was adopted. [...] He is the Mother and the Father for you. For me, He is the Husband as well as the Father. He entered [me] and has made me His wife (banni) as well. (Mu.20.10.73, middle of pg.2)
- You are the Mother and the Father... later, you can say Bapdada. Here, the Father is included in the Mother and the Father, but no. [...] If there is a creation, a mother is certainly required. Now who is the first mother, this is the deepest topic. [...] Is Prajapatni (wife of Prajapati) also required along with Prajapita Brahma? No. Prajapatni isn't required because he is mukhvanshaavali. (Mu.29.09.78, beginning of pg.1)
- This Dada is Mamma as well. That Father is certainly different. [...] But since this one is a male, a mother is appointed. (Mu.19.01.75, beginning of the middle part of pg.1) [Mu.17.01.00, end of pg.1]
- Prajapita is also called the father. Then where is the mother? [...] This one is Prajapita as well as the mother. [...] So, this one (Brahma) becomes the mother. [...] This one is also an adopted mother. That

⁷⁰ Progeny born from the mouth, meaning the knowledge

- one is the Father. This one is also shown as *Nandi gan*⁷¹ or a bull. He is never shown as a cow. (Mu.05.12.71, end of the middle part of pg.1)
- It is said, You are the Mother and the Father ... so, this one (Brahma) is the mother. So, you will have to keep a relationship with him too. If your love for him ends, the game will end. How will you receive the inheritance if [your love] for the Mother and the Father ends? (Mu.13.10.65, middle of pg.3)
 - Now, Prajapita is both the Fathers, isn't he? The Father will certainly adopt [the children] through the mother, won't He? [...] She is daughter Saraswati, but [children] aren't adopted through a daughter. [...] He entered this one, it is then that He Himself tells (Brahma): you are My son as well as wife. (Mu.11.12.71, end of the middle part of pg.1)
 - The Father is certainly the Father and this one (Brahma) is your Mamma. He (Brahma) receives the pot [of knowledge] first, but in order to promote the glory of Saraswati, she has been kept ahead. (Mu.15.10.77, beginning of pg.3)

{Look at the 18th point in the topic 'Jagatpita-Jagadamba'.}

IS BRAHMA THE TEMPORARY CHARIOT, THE PERMANENT CHARIOT OR THE FORTUNATE CHARIOT?

- Baba doesn't always (throughout the Confluence Age) stay in this one. Yes, this is His permanent chariot. He is called the chariot of Husain⁷². (Mu.15.08.72, beginning of pg.3)
- This chariot or the throne of *akaalmuurt*⁷³ is especially appointed. (Mu.05.08.73, beginning of pg.2) [Mu.08.08.78, beginning of pg.2]
- This is Shivbaba's temporary chariot. [The Father] says: Remember Shivbaba and [then] go on his lap, otherwise, you will be stained with sin. (Mu.25.06.66, end of the middle part of pg.3)
- I too have come in his body temporarily. (Mu.03.09.73, end of pg.1)

- You hear from the lotus like mouth of God Himself. This is the mouth taken on loan by God, isn't it? It is also called Gaumukh (mouth of the cow). He is the senior mother, isn't he? (Mu.28.05.70, end of the middle part of pg.1)
- The Father says: I too take [the body] on loan for a short time. The vaanprastha stage is attained at the age of 60 years. (Mu.26.10.68, beginning of the middle part of pg.2)
- For the men, if they lose one shoe (wife), they will take a second [or] third shoe. The body is also called a shoe. Even this is the long boot of Shivbaba, isn't it? (Mu.21.06.74, middle of pg.3) [Mu.15.06.84, middle of pg.3]
- This Brahma, in whom the Father sits and enables [us] to obtain the inheritance, he too will leave the body. (Mu.05.02.71, end of pg.2, beginning of pg.3)
- I enter this one for a short period. This is certainly an old shoe. When one wife of a man dies, it is said: the old shoe has gone; now I take a new one. This one (Brahma) is also an old body, isn't he? (Mu.11.07.70, beginning of the middle part of pg.2)
- This is the chariot of Shivbaba, isn't it? He is the one who makes the entire world into heaven. (Mu.11.01.75, middle of pg.3)
- The Father has the experience of everything. Only then has the Father made him His chariot. He has the experience of poverty, of prosperity [and] everything. According to the drama, this is the only chariot. This can never change. (Mu.29.07.70, end of pg.3)
- The chariot of Shivbaba and Brahma Baba is the same; so certainly, Shivbaba can also play, can't He? (Mu.13.10.68, beginning of pg.3)

⁷¹ Nandi: name of the bull of Shiva; gan means group

⁷² Name of the younger son of Muhammad's son-in-law

⁷³ The one who cannot be devoured by death and is in the corporeal form

- The body will be left when [the Father] comes and adopts the chariot of the father. (Night class mu.10.05.68, end of pg.2)
- The Bengal, Bihar zone certainly knows how to decorate. [...] The physical body was also found here itself. (A.V.01.02.79, end of pg.258, beginning of pg.259)
- He says: I take this chariot on loan. Why is he called Bhagirath? It is because, he is a very fortunate chariot. Later on, he himself becomes the master of the world; so, he is Bhagirath, isn't he? (Mu.26.09.68, middle of pg.1)
- The chariot certainly remains permanent. [...] This [chariot] is permanent according to the drama. He is called the fortunate chariot. [...] Just one is called the fortunate chariot, in whom the Father comes, gives the knowledge through Brahma and performs the task of establishment. (Mu.26.08.69, middle of pg.3) [Mu.11.09.85, beginning of the middle part of pg.3]

BRAHMA BABA COMES IN [THE BODY OF] GULZAR MOHINI, NOT SHIVBABA

- You see that the one whom Baba has entered has nothing to do with pomp. The clothes etc. [and] everything is the same. (Mu.09.02.71, beginning of the middle part of pg.1)
- Children say: Today Baba entered me and narrated the murli. [They are asked:] did your body feel any weight? [They reply:] not at all. You didn't feel any difficulty. (Mu.07.05.73, end of the middle part of pg.1)
- This Baba also knows that he has given his house like body on rent. [...] According to the drama plan, He doesn't have to take any other house at all. He has to take this very house every cycle. (Mu.02.12.68, beginning of pg.2)
- Baba won't sit and explain in big gatherings. (Mu.04.09.73, middle of pg.2)
- Just like Brahmins are called, ghosts also come and enter. So, there are two souls, aren't there? When the ghost performs its task, his (the one whom the ghost has entered) part ends. (Mu.08.07.64, middle of pg.3) [Mu.12.07.73, middle of pg.3]
- Does the teaching ever take place through a loudspeaker? How will a teacher ask questions? How will he be able to respond through a loudspeaker? That is why He teaches few students. (Mu.15.09.76, beginning of pg.3)
- I don't enter the subtle world dweller, the deity Brahma. I have to purify the impure here. The subtle world dweller Brahma has become pure through Me alone. (Mu.04.11.65, beginning of the middle part of pg.1)
- The name 'Brahma' can never change. [The Father] establishes [the new world] through Brahma himself, so, He won't enter someone else's body. If He comes in someone else, he will still have to be named Brahma. (Mu.17.03.73, end of pg.2)
- The part of My arrival is just once, in the Confluence Age. It isn't that I come when you call Me. When it is the time of My arrival, I come at the accurate time, neither a second late nor a second early. I don't have organs at all to listen to your calls. [...] When the time comes, I come and purify the impure. It is not that God listens to your cries. (Mu.05.12.71, beginning of the middle part of pg.3) [Mu.06.12.76, beginning of pg.3]
- The Father certainly comes at night. There is no time and date [to know] when He comes. Those who have a lokik (physical) birth have a time and date [of their birth]. This is the Paarlokik (unworldly) Father. He doesn't have a lokik birth. Time, date and everything is mentioned about [the birth of] Krishna. In His case, it is said to be a Divine birth. (Mu.09.03.70, beginning of pg.1)
- The Father says, [...] according to the drama plan, there is certainly a change when I have to come. (Mu.22.02.69, beginning of the middle part of pg.1)

- [He] enters only the one who has a role [for this entrance] in the drama and he is named Brahma. [...] If He enters someone else, he too will have to be named Brahma. (Mu.17.03.73, end of pg.2)

- The Father Himself runs and comes to Madhuban (not on being called). (A.V.05.09.77, middle of pg.3)

- This one is called the fortunate chariot, in whom the Father sits and makes you children like diamonds. (Mu.11.06.69, beginning of the middle part of pg.4)
- This one is the number one worship worthy, so, this one has become the number one worshipper as well. Then it is his very part. This is My permanent body. This can't change. It is not that now, the chance will be given to someone else. (Mu.10.10.72, beginning of pg.5)
- Now the Father is present, only then the entire world is benefited. This is the fortunate chariot. So much service takes place through him. (Mu.16.02.67, end of pg.3)
- This chariot of Baba is permanent. Brahma, through whom Brahmins can be created, is required, isn't he? (Mu.03.07.72, end of the middle part of pg.2)
- Bhagirath is also famous. He sits and narrates the knowledge through these ones. This is also a part in the drama. He comes in this fortunate chariot every cycle. You know this as well. He is the same who is called ShyamSundar. It is you who understand, how Shri Krishna becomes dark (shyam) from being beautiful (sundar) and then how the Father comes and enters the body of the dark one. (Mu.25.05.70, end of the middle part of pg.3)
- Why is he called Bhagirath? Because he is a very fortunate chariot. He himself becomes the master of the world later on. So, he is Bhagirath (the fortunate chariot), isn't he? You should understand the meaning of everything. (Mu.26.09.68, middle of pg.1)
- Brahma said: the number of Brahmins has to increase till the end of the yagya. But the method of celebrating the milan melaa (meeting-fair) with the corporeal form in the corporeal world will certainly change with the increase [of the number of Brahmins], won't it? There is certainly a difference between something taken on loan and something that belongs to us. [...] We use our things in any way according to our wish. (A.V.05.04.83, middle of pg.118)
- I Myself have to come here to purify the impure. It is not that I give inspirations from above (the Supreme Abode). His very name is Bhagirath. So, I will certainly enter him. (Mu.17.10.69, end of the middle part of pg.2)
- Baba alone is the Purifier of the impure but He is incorporeal. So, He will certainly come in the corporeal form and give shrimat to the children. The Father says, this body is also appointed for Me in the drama. This can't change. (Mu.05.12.71, beginning of pg.3) [Mu.06.12.76, end of pg.2]
- I certainly need Brahmins and I also need Prajapita Brahma, don't I? I come and enter them. Otherwise, how will I come? This chariot is reserved for Me. (Mu.13.11.72, middle of pg.3)
- No other soul can enter the body the way I enter. Although, the religious fathers who come, their soul also enters [the body of root souls], but that is a totally different case. (Mu.08.10.68, end of pg.1) [Mu.08.10.74, end of pg.1]
- He (Shivbaba) is such a great Father; so, He should come in the body of a king or a pure sage (rishi). It is the Sanyasis who are pure. He could come in the body of a pure maiden (kanyaa), but it is not the rule. How can the Father ride on a maiden? The Father sits and explains, in whom He enters. I certainly enter [the body of] the one who has the complete 84 births, not even a day less. (Mu.15.10.69, middle of pg.2)
- Shivbaba says, when I used to narrate you children, this one also listened. (Mu.17.11.76, end of the middle part of pg.2)
- The Father says, I am also a point. You don't even come to know that I have come and sat in this one. (Mu.15.07.66, middle of pg.3)
- This one doesn't know either when Baba entered [him]. [...] He used to go into a trance a lot. He can't find out the time and date [of the entrance]. Krishna is also worshipped, isn't he? He is shown to be born at night. At what time, to the minute etc., they calculate everything. (Mu.04.06.66, pg.2, 3)

- Very sweet Baba has sent [me] to meet you all children to have a spiritual chit-chat. (A.V.23.01.69, middle of pg.16)
- The Father comes suddenly. He doesn't make anyone announce publicly: I am coming. He comes suddenly. (Mu.31.08.68, end of the middle part of pg.1) [Mu.21.08.84, end of pg.1]
- Baba can't go to very big gatherings. It is the task of the children. [People] will debate with the children. (Mu.12.10.72, end of pg.2)

- I Myself have come directly. (Mu.25.05.69, beginning of pg.2)

THE FATHER IN THE FORM OF AN INCOGNITO PURUSHAARTHI⁷⁴

- Those who study and teach well, those who understand to some extent don't remain hidden. (Mu.09.02.68, end of the middle part of pg.3) [Mu.06.02.74, end of the middle part of pg.3]
- He (the Father) comes and stands for His service at His time. Nobody comes to know. Even a cycle ago, it is you children who knew [this] to a greater or a lesser extent (nambarvaar) according to your purusharth. The Kauravas didn't know [this]. It is the same even now. (Mu.05.02.68, beginning of pg.1)
- Nowadays, many souls think that some spiritual light is performing its task in a secret way but they can't know from where this light is performing the task. They have started having touchings to this extent, that 'there is someone'. Finally, they will definitely reach the destination by searching continuously. (A.V.10.11.87, end of pg.124)
- The Abode of Peace (Shantidhaam) and the Abode of Happiness (Sukhdhaam) are being established in an incognito form. (Mu.20.09.77, beginning of pg.2)
- Baba always says, nobody should even go to the station. There shouldn't be any commotion. The Father says, let Me remain incognito; there is great joy in this. (Mu.25.09.72, beginning of pg.1) [Mu.22.09.07, middle of pg.1]
- The father Brahma is enabling the work to be done in a secret form. He is not separate, he is certainly along [with us]. He is just having [the work] done in a secret form. (A.V.18.01.99, middle of pg.42)
- Now, only you know that Baba teaches us again and the Father has come in an incognito form, in an alien country. [...] Baba is also incognito. (Mu.03.04.69, end of pg.1)
- The Father is incognito as well as Dada is incognito. [...] The children are also incognito. (Mu.12.06.72, beginning of pg.1)

THERE IS JUST ONE PERSONALITY OF SHIVA-SHANKAR [BUT] THEY ARE TWO [DIFFERENT] SOULS

- Nothing is permanent in this world. Only the one Shivbaba is permanent. Everyone else certainly has to experience downfall. (Mu.02.01.75, end of pg.3)
- Ravan is an enemy (a villain). Shivbaba is a gentleman. (Mu.05.01.68, end of the middle part of pg.2)
- Shivbaba Himself is called Rudra⁷⁵. The flame of destruction emerged from the *Rudra Gyaan Yagya*⁷⁶; so, Rudra is God. (Mu.26.01.70, beginning of pg.2)
- They have even disgraced Shiva falsely. [They say:] He used to eat *Dhatura*⁷⁷. They defame Him so much! Such human beings with a foolish intellect will be destroyed and you, the ones who become wise will receive the emperorship. (Mu.04.11.78, middle of pg.3)

⁷⁴ The one who makes spiritual effort

⁷⁵ The fearsome form of Shankar

⁷⁶ The yagya of the knowledge of Rudra

⁷⁷ The thorn-apple (a narcotic)

- Bharat was truly heaven. Now it is hell. They keep biting each other. It has been shown in the scriptures - hasn't it? - that scorpions and spiders were born. Now everyone is the child of Shiva, but at present, scorpions and spiders are born from His vigour. (Mu.28.04.72, middle of pg.2)
- They have given Me many names. They say, *Har-har-Mahadev*⁷⁸, the Remover of Sorrow of everyone. I Myself also am that, not Shankar. (Mu.04.11.78, beginning of the middle part of pg.2)
- Actually, Shivbaba is the oldest, isn't He? But nobody knows [this]. The entire glory is of Shivbaba. That thing can't be found. What is the oldest thing? The number one Shivbaba. (Mu.26.05.65, end of the middle part of pg.3)
- I give you the sovereignty of heaven. I don't live in palaces there [and] I don't live in palaces here either. They sing - don't they? - 'Bam-bam Mahadev! Fill up my jholi (bag)', but nobody knows when and how He fills up the bag. He certainly filled up the bag; He was in a living form. (Mu.12.05.72, end of the middle part of pg.2)
- He will make you like divine flowers and take [you] across. Then, you will never experience sorrow in heaven. That is why He is certainly called the Remover of Sorrow [and] the Giver of Happiness. It is said, 'Har-Har Mahadev', isn't it? Shiva Himself will be called Mahadev. He is even the Father of Brahma, Vishnu and Shankar. (Mu.06.11.73, middle of pg.5)
- The number one [soul] who endures bad words the most is Shivbaba. Brahma is in the second position to endure bad words. (Mu.24.12.73, beginning of the middle part of pg.2)
- Actually, there should be the temple of the one Shivbaba. It is He who has become the instrument to purify the impure. (Mu.01.08.73, end of pg.1)
- I am such a good guest of you children for a few days. The Supreme Father, the Master of the entire world is your guest. (Mu.06.11.68, end of pg.3)
- This Brahma is also a purusharthi. Shivbaba is a purusharthi. Shivbaba is the one who enables [us] to make purusharth. (Mu.27.08.73, end of pg.1)
- Everyone knows the life story of the Supreme Soul. That too, not just of one birth; you know of how many births is the biography of Shivbaba. (Mu.11.06.72, beginning of the middle part of pg.1)
- The Highest of the high Shivbaba and Brahma, both are the highest. (Mu.13.06.70, end of pg.3)
- The name of this one soul alone is Shiva; all the other souls have their own body. The names are based on the bodies. There is no name of the body of the Supreme Soul. [...] The name of His (Shiva) soul itself is Shiva. It never changes. When the bodies change, the names also change. (For example, Shankar from Brahma, [and] then Vishnu.) (Mu.21.01.70, beginning of pg.2, Mu.24.01.75, beginning of pg.2)
- The Father says, I Myself have come to take you back. I am called the Great Death (kaal-Mahaakaal). Death is standing ahead. So, now follow My direction and attain a high status as well. Then there are positions in the liberation in life too. Everyone including the religious founders and so on will sit in [the stage of] liberation as well. (Mu.01.03.72, end of pg.2)
- Shivbaba alone is like a diamond; His birthday (jayanti) is celebrated. You could ask: what did Shivbaba do? He certainly comes and purifies the impure. (Mu.24.03.69, end of pg.3)

JAGATPITA (THE WORLD FATHER) AND JAGADAMBA (THE WORLD MOTHER)

- When there is the Father, certainly, there should also be a mother (in the corporeal form). Otherwise, how will the Father create [the creation]? (Mu.20.10.73, middle of pg.1)
- The Father comes and gives the pot of the nectar of knowledge to these mothers, so that they may transform human beings into deities. He hasn't given it to Lakshmi. At present, this one is Jagatamba (the World Mother). (Mu.01.01.84, end of pg.2)

⁷⁸ The greatest deity

- Manmanaabhav (merge in My mind). Become My children. Only Prajapita Brahma and Jagadamba can say this. (Mu.20.03.73, middle of pg.2)
- There are many mothers. One [among them] becomes famous. You are the army of *Shaktis*⁷⁹ (Shakti sena). It won't be called the Shakti dynasty. The chief of the army of Shaktis is Jagadamba. The names Kali⁸⁰, Saraswati⁸¹, Jagadamba are of the same person. As for the rest, they have also given many improper names [like] Candika⁸² and so on. (Mu.03.03.73, beginning of pg.3)
- Here, you do know that that these Jagadamba and Jagatpita, who are the instruments for the establishment, they themselves will become the ones who sustain [the children] in the world of Vishnu (Vishnulok). (Mu.07.03.73, beginning of pg.2) [Mu.08.03.78, end of pg.1, beginning of pg.2]
- Jagatamba won't be called a deity. When Jagatamba becomes complete, then she becomes a deity. (Mu.05.10.73, middle of pg.2) [Mu.06.10.78, end of pg.1]
- Jagadamba is the mother of everyone but certainly not the whole world can recognize [her]. It is only in Bharat that Jagadamba is praised. (Mu.06.08.73, beginning of pg.1)
- Those who existed in the past are praised. [...] The one who is called Jagatamba is sitting face to face with the children. They simply keep singing in the path of bhakti. You children have now received the knowledge, meaning you have received the introduction of Jagatamba. They have also made many different pictures in the name of Jagatamba. Actually, there is just one Jagatamba. Call her Kali or Saraswati or Durga. People have become confused because of giving numerous names. You know that there should be just one amba (mother); she should also have just one name and form. (Mu.15.10.73, beginning of pg.1) [Mu.15.10.78, beginning of pg.1]
- When there is the Father, the Mother is also certainly present (in the corporeal form). In Bharat, nobody knows the life story of Jagatamba. [...] There are temples of Jagatamba too. She existed when the new world was created. (Mu.05.10.73, beginning of pg.1)
- There are many mothers, but the main one is Jagatamba. Nobody knows her now. The Sanyasis will never go to Jagatamba because they are the ones who disrespect the mothers, aren't they? Actually, it is Jagatamba and her army who even uplift them. There is so much difference! They think that the woman is the gateway to hell, so they certainly won't go to Jagadamba. (Mu.30.12.83, beginning of the middle part of pg.1) [Mu.20.12.88, middle of pg.1]
- Actually, this Jagatamba opens the gates of heaven. Then, she herself becomes the master of the world first. So certainly, you children are also along with the mother. They (Jagatpita-Jagadamba) themselves are praised as 'You are the Mother [and] the Father...' (Mu.30.12.83, beginning of the middle part of pg.1)
- The Gita itself is called the mother and the father. All the other scriptures are [its] creation. No other scriptures and Vedas will be called the mother. There is also the Father along with the Mother. The Father Himself has sung the Gita. (Mu.09.07.69, middle of pg.3) [Mu.21.07.90, middle of pg.3]
- Jagatamba neither has such a fearsome form, nor does she accept sacrifices like this. Even between them, one is Vaishno devi [and] the other is non-vegetarian. [...] Now the one who is non-vegetarian becomes Vaishno. [...] Jagatamba, the one from whom the inheritance of heaven is obtained, she fulfills the wishes of everyone. So she herself [...] is the real Vaishno devi. Yes, she was certainly dirtied by the urine [of lust and was] non-vegetarian (in) her previous birth. [...] Is the temple of Lakshmi bigger or is the temple of Vaishno devi bigger? [...] Who is glorified more? She (Jagadamba) is Gyaan Gyaaneshwari (the goddess of knowledge). Lakshmi won't be called Gyaan Gyaaneshwari. That is why Jagatamba is glorified. It is of Jagatamba that the fairs are organized. Lakshmi is called on [the festival of] Diipamaalaa (festival of lights). As for the rest, the fair organized for Jagatamba is famous. (Mu.18.03.87, middle of pg.1, end of pg.3)
- The Muslims also think that God created the creation through Aadam-Bibi (Adam and Eve). (Mu.04.03.83, end of pg.2)

⁷⁹ Consorts of Shiva

⁸⁰ A name of goddess Durga

⁸¹ Wife of Brahma; the goddess of knowledge

⁸² A name of goddess Durga

- Certainly, the couple of the hero and the heroine is the main one. [...] Mother and Father form a couple, don't they? This is certainly the game of the couple, [the game] of the household path (pravritti marg), but the couple of Shivbaba is wonderful. [...] They say Brahma-Saraswati, but they aren't a couple. Actually, Shankar-Parvati aren't a couple either. (Mu.09.03.73, beginning of pg.1)
- She is the one who fulfils everybody's wishes. (Mu.23.02.73, beginning of pg.2)
- First of all I create Brahma, then Jagadamba is created. (Mu.23.02.73, beginning of pg.2)
- I give birth to you through the mouth of these ones. [...] The one who is called Jagadamba Saraswati is actually famous as *mukhvanshaavali*⁸³, the daughter of Brahma. Now, should that one (Jagadamba) be called the mother or that one (Saraswati Om Radhe)? Originally, this one (the corporeal Brahma) is the mother in reality, but he has a male body, so how can he be kept in charge of the mothers? This is why Jagadamba has become the instrument. The Father says, I enter these ones and adopt them. (Mu.19.05.73, end of the middle part of pg2)
- It is said, You are the Mother and the Father [...] truly, the Mother and the Father are present in practice now. (Mu.23.10.72, middle of pg.3)
- We are the children of Jagadamba. Jagadamba performs the task of transforming man into Narayan. (Mu.15.03.73, beginning of pg.2)
- Now you are sitting in a family with those Mother and Father. Shri Krishna certainly can't be called the Mother and the Father. Even if Radhe is along with him, they won't be called the Mother and the Father because in fact, they are prince and princess. (Mu.12.01.78, beginning of pg.1)
- Kumaris (maidens) are respected a lot in Bharat. [...] Jagadamba is also a kumari, isn't she? There should also be a meaning in calling a kumari Jagadamba, shouldn't there? If there is Jagadamba, Jagatpita is also required. (Mu.17.08.73, end of pg.1, beginning of pg2)
- It is shown that the pot of the nectar of knowledge has been kept on the head of Lakshmi. Actually, the pot has been kept on Amba, who becomes Lakshmi later on. (Mu.07.02.76, beginning of pg.3)
- The luckiest star is Jagat amba. She is the main one to take care [of the yagya]. This is why the pot remains on her [head]. And this one (Brahma) is Brahma putra (the son of Brahma) in the form of a male. [...] Saraswati herself should be called Jagat amba. This male certainly won't be called Jagat amba. (Mu.29.09.78, middle of pg.1)
- Those very Mother and Father come and give happiness. Adam and Eve are certainly famous. (Mu.21.11.73, end of pg.1)
- The children can understand that these ones are Aadam and Bibi in reality. Bibi (the wife) herself is Aadam. (Mu.29.09.78, beginning of the middle part of pg.2)

- The Father is the Sun of Knowledge. Then the Mother, the Moon of knowledge is required. So, the body which He enters is the Mother, the Moon of knowledge. All the others are the children, the lucky stars. In this way, Jagadamba is also a lucky star because everyone is a child, aren't they? (Mu.31.01.73, beginning of the middle part of pg.2) [Mu.07.01.03, end of pg.2]
- Jagat amba is a great heroine, isn't she? Saraswati is the daughter of Adi dev (the first deity). (Mu.28.09.92, beginning of pg.3) [Mu.25.09.07, end of pg.3]
- In front of whom are you sitting here? Double Father and Mother. It is not so there. You know that there is the Unlimited Father as well. [...] Mamma also lives [here]; call her the senior Mamma or the junior Mamma. So many relationships are formed. (Mu.30.04.68, beginning of pg.1)
- Now the Father opens the gates of heaven through the mothers. There are certainly men too. A mother gives birth [to a child], so, she is benefitted more than the man. (Mu.10.02.69, beginning of the middle part of pg.3) [Mu.07.01.04, end of pg.3]

⁸³ Progeny born from the mouth, meaning the knowledge

- God Shiva says, the mothers open the gates of heaven. [...] This is why it is sung, ‘Vande Maataram’ (I bow to the Mother). [When it is said,] ‘Vande Maataram’, it is understood that there is the Father as well. The Father increases the glory of the mothers. First [it is said] Lakshmi and then Narayan. Here, [it is said] Mister first and then Mrs. (Mu.10.06.69, end of pg.2)

(Mu.14.05.70, beginning of the middle part of pg.3) [Mu.04.05.00, middle of pg.3]
- Jagadamba is glorified. There isn’t just one [Jagadamba]. You all [...] sustain the Brahmin clan. [...] The fair of Chandika devi is also organized. (Mu.22.08.73, beginning of the middle part of pg.1)
- If there is Jagadamba, the children will also be present along with her. (Mu.22.08.73, end of pg.3)

- Gita is also born along with Shiva. (Mu.23.07.71, beginning of pg.3)

- Gita is the main [scripture] through which the Brahmin, *Suryavanshi*⁸⁴ [and] *Candravanshi*⁸⁵ religions were established. (Mu.28.09.92, end of pg.1)
- Everyone has to invade Delhi; they certainly have to bow before the land of Delhi. [...] Everybody’s eyes are fixed on Delhi. The Father’s eyes as well as the eyes of everyone are fixed on Delhi. (A.V.26.12.78, beginning till end of pg.155)
- The Father sits and explains: conferences of all the religions are organized in Delhi. (Mu.01.01.72, end of pg.2)

- You have to remember one Shivbaba. You will receive the inheritance through Him. The inheritance can’t be received through the mother. - You shouldn’t remember any picture. You shouldn’t even remember this picture of Shiva, because Shiva certainly isn’t like this. (Mu.02.03.73, end of pg.2)

- Something that is going to finish isn't remembered. When a new house is built, the heart withdraws from the old one (Brahma's body). Here, it is in the unlimited. (Mu.27.03.71, beginning of pg.2)
- If you remember the picture (citr) along with the One who has no picture (*vicitr*⁸⁶), you yourselves will also become virtuous (caritravaan). (A.V.18.01.70, beginning of pg.166)
- [They] certainly don't have complete knowledge. The sins aren't destroyed at all by remembering Brahma. They go and are born just in a family of householders again. They will certainly have to be born in a family of householders. (Mu.11.10.68, beginning of pg.2) [Mu.11.10.74, beginning of pg.2]
- It is the Ocean of knowledge who narrated the knowledge to the Brahma Putra or Saraswati too. It is the greatness of that one. You have to remember that one. It isn't that you should have attachment for Mamma and Baba. You have to become soul conscious. (Mu.06.08.73, end of pg.4)
- The Supreme Father Supreme Soul sits face to face and gives us knowledge. You should have an unadulterated remembrance of that very Father. You shouldn't remember the name and form of anyone else. (Mu.04.08.72, beginning of pg.1)
- If you worship Brahma, the bodily being, that is also wrong. (Mu.29.09.77, middle of pg.1)

- After waking up in the morning you should remember this. You should remember the Husband, who takes us across the salty [water]. (Mu.06.11.73, middle of pg.5)
- You should never remember Dada. The Father says through this Dada, if you remember Me, your wrong actions will be destroyed. If you remember this Dada, not a single wrong action will be destroyed; rather, they will increase even more. If you have five vices, you will become vicious. You shouldn't remember Mamma either. (Mu.07.02.70, beginning of the middle part of pg.2)
- [He] sits in this body and says, remember Me alone. (Mu.21.08.73, beginning of the middle part of pg.3)
- Remember Ram, then you will become worthy of being threaded in the rosary. (Mu.20.02.72, beginning of pg.3)
- Now you just have to remember Baba accurately. (Mu.02.01.98, end of pg.3)
- Now you certainly don't have to rotate the rosary. You just have to remember the Father accurately. (Mu.23.12.77, beginning of the middle part of pg.3)
- When this Baba remembers that one, he will say, O Baba! Both are Babas. The right word is certainly 'the Father'. That one is the Father as well as that one is the Father. (Mu.15.09.76, beginning of pg.1) [Mu.02.10.01, middle of pg.1]
- The Father explains: children, you just have to remember one Alaf. Alaf means Baba. (Mu.22.07.68, end of the middle part of pg.1)

- By remembering that one your wrong actions will be destroyed. This one is also in between. (Mu.07.07.70, beginning of pg.3)

⁸⁶ Vicitr – this word has two meaning – 1. The one who has no picture, 2. The one who has an extraordinary picture. Prefix 'vi' means 'opposite' and 'special'

- The Beloved Supreme Soul... has come now. He says, if you children want to meet Me, remember Me alone constantly. (Mu.19.03.77, end of pg.1)
- [The Father] tells the soul of Brahma, remember Me. (Mu.29.06.77, middle of pg.1)
- Nowadays, the path of bhakti is in practice a lot. [People] even call Anandmayi *maa*⁸⁷ ‘mother, mother’ and keep remembering her. Acchaa, where is the Father? How will the child come without the mother and father? Will you receive the inheritance through the mother or the Father? From where will even the mother receive the money? The sins won’t be destroyed even to the slightest extent just by uttering ‘mother, mother’. [...] The Father doesn’t say to remember the mother. In fact, the Father says, remember Me. [...] The mother is anyway a bodily being. (Mu.08.02.89, middle of pg.3)
- The children should remember the Father and the inheritance completely. (Mu.15.08.76, end of pg.1)
- The Father Himself sits and explains: remember Me, your Father. Don’t you feel ashamed? You forget Me again and again. [...] Children, [...] don’t you feel ashamed? You don’t remember the Father? You don’t have love for the Father! How much do you remember [Me]? [If someone says:] Baba, one hour, [Baba says:] arey, if you remember [Me] constantly, your sins will be destroyed. You have the burden of sins of many births on your head. (Mu.22.08.68, end of pg.1)
- Why do you remember the Incorporeal one? What will you get from that? Will you go to the incorporeal world? [...] Everyone certainly remembers [Me], but without [My] introduction. Certainly, nobody will become pure by remembering [Me] this way. Here, the Incorporeal One Himself comes in the corporeal one. (Mu.31.08.98, middle of pg.3)
- If you just remember the home, it is the connection (yoga) with [the element] Brahm. Wrong actions can’t be destroyed through that. [...] So, the Father says, their yoga is wrong. (Mu.17.03.73, middle of pg.2)
- If you remember this one (Brahma), you won’t get anything. [...] Though you think that this is the chariot [of the Father], if you leave Shivbaba and just keep remembering the chariot, you won’t get anything. You will become a sinful soul all the more. - It is not that you will receive any inheritance by remembering Brahma. You won’t even get dust. You have to remember Shivbaba. (Mu.11.04.73, beginning of pg.2)

{Look at the 26th point in the topic ‘The method of remembrance’.}

THE METHOD OF REMEMBRANCE

- The children say, Baba, we can’t stay in yoga. [Baba says,] arey, I tell you face to face, ‘remember Me’, then why do you say the word ‘yoga’? You forget [Me] just because of saying yoga. Who won’t be able to remember the Father? How do you remember your lokik mother and father? These are also your mother and father. [...] These ones also study. Saraswati also studied. The Teacher is the One Father Himself. (Mu.22.02.69, end of pg.2) [Mu.15.01.84, end of pg.2]
- Leave all the topics of the path of bhakti. You should forget absolutely everything. Leave everything. If you use it, your remembrance will break. It needs a lot of hard work to attain a high post. You shouldn’t even remember the body. We came naked and we have to go back naked. This Father sits and teaches the children. (Mu.18.03.74, end of pg.1) [Mu.13.03.84, end of pg.1]

⁸⁷ Widely recognized as a personality of great spiritual eminence

- Acchaa, the Supreme Soul you remember, what is He? You say that He is a form of eternal light (akhand jyoti swaruup). But He isn't like this. It is wrong to remember the eternal light. Remembrance should be accurate, shouldn't it? Just gossip won't work. You should know [Him] accurately. (Mu.09.05.71, middle of pg.2)
- Baba is sitting in the body of these ones, so, you will definitely remember the body, won't you? [You will think:] the soul of such and such body has this quality. (Mu.23.04.68, middle of pg.1)
- Whenever you see anything in the corporeal form, you can grasp it quickly. Something that you have to think about in the intellect is grasped later. Here also, those who saw the corporeal one in the corporeal form, it is easy for them to remember. (A.V.01.02.71, middle of pg.25)
- Everyone has to take the inheritance from the Father directly. The more you remember the Father personally, the more you will receive the inheritance. (Mu.31.07.68, beginning of the middle part of pg.1)
- Remember the Father just like [when] a maiden (kanyaa) is engaged, the remembrance [of her husband] is completely imprinted [in her intellect]. As soon as a child is born [his] remembrance is imprinted [in the intellect]. (Mu.18.06.67, end of pg.1)
- You shouldn't even say 'Shivbaba' through the mouth. Just like the lover and the beloved remember [each other]. They see [each other] just once [and] that's it. Then they will just remember them through the intellect. (Mu.23.03.70, beginning of pg.3)
- Remember Me continuously. You don't have to chant [My name], you have to remember [Me]. There is a difference between remembering and chanting. While chanting, your hands and mouth work. (Mu.11.02.73, end of pg.1)
- You know that [the Father Shiva] is in the body of Brahma, so you will certainly have to remember [Him] here. He is certainly not above. He has come here, in the Elevated Confluence Age (Purushottam Sangamyug). The Father says, I have come here to make you so high. You children will remember [Me] here. [...] The Father says, I am in this body. Remember Me in this one. (Mu.23.12.68, beginning of the middle part of pg.3)
- Though you don't remember the Point in the intellect at all. Acchaa, at least remember Shiva, so that [your] sins are destroyed. You are used to the bigger form, [then] let it be the bigger one. It means, remember Shivbaba. In the path of bhakti too, you do remember Shiva, don't you? Even if you remember the bigger [form], all your sins will be destroyed. (Night class mu.17.01.69, end of the middle part of pg.1)
- [The children] ask: how should we remember? Should we remember Shivbaba in Brahma's body or in the Supreme Abode? This question arises [in the mind] of many. Baba says that you do have to remember the soul but you definitely remember the body too. First [you remember] the body [and] then the soul. Baba is sitting in the body of this one, so, you will certainly remember the body, won't you? (Mu.23.04.68, middle of pg.1)
- Those who remember the Father above, it is the path of bhakti because they don't know about [His] occupation at all, nor do they know His name, form, country, and time at all. (Mu.14.12.68, beginning of the middle part of pg.1)
- I come here, in this body and tell [you] that you have to remember [Me] there, where I have to go now. It isn't that you have to remember [Me] here. (Mu.16.04.73, beginning of pg.1)
- When the *bhatti*⁸⁸ is organized, three days will pass well. You do receive the cooperation of the gathering through this but this is certainly not the support. Sometimes you may get cooperation and sometimes you may not. You should have the practice of [being] independent. [...] Preparing the base of your progress with the support of the programme is also a weakness. (A.V.23.01.74, middle of pg.7)
- You have to remember the body and then the soul. [...] If you have to give a current (power) to others, you have to be in remembrance in the early morning. [...] Looking at the soul means to give a searchlight. [...] The remembrance [of the Father] reaches those who remember [Him]. (Mu.18.03.74, end of pg.2, beginning of pg.3)

⁸⁸ An intense course of yoga and knowledge for a period of seven days, following strict rules

- If the knowledge doesn't sit in the intellect completely, you aren't able to have yoga either. (Mu.26.07.71, end of the middle part of pg.3)
- You should also spare one or two minutes in between and practice this point form [stage]. For example, when it is some [special] day, you are practiced [to maintain] silence for three minutes even after stopping the entire traffic which is moving about, you stop all the tasks in progress; you should also stop this traffic of thoughts in between when you perform some task or talk [to someone]. You should practice this at least for a minute by stopping in between the thoughts of the mind or the tasks being performed by the body. (A.V.24.07.70, end of pg.1, beginning of pg.2)
- Hatha yogis⁸⁹, the Sanyasis following the path of renunciation can never teach Raja Yoga to those who follow the household path. (Mu.20.01.74, beginning of the middle part of pg.4)
- Whoever is himself easygoing (saral) to whatever extent, his remembrance is also easy to that extent. Due to the lack of simplicity (saralta) in ourselves, the remembrance isn't easy either. Who will be able to be simple-minded? The more someone is clear, meaning clean in every thing, the more he will be simple. The more he is simple, his remembrance will also be easy to that extent. (A.V.21.05.70, end of pg.253)
- If you stay in remembrance, it is not a big thing. But are you an easy yogi, a constant yogi along with [having] remembrance? If it isn't so, the remembrance will also be incomplete. (A.V.26.12.79, end of pg.155)
- Lover and beloved also have love for each other's body. Both, the lover and the beloved are bodily beings. It is as if the beloved is standing in front of the lover. Then the lover will be visible to the beloved. Now you are the lovers of the Supreme Father Supreme Soul. There is one Beloved [and] all the other souls are lovers. Now that incorporeal Father sits and gives you direction through this corporeal one. (Mu.05.08.73, beginning of the middle part of pg.3)
- Baba also mentions the time [saying:] 'acchaa, sleep at 9 o'clock at night, then wake up at 2 o'clock [or] 3 o'clock [in the morning] and remember [Me]. (Mu.02.05.70, end of pg.1)
- You shouldn't even close your eyes. You have to sit in remembrance, haven't you? You shouldn't be afraid to open the eyes. Your eyes should be opened and you should have just the remembrance of the Beloved in the intellect. If you close your eyes, it means you became blind. This isn't the rule. The Father says, 'sit in remembrance'. He doesn't say, 'close your eyes'. If you close your eyes or sit with your head bent down, how will Baba see [you]? [...] If the eyes are closed, there must be something wrong⁹⁰. You might be remembering someone else. (Mu.20.03.67, end of the middle part of pg.3) [Mu.28.03.75, middle of pg.3]
- You can also remember [Me] in the latrine. (Mu.22.04.72, end of pg.3)
- When He comes in the body of this very Brahma, it is then that Brahmins will also be born through the mouth of Brahma. Those Brahmins are taught Raja Yoga. The Father says, you shouldn't remember any subtle, corporeal or incorporeal picture. In fact, you are given an aim. Human beings remember after seeing pictures. Baba says, stop seeing the pictures. This is the path of bhakti. (Mu.02.03.73, middle of pg.2) [Mu.25.06.92, middle of pg.2]
- Now the Father comes and explains the reality [saying:] 'remember Me'. This is an unadulterated remembrance, that too meaningful. Nobody in the world knows [this]. You know that Shivbaba is a point (bindi). [...] Acchaa, if you feel that the Point is small, the house is certainly big, isn't it? So remember the house. Baba also stays there. (Mu.04.09.76, middle of pg.3)
- This is called the journey of remembrance. It isn't proved to be a journey by saying [the word] 'yoga'. (Mu.14.07.68, end of the middle part of pg.2)
- You become confused, you keep suffering defeat for not remembering the Father. Can't you remember for that much time? Baba has given the example of a lover and a beloved. Though he (the lover) keeps doing [his] business, though he keeps spinning the spinning wheel (carkhaa), the beloved stands in front of him anytime. [...] The lover remembers the beloved, then she (the beloved) remembers him (the lover). [...] Here, you just have to remember the One Father, the Beloved. The Father certainly

⁸⁹ Those who perform rigorous physical exercises

⁹⁰ Daal mein kaalaa

doesn't have to remember you. The Father is everybody's Beloved. (Mu.02.03.71, pg.1,2) [Mu.28.03.01, middle of pg.2]

- You will also see the Father in the middle of the forehead itself. Baba is here as well as the brother (the soul of the corporeal one) is here. (Mu.14.04.68, end of pg.2)
- You can also remember [Me] by taking out some time from [your] business and so on. This is also a business for us, isn't it? Some also make excuses [at the office saying:] I have a severe headache. I take leave and go. [Then] go and remember Baba. This isn't a lie. You don't have to simply waste the entire day. (Mu.30.08.69, end of pg.2) [Mu.15.09.00, middle of pg.3]
- You don't have to sit to remember. (Mu.12.02.73, middle of pg.2) [Mu.22.12.00, end of pg.2]
- If you see something once, you remember it. So, can't you sit at home and remember Shivbaba? (Mu.12.02.73, middle of pg.2) [Mu.22.12.00, end of pg.2]
- The children ask, how should we remember the Unlimited Father? [Baba says,] arey, you do consider yourself a soul, don't you? The soul is such a small point, so, its Father will also be small to the same extent, won't it? He isn't reborn, you have this knowledge in the intellect. Why won't you remember the Father? (Mu.13.09.68, end of pg.3) [Mu.03.09.04, middle of pg.4]
- Remember the Father while standing, sitting [and] walking. Can't you remember the Father while bathing, while defecating? (Mu.07.04.69, end of pg.2) [Mu.14.02.04, beginning of pg.3]
- It isn't that the battery will be charged by coming and sitting here in the morning. No, in fact, the battery can be charged by being in remembrance while standing, sitting, walking and moving about. (Mu.12.04.68, end of the middle part of pg.1)
- The question, 'where should I remember and how should I remember' doesn't arise at all. You have to remember the Father through the intellect. No matter where the Father goes, you are certainly His children, aren't you? You have to remember the Unlimited Father. (Night class mu.20.07.68, end of the middle part of pg.2)
- The most important thing is to remember the Father very lovingly. Just like the children cling to their parents at once, the soul should cling to the Father at once through the connection of the intellect very lovingly. (Mu.19.02.68, beginning of pg.3) [Mu.22.02.99, middle of pg.3]
- You can remember [the Father] even when your eyes are open. [Going into] a trance isn't called yoga. [...] The remembrance should be according to the rules of the Father. (Mu.02.01.69, middle of pg.1)
- While stitching clothes, the connection of the intellect should be in the remembrance of the Father. (Mu.25.05.68, end of pg.4)
- The soul is Sita and He is Ram. So, there is a lot of fun in this part as well. [...] The soul has both sanskaars, sometimes it has played the part of a male and sometimes of a female, hasn't it? In the Confluence Age, there is fun in becoming a lover and remembering the Beloved, in becoming shakti and remembering the Almighty (sarvashaktivaan), in becoming Sita and remembering Ram. (A.V.08.10.81, middle of pg.30)
- Baba says, try and stay in remembrance continuously. It isn't that you have to go to the center and sit at one place. No, whatever time you get while walking and moving about, you have to remember the Father. (Mu.07.06.76, end of pg.2)
- You are a *karmayogi*⁹¹ as well. The Father has explained that you will be able to stay in this remembrance for eight hours in the end, not now. Now, keep implementing [it] starting from one moment, from half a moment. Baba's remembrance should become so firm that you never forget [Him]. Then you will naturally start flying. [...] Along with that, keep increasing the chart a little. Practice [this], then you will be habituated. (Mu.23.09.71, middle of pg.3) [Mu.27.10.96, end of pg.3]

LAKSHMI -NARAYAN

⁹¹ The one who stays in remembrance while performing actions

- First of all, Lakshmi-Narayan belonging to the Ancient Deity Religion will come [in the world] along with their subjects. Nobody else comes along with their subjects. As regards them, [first] one soul will come, then the second [and then] the third [soul] will come. Here, you all are becoming ready. (Mu.17.05.65, end of pg.1)
- When was there the rule of these Lakshmi-Narayan? Neither in the Iron Age nor in the Golden Age. Heaven is certainly established in the Confluence Age. The intellect of others doesn't think so much. People don't go into so much expansion. (Mu.16.11.71, beginning of pg.1)
- You know that now we are the children of God. Later, when we become divine children, [the number of our] degrees will be reduced. These (Lakshmi-Narayan) also have fewer degrees because they don't have knowledge. Brahmins have knowledge. What will a human being without knowledge be called? Ignorant. These (Lakshmi-Narayan) won't be called ignorant. They have achieved this status through knowledge itself. (Mu.04.06.67, end of pg.3)
- Some fools can't become the masters of the world. These Lakshmi-Narayan were the masters, weren't they? They were so intelligent, that is why they are worshipped in the path of bhakti as well. (Mu.27.05.68, beginning of pg.1)
- In the Golden Age, you will be foolish. These Lakshmi-Narayan don't have any knowledge. (Mu.17.04.71, end of pg.3)

- Lakshmi-Narayan are the first masters of the world. They too have to have 84 births. He is the highest new man in the human world. The new woman is also required along with the new man. (Mu.21.12.73, beginning of the middle part of pg.3)
- Shri Krishna is before Narayan, then why do you say, he (Brahma Baba) became Narayan from a man (nar)? Why don't you say that he became Krishna from a man? He won't become Narayan first. Firstly, he will certainly become prince Shri Krishna, won't he? [...] The Father says, now you (we children) are going to become Narayan from a man and Lakshmi from a woman. It is also said, 'a beggar to a prince'. (Mu.16.07.68, middle of pg.3) [Mu.17.07.74, middle pg.3]

- It has also been said that these Lakshmi-Narayan don't have this knowledge. There, we don't know about theist and atheist at all. (Mu.22.07.68, pg.2, 3)
- The Father explains that you have become so foolish. Now I make you intelligent. These (Lakshmi-Narayan) are intelligent, it is then that they are the masters of the world. - You have the part of hero-heroine in this drama. You become the masters of the world. (Mu.02.05.68, end of pg.2)
- These Lakshmi-Narayan are the two forms of Vishnu. In childhood, they are Radhe and Krishna. They aren't brother and sister, they were the children of different kings. She was a princess and he was a prince; after *swayamvar*⁹², they are called Lakshmi-Narayan. (Mu.03.09.70, pg.1, 2)
- There are temples of everyone [including] these Lakshmi-Narayan, Radhe-Krishna and so on. [...] There is the temple of Vishnu as well, which is called the temple of Nar-Narayan. And then there are separate temples of Lakshmi-Narayan as well. (Mu.03.09.70, beginning of pg.2)

For example, you leave the old body and take a new one, it won't be said that such and such person has died. No; this isn't called dying. - Bharat is the most beggar. Bharat is a jungle of thorns now. He is shown begging on a bed of thorns. So this one also begs [in front of] everyone. Bharat is in a bad condition. Bharat was completely solvent, now it is poor. (Mu.02.11.73, end of pg.3)
- You have to give this message to Bharat in particular and the world in general. (Mu.14.02.67, beginning of pg.1)
- Bharat itself becomes worship worthy and a worshipper, pure and impure. All the others are in the middle [stage]. [...] They sing: ‘the Purifier of the impure’, so certainly, they are impure, aren’t they? Bharat was pure, now it is impure. (Mu.07.09.73, beginning of the middle part of pg.3)
- The cycle of 84 [births] is also for Bharat. (Mu.28.07.73, end of pg.1)
- Baba comes from Paramdhaam (the Supreme Abode) in Bharat itself. That’s it; who will be called Bharat? [...] Bharat was very rich. Now it has become poor. That is why they give money to Bharat. The one who is poor is given donation. [...] The Father says, My part is to transform the poor Bharat into [a soul] like diamond. (Mu.02.09.73, end of pg.1)
- You can say that the entire story of the Ramayana is just applicable to Bharat. There is just a need of wisdom to explain. (Mu.12.01.75, end of pg.3)
- They have completely disgraced Bharat. [...] He had so many queens, he made them run away, he stole butter, he had so many children. Actually, all these are the stories of Prajapita Brahma. Instead of him, they have shown Krishna. (Mu.05.05.73, beginning to end of pg.1)
- I alone bring about the true liberation of Bharat in particular and everyone in general. (Mu.18.07.65, 13.07.72, end of pg.1)
- This Bharat is God’s birthplace, just like Abraham, Buddha etc. have their own birthplace. (Mu.16.09.73, end of pg.3)
- When Bharat fell, everyone fell. Bharat itself is responsible for its downfall and the downfall of others. (Mu.18.07.69, beginning of the middle part of pg.1) [Mu.24.08.00, middle of pg.1]
- *Shivjayanti*¹⁰⁸ as well as *Shivraatri*¹⁰⁹ are celebrated in Bharat. The Father certainly comes in the land of Bharat. Bharat alone is an imperishable land. Its glory is really great. Just like the Father’s glory is unlimited, the glory of Bharat is also unlimited. The Supreme Father Supreme Soul comes in Bharat itself and brings about the true liberation of every human being; He gives happiness to everyone. His birthplace is Bharat. [...] Bharat itself is the ancient country. God came in Bharat itself to teach Raja Yoga. (Mu.28.08.71, end of pg.2)
- This play is made on Bharat itself. [...] There are classes (varna) as well. Otherwise, how will there be the karmic accounts of 84 births? (Mu.20.03.72, middle of pg.2) [Mu.21.03.97, end of pg.2]
- Bharat was like a diamond; now it is like a *cowrie*¹¹⁰. Then, who will transform beggar Bharat into the one with a crown? (Mu.28.02.68, beginning of pg.3) [Mu.05.02.99, beginning of pg.3]
- In the very beginning, Bharat alone was the master of the entire world. [...] Certainly, the Creator of the world will make [you] such master of the world. (Mu.21.03.72, beginning of the middle part of pg.1)
- It is said for Bharat: ‘Bharat was a golden sparrow’. [...] Everyone knows that the ancient Bharat was very rich. Now it has become so poor. (Mu.17.11.76, beginning of pg.3) [Mu.20.11.96, middle of pg.3]

SHOOTING, RECORDING OR REHEARSAL OF THE WORLD CYCLE

- Why do you call this Confluence Age the Elevated Confluence Age and the best age? It is because the superiority of every kind of religion, kingdom, righteous *sanskaars*¹¹¹, righteous relationships and righteous qualities of the soul is recorded like a record now. You fill the soul with the sanskaars of both, the ascending celestial degrees and the descending celestial degrees of the 84 births at this time. The time for recording is going on now. [...] You, the ones who record the record in the unlimited, the ones who record the record for the entire cycle (kalpa), do you pay attention to all these topics all the time? (A.V.30.05.73, end of pg.77, beginning to end of pg.78)
- Mainly the time of recording the sanskaars is going on now. You are recording the sanskaars of every birth in the soul now. (A.V.09.05.77, beginning of the middle of pg.1)
- This rehearsal will continue. Until the capital has been established the war can't begin. (Mu.04.02.71, beginning of the middle part of pg.3)
- Every human being, everything has to pass through the *sato*¹¹², *rajo*¹¹³ and *tamo*¹¹⁴ [stages]. It definitely turns into old from new. In the case of clothes as well, we wear new clothes, later when it becomes old it will be said, - won't it? - first it was *satopradhaan*¹¹⁵; then it will definitely change to sato, rajo [and] tamo. You have received [this] knowledge. (Mu.13.06.76, end of pg.2)
- You children were so attracted [to the Father] there. How did everyone run away [from their home]? [...] All the souls of the entire world have to play [their] part. It is just like the shooting is performed afresh; but this eternal shooting is already done. (Mu.09.09.74, end of the middle part of pg.2, beginning of pg.3)
- In a way, the soul in this body is also a record in which the entire part of the 84 births is recorded. (Mu.08.02.71, beginning of the middle part of pg.1)
- The war will begin when you have attained the karmaatiit stage¹¹⁶ sooner or later (numbervaar) [according to your purushaarth]; until then the rehearsal will continue. (Mu.22.06.70, end of pg.3)
- Now you are the one belonging to the Elevated Confluence Age (Purushottam Sangamyugi). You should definitely write [the word] Purushottam Sangamyug (the Elevated Confluence Age). Since the children don't remember the points of knowledge, they forget to write such words. (Mu.24.09.69, beginning of pg.1)
- It is only at this time that you have a spiritual chit-chat. The Father comes in the Elevated Confluence Age itself and talks to the souls. (Night class mu.01.05.68, beginning of pg.2)
- Human beings were transformed into deities, so this is the Elevated Confluence Age. (Mu.25.05.69, beginning of pg.1)
- They have shown Krishna in the Copper Age. Now you do know this as well. (Mu.07.07.66, end of pg.1)
- Shivbaba also comes at dawn, doesn't He? It won't be called midnight. (Mu.20.03.69, end of the middle part of pg.2)
- The souls and the Supreme Soul remained separate for a long time. [...] You stay separate for the complete 5000 years. (Mu.22.07.68, beginning of pg.3) [Mu.03.07.04, end of the middle part of pg.3]
- You have to become complete with all the virtues, complete with 16 celestial degrees here. The rehearsal will take place here, then you have to play a practical part there. (Night class mu.23.12.58, end of pg.3)
- Everything is first satopradhaan, then it becomes *sato[saamaanya]*¹¹⁷, rajo [and] tamo. (Mu.19.08.67, middle of pg.2)

¹¹¹ A trait remaining in the soul as the result of deeds performed

¹¹² Same as satopradhaan

¹¹³ Dominated by the quality of activity or passion

¹¹⁴ Dominated by the quality of darkness and ignorance

¹¹⁵ Consisting in the quality of goodness and purity

¹¹⁶ Stage beyond karma

¹¹⁷ Where there is ordinary goodness and purity

- This rehearsal will continue until the entire army has attained the karmaatiit stage. (Mu.23.07.71, beginning of the middle part of pg.1)

THE DURATION OF THE CONFLUENCE AGE

- The Father says, as long as I am present, keep making purushaarth. For how many years will the Father stay? [...] He sits and explains for 40 years. (Mu.17.09.68, end of pg.1)
- You children know that this Elevated Confluence Age is of 50 years, [it is] small. (Mu.01.03.68, end of pg.2)
- It takes little time, 50-60 years to establish the complete capital. (Mu.26.07.65, beginning of pg.2, Mu.24.07.72, beginning of the middle part of pg.2)
- It takes the time of approximately 50 years in between the destruction of the Iron Age and the establishment of the Golden Age. The few ones who remain during this [time], again establish their capital afresh. (Mu.11.02.73, beginning of the middle part of pg.2)
- The Father comes in this Confluence Age, lives in these ones for 50-60 years and transforms them. (Mu.26.11.72, beginning of pg.3)
- If you recognize Baba, you will receive the inheritance of righteousness (shreshthaacaar). It takes 40-50 years to become righteous (shreshthaacaari). (Mu.11.09.73, end of pg.4)
- Whatever sins have been committed in 2500 years, you can burn them to ashes within 50 years and become satopradhaan. (Mu.12.03.68, end of the middle part of pg.2)
- The studies are for 50-60 years. Less than half the studies have been completed so far. (Mu.01.08.73, end of pg.2)
- The Father comes and transforms you, the ones with a stone like intellect into the ones with a *paaras*¹¹⁸ like intellect within 50 years. (Mu.03.06.68, middle of pg.2)
- If not 50, it takes at least 100 years. The upheaval is completed and then the kingdom begins. (Mu.25.09.71, middle of pg.1)
- Now it is the Confluence Age. It should be given 100 years. (Mu.05.11.71, middle of pg.3)
- No yagya continues for such a long time, 50 years. [...] This yagya of yours continues for 50 years. (Mu.11.05.73, middle of pg.2)
- The Father says, I come for 40-50 years. (Mu.09.04.73, end of pg.3)
- The Confluence Age isn't so big; it is of 50 years. (Mu.20.02.73, beginning of pg.2)
- Shivbaba teaches for 50-60 years in the Confluence Age itself. (Mu.02.03.68, beginning of pg.3)
- It takes 40-50 years to become satopradhaan from tamopradhaan. (Mu.06.10.74, end of pg.2)
- Just one course is very long; it continues for 40-50 years. (Mu.11.08.83, end of the middle part of pg.2)
- The Father comes and teaches you within 50-60 years. (Mu.08.09.68, beginning of the middle part of pg.3)
- You attain the stage of ascending celestial degrees within 50 years. (Mu.16.09.71, middle of pg.1)
- The fair of Kumbha is organized at the Confluence Age of the kalpa itself. That fair of Kumbha [in the outside world] is organized after [every] 12 years. This is a big fair of Kumbha, it is organized after 5000 years. It continues after 50 years and will certainly continue [in the future]. (Mu.01.10.71, middle of pg.2)
- Now it is the Elevated Confluence Age. It is very small. [The Father] makes a very good planning within 50-60 years. (Mu.21.04.69, end of pg.2)
- Now it is the Confluence Age. It should be given 100 years. (Mu.05.11.71, middle of pg.3)

THE GOLDEN AGE SHOOTING TILL 1976

- In the end of the Golden Age, [the population] would have increased from nine lakh (900 thousand) to two crores (20 millions). (Mu.22.03.71, end of pg.1) [Mu.22.03.76, end of pg.1]

¹¹⁸ A mythical stone believed to transform to gold anything that touches it

- Murlis are printed. In the future, it will be printed in the number of lakhs and crores. (Mu.22.06.68, end of pg.4)
- If someone listens to just two words from My mouth, he too will certainly go to heaven. In the future, many [souls] will listen. (Mu.02.03.68, beginning of pg.3)
- [The number of] your centres will increase to lakhs. (Mu.28.02.71, beginning of the middle part of pg.3)
- All the (10 crore) deities (devi-devtaayein) in the Golden and Silver Age will be made here in secret. (Mu.11.02.68, end of pg.1)
- There is a limit of 33 crores (330 million) deities in Bharat. (Mu.23.03.73, beginning of pg.2)
- It has also been explained that there are nine lakh [souls in the beginning]. Later, they will multiply and become one-two crores. (Mu.23.09.71, end of pg.2)
- In the beginning, there are nine-ten lakh [souls] on the entire earth there. (Mu.11.03.67, beginning of pg.3)
- Just like those exams are [conducted after] 12 months, aren't they? Here also it is the same. We studied for nine months [and] the remaining three months are for the establishment. (Mu.12.03.69, end of pg.1)
- The children know that the duration of the Elevated Confluence Age is very short. Eight years are left now out of the 40 years. [...] You have to become satopradhaan from tamopradhaan. 32 years have passed. This Elevated Confluence Age is very much like a diamond. It is most valuable. (Mu.18.09.68, beginning of pg.1)

SUBTLE ESTABLISHMENT AND DESTRUCTION IN THE BRAHMIN WORLD FROM 1977

- Now we, only we few ones will be left within a short period, within eight years. All these [other] religious lands and so on won't exist. We ourselves will be the masters of the world. (Mu.09.07.68, end of pg.1)
- One such day will also come when the world will become very empty. [...] Within two-four years, only Bharat will remain. (Mu.14.08.74, end of pg.3)
- Nine years from ten years [and] eight years from nine years are left. [...] Now the end of the Iron Age has arrived. [...] The drama has continued to rotate, so, it will certainly be repeated, won't it? (Mu.05.02.68, middle of pg.2)
- The entire task is to be performed within five years according to the drama plan. (Mu.03.02.71, beginning of pg.1)
- Eight years are left. It can be five too. There doesn't seem to be any chance to be more than eight [years] at all. (Mu.12.08.68, end of pg.1) [Mu.13.08.74, end of pg.1]
- Eight years are left. Don't think that it will extend to nine years from eight years. No, no; it will be [1-2 years less] all the more, but it won't be nine [years]. (Mu.07.11.68, end of the middle part of pg.3)
- Some also get a scholarship for two-three years, don't they? Those who work hard well will definitely take the scholarship. (Mu.17.01.70, end of the middle part of pg.2)
- Day by day those, who leave the body late certainly get a little time because the time left is one year. What will they be able to do after being born in it (that year)? (Mu.28.02.75, middle of pg.2)
- You say that there will be destruction after nine years. (Mu.24.11.67, beginning of pg.4)
- Eight years is not a big thing. The entire world is going to be destroyed. (Night class mu.13.09.68, beginning of the middle part of pg.1)

THERE IS BRAHMA'S DAY AND NIGHT IN THE CONFLUENCE AGE ITSELF

- Brahma's night is Saraswati's night and the night of the *Brahmavanshis*¹¹⁹ as well. Then, all the Brahmins become deities in the day. (Mu.29.07.64, end of pg.3)

¹¹⁹ The progeny of Brahma

- Truly, the Supreme Father Supreme Soul comes to transform the night of Brahma into the day of Brahma. (Mu.20.10.73, end of the middle part of pg.1)
- Prajapita Brahma *mukhvanshaavali*¹²⁰ were in extreme darkness. So certainly, Brahma will also be in extreme darkness. When Brahma mukhvanshaavali are in the day light, Brahma will also be in the day light. They do sing a lot. They wander a lot at distant places, on the mountains, at destinations, in temples, in mosques [in the search of God]. (Mu.10.10.73, beginning of pg.1)
- We have to say [so] in order to explain. As for the rest, there is no question of hatred in it. It has been mentioned in the scriptures too, Brahma's night means extreme darkness. (Mu.11.01.66, end of pg.1)
- There's a difference [like between] day and night between the Sadguru (the true Guru) and the guru. He (Sadguru) brings about the day of Brahma and they (the gurus) bring about the night [of Brahma]. [It is said:] the day of Brahma [and] the night of Brahma. So, it will certainly be said that Brahma is reborn. (Mu.28.02.68, beginning of the middle part of pg.1)
- When the night begins, temples are built first. (Mu.10.05.73, beginning of pg.3)
- Brahma's night certainly has to happen. It is the night of you Brahmins now. Baba has come in the extremely dark night. Only you know these topics. (Mu.22.08.73, beginning of pg.3)
- Shivbaba comes only when it is the night of Brahma. After the night, the day [begins], it means, the Golden Age begins when the Iron Age ends. (Mu.04.10.73, middle of pg.1) [Mu.05.10.78, middle of pg.1]
- The day and night of Brahma or you Brahmins, this itself is famous. It is you children who also have the knowledge of the day and the night. Lakshmi-Narayan don't have this knowledge. [...] Nobody has this knowledge in the Iron Age or the Golden Age. That is why it is said, the day of Brahma and the night of Brahma. (Mu.10.05.71, beginning of the middle part of pg.1)
- Now it is the night of Brahma, so, Brahma will certainly be in the night, won't he? Later, when he becomes Vishnu, it will be the day. (Mu.14.10.72, end of pg.3)
- Vishnu and Shankar won't be called impure. Brahma is impure; it is the night of Brahma, isn't it? The Father also comes in the night. Shivraatri (the night of Shiva) is the night of Brahma. (Mu.07.05.72, beginning of pg.2)
- This is the night of Brahma, when you suffer the misfortune of bhakti. [It is said:] we went around everywhere but always remained far away [from God]; we didn't find the Father who makes [us] the masters of heaven. (Mu.01.09.65, beginning of pg.3) [Mu.03.09.77, beginning of pg.3]
- Both, the day of Brahma and the night of Brahma are equal, aren't they? Then why have they made the duration of the day, the Golden Age so long and why have they made the night short? Both, the day of Brahma and the night of Brahma should be equal, shouldn't it? (Mu.17.09.72, middle of pg.3)
- It is said, the day of Prajapita Brahma, then it is the night, so certainly, both the subjects (prajaa) and Brahma will be together, won't they? You understand, we Brahmins ourselves experience happiness for half the cycle [and] then sorrow for half the cycle. This is something to understand through the intellect. (Mu.21.11.74, end of pg.2, beginning of pg.3)
- The Father has explained: it is day for half the cycle [and] night for half the cycle. This is also about the Brahmins. (Mu.02.12.71, middle of pg.3)
- It is the day of Brahma; you don't suffer misfortune during the day. You suffer misfortune in the dark night. [...] Well, why don't you say the night or day of Vishnu? [...] This is the unlimited day and night for Brahma and the Brahmakumar-kumaris. It won't be said the day and night of Shivbaba. (Mu.29.06.77, beginning of pg.2)
- Brahma's night is the night of Brahmins; the very meaning of Brahma's day is the day of Brahmins. [...] This is the unlimited night [and] the unlimited day. (Mu.25.08.68, end of pg.1) [Mu.17.08.99, beginning of pg.2]
- The day of Brahma and the night of Brahma are famous. It won't be called the day and night of the subtle world dweller Brahma. [...] The question of day and night is about here. The night of Brahma means [he is] impure, later on, when he himself becomes pure, it is the day. (Mu.25.09.73, end of pg.2) [Mu.14.09.88, end of pg.2]

¹²⁰ Progeny born from the mouth, meaning the knowledge

FOUR TIMES INCARNATION IN THE SHOOTING OF THE FOUR AGES

- Then they have said ‘yuge yuge¹²¹’ in the scriptures. He incarnates after every age. The Father explains: I don’t come in every age, but I come at the Elevated Confluence Age. (Mu.07.09.68, end of the middle part of pg.1) [Mu.14.09.74, end of the middle part of pg.1]
- They don’t even understand how the Father will come in every age and teach Raja Yoga. (Mu.27.05.68, end of the middle part of pg.1)
- According to the drama, the Father comes at the confluence of every cycle just like a cycle ago and teaches us. (Mu.07.01.67, middle of pg.1)
- It is not that I will incarnate again and again, and teach [you]. In fact, I come just once [and] after coming, I make [you into] the master with a great almighty authority. I come from the Supreme Abode at every Confluence Age of the cycle. (Mu.18.05.73, end of pg.2)
- It has also been explained that after the Golden Age there is the confluence of the Silver Age [and the Golden Age]. But in that case, the age changes and now here, the cycle changes. The Father doesn’t come in every age, just like the people think. The Father says, when everyone becomes tamopradhaan and the Iron Age ends, I come in the Confluence Age of that cycle. (Mu.12.05.73, middle of pg.1)
- The Father says, I come again at the Confluence Age of every cycle [and] will continue to come. I will teach you children [to attain] the share of the kingdom again. (Mu.17.02.72, end of the middle part of pg.2) [Mu.18.02.92, end of the middle part of pg.2]
- Such Baba comes just once at the Confluence Age of every cycle. (Mu.24.05.64, middle of pg.3)

EXACTLY THE SAME REPETITION IN THE SHOOTING OF ALL THE FOUR AGES (ONE CYCLE)

- Just like it was announced in the beginning [of the yagya]: ‘everyone has to come on the field at this moment’, it certainly has to repeat now as well, but in different forms. (A.V.20.12.69, middle of pg.156)
- You yourself came first of all. Now, it is you who are last as well. Then you yourself are going to become deities from human beings first of all. Only those belonging to the Deity Religion have 84 births. (Mu.16.07.73, end of the middle part of pg.2)
- In the future, you will come to know everything. [You will come to know] who become the beads of the Vijaymaalaa (the rosary of victory). In the end, the children will have many visions. In the beginning, they had few. (Mu.03.08.73, end of pg.4)
- Those who run away surprisingly won’t be able to see all this. You saw the past and you will also see whatever new happens. (Mu.17.09.73, end of pg.3)
- When there is commotion, you won’t be able to do anything through the physical body (saakaar shariir) and there will certainly be effect through this service (the service through the mind). Just like in the beginning also, it was through visions that there was an effect, wasn’t it? The direct and indirect experiences had an influence; similarly, the same service has to take place in the end too. (A.V.24.01.72, end of pg.1)
- Just like there was an example in the beginning. Everyone used to have touching (insights) in the intellect: ‘we are going to make some attainments. Let us go there and see’. And you ran away from various places and reached face to face to that form of attraction (aakarshanmuurt). This was a small example in the beginning, wasn’t it? But in the end, this spiritual service has to take place in a broad form, the service of spiritual subtle machinery that Bapdada is performing now in the subtle (avyakt) form. (A.V.04.08.72, middle of pg.3)
- Those who have been the companions [of the Father] in the form of Brahma from the beginning till the end, in every deed, in every act, at the time of every service, they will be [His] companions in the future too. (A.V.27.10.81, end of pg.2)

¹²¹ [God incarnates] in every age

- The *Arya samajis*¹²² got a picture of [someone] hugging [Baba] in their hands and created so much commotion. This is also preordained. It will happen the same way again. (Mu.25.06.66, 25.06.71, end of pg.3)
- Did I make anyone run away? I didn't tell anyone to run away [from their homes] and come [here]. I was there [in Karachi]. These ones ran away and came by themselves. [...] A human being can't do all these things. That too, in the rule of the British Government, so many [maidens and mothers] sit near someone [and] nobody could do anything! If any [of their] relatives came, they used to simply chase them away. Baba used to tell [the relatives]: You may convince these ones (maidens and mothers) and take them [with you]. I don't forbid them. But nobody had the courage. It was the power of the Father, wasn't it? Nothing new. All this will happen again. (Mu.22.04.70, end of pg.2) [Mu.22.04.75, end of pg.2]
- Just like in the beginning, people used to see [Baba] while walking and moving around. [...] It isn't about going into a trance and seeing. Just like you experienced [the company of] the corporeal father in the beginning, now, in the end, you will have visions of everything. This ordinary form will disappear. [...] Just like in the beginning, you had visions of both, the subtle Brahma and Shri Krishna together, now also, this ordinary form shouldn't be visible despite seeing it. (A.V.10.12.78, beginning of pg.117)
- Just like in the beginning of the establishment, there was especially the play of dreams and visions, in the end also, this very strange play will become an instrument in the revelation. The sound of "it is this one, it is this one" will echo everywhere and this sound will be the instrument of the excellence of the fortune of many [souls]. (A.V.31.12.82, middle of pg.22)
- In the beginning, it was published in the newspapers: "Om Mandali is the richest in the world". So, this very thing will come out of everyone's mouth in the end. (A.V.13.09.74, middle of pg.125)
- Now create such an atmosphere that acts like a magnet. [These words] should spread everywhere: if you want peace, happiness or love, you can find them here. [...] Just like in the beginning of the establishment, if anyone came to the spiritual gathering (satsang) even for one day, they used to experience something or other on the very first day before going. Whatever happened in the beginning has to happen in an extensive form in the end. Create such an atmosphere. (A.V.19.11.79, end of pg.32, beginning of pg.33)
- We can even call the soul of Shri Krishna. It will come and play. The child will ask to be taken on the lap, he will dance¹²³ and what else will he do? Gops and gopis (cowherds and herd girls) certainly exist here itself. There, the prince and princess meet each other and then they dance; they play the golden flute. You will see all these plays. [...] All these roles will be played again in the end. (Mu.07.09.71, end of pg.3)
- Just like you saw the play of the corporeal one in the beginning, it will happen the same way in the end as well. The only addition now is that you will also have the vision of the *Shiva Shakti*¹²⁴ form. However, Brahma himself is the corporeal father, isn't he? So the children who have come in the corporeal form will see the Father and definitely experience [His company]. (A.V.18.01.82, beginning of pg.256)
- The sample that was in the beginning will be in the practical form in the end. You will have the visions of the accomplishment of the thoughts. (A.V.22.11.72, middle of pg.376)
- The drama that has been shot from the beginning till now is to be repeated again. (Mu.03.01.74, beginning of the middle part of pg.1)
- You will see the same shooting that has been performed once. (Mu.28.02.68, end of the middle part of pg.3)

¹²² Those belonging to the Arya Samaj

¹²³ Raas: the round-dance of Krishna with the herd girls of Braj

¹²⁴ The consort of Shiva

MISCELLANEOUS POINTS OF THE WORLD DRAMA WHEEL

- Everyone keeps coming. Not a single one has to go away in between. Everyone certainly has to go together, though the world doesn't remain empty. [...] When those belonging to the community of Ravan go away, they don't come back. As for the rest, these ones remain. (Mu.16.04.68, end of pg.2)
- There are wonderful roles [played] in the end of the drama, aren't there? [...] Those who don't have knowledge, they will faint there itself. (Mu.30.05.72, end of pg.3)
- Baba will certainly take the names of the main, the great ones, won't He? Lakshmi-Narayan, Ram-Sita, the people of Islam, the Buddhists, everyone is worth not a penny. (Mu.18.02.73, beginning of pg.3)
- Now you children have come to know everything through the Father. The other human beings don't know how the world cycle rotates, when it begins [and] when it ends. Only you children know this to a greater or a lesser extent (number vaar). (Mu.18.02.73, beginning of pg.1)
- When you are totally eclipsed by [the eclipse] of attaining complete degradation, the Father comes to make you complete with 16 celestial degrees again. The eclipse is removed with the help of the *svadarshan cakra*¹²⁵. (Mu.25.11.72, end of pg.2)
- This birth is still good, but the previous birth should have been like Ajamil¹²⁶. The Father says, I enter an impure world, an impure body that has become tamopradhaan after enjoying the complete 84 births. Though he is born in a good family now, because he still has to become [Shiv]baba's chariot. (Mu.05.04.72, beginning of pg.2)
- If you aren't *cakradhaari*¹²⁷, you aren't *chatradhaari*¹²⁸ either. [.:.] A cakradhaari will always be free from the various kinds of whirlpools of Maya. (A.V.18.09.75, beginning of pg.1)
- Those who aren't in the Confluence Age just continue to become tamopradhaan day by day. On this side, the *tamopradhaanataa*¹²⁹ increases gradually [and] on that side your Confluence Age is completed gradually. Those are the topics to understand, aren't they? (Mu.14.04.67, end of the middle part of pg.1) [Mu.15.04.75, end of the middle part of pg.1]
- Now it is the mortal world (mrityulok). This mortal world will end [and] then the Golden Age will definitely come. This cycle will continue to rotate. (Mu.12.08.73, beginning of the middle part of pg.4) [Mu.05.05.78, end of pg.3]
- Despite being actors who play a part, if they don't know the Creator, the Director and the beginning, middle and end of the drama, they are first class human idiots. There is no harm in writing this. (Mu.03.02.71, end of pg.3) [Mu.14.08.76, middle of pg.3]
- There is the purushottam (elevated) year, the purushottam month as well as the purushottam day in this very Purushottam Confluence [Age]. The purushottam moment of becoming *purushottam*¹³⁰ is also [preordained] in this Purushottam Confluence Age. This is a very small leap age. (Mu.04.05.74, middle of pg.2) [Mu.08.04.89, beginning of pg.2]
- There is a secret behind this extra time as well. Those coming late shouldn't complain that they received much less time. Just like an extra [time of] grace (opportunity) is given in a deal, you have also received this time in the form of a deposit (amaanat) according to the drama for the sake of service. (A.V.16.01.79, beginning of pg.221)
- This is your Elevated Confluence Age. This age is very small. The Father comes in this very [age] to teach you. The study begins as soon as He comes. (Mu.08.03.69, beginning of pg.1) [Mu.08.01.04, middle of pg.2]
