Dated 11.08.18, Clarification of Murli dated 25.08.67

The morning class dated 25.08.1967 was being discussed on Friday, in the beginning of the sixth page. It was said: You have given the message. You have given the message all around. You have given this message to everyone: Now, remember the Father. Death has arrived. By remembering the Father, your wrong actions will be destroyed. It is because you will become like the One you remember, won't you? The Supreme Soul Father has come. He never performs any wrong actions. He is certainly Trikaaldarshi<sup>1</sup>. How can someone Trikaaldarshi perform wrong actions? And how will He perform at all? In fact He is Abhogta. Because of being Abhogta, He doesn't have a physical birth. He is never born through the womb. He enters and plays His role.

There is no question of doing wrong actions at all. If you remember such Father, only then will your wrong actions be destroyed. Or else you can say: The Supreme Soul alone will be called the Purifier of the sinful. The Father alone will be called that. Who is the Purifier of the sinful? What name was mentioned? It was said, 'the Father'; wasn't it said, 'the Supreme Soul'? (Student commented.) Was it said Shivbaba? Now, the name of Shivbaba wasn't mentioned at all. The wrong actions will be destroyed. Or else, the Supreme Soul alone will be called the Purifier of the sinful. The word Parmaatma (Supreme Soul) definitely comes after Parampita (Supreme Father). First is the Supreme Father, later is the Supreme Soul. It is never said, the Supreme Soul Supreme Father. Just like, it is never said Shankar Shiva, it will always be said: Shiva Shankar. It means, the One who is pure has to be placed before, hasn't He? It will be said, Lakshmi-Narayan. So who is pure first? Is Lakshmi pure or is Narayan pure first? First, Lakshmi is pure. They will say, Sita-Ram. Is Sita pure first or is Ram pure first? Sita is pure first. But when they say, 'Shankar-Parvati', they keep Shankar, the male ahead and they keep Parvati behind. Why is it so? It is because, Shankar is next to God. No one else is called that. It won't be said Shiva Krishna. Will it be said so? It won't be said Shiva Sita, it won't be said Shiva Lakshmi, it won't be said Shiva Brahma, it won't be said Shiva Vishnu. What is said? Shiva Shankar Bholenath. This proves that after the Supreme Father, Supreme God the Father, it is the supreme soul himself who is the purifier of the sinful. It is because, the Father Shiva enters him. The colour of the company is applied through the body. If there is no body, how will he be coloured? He won't be coloured.

So, God the Father has come. He says: Remember Me, then your wrong actions will be destroyed. So, this fact should reach everyone's ears, shouldn't it? Otherwise, you also have a story. Someone narrated [something] to everyone, he didn't narrate it to one [person]. Then, that one came and complained: I didn't come to know anything at all. So, this is also an example. There is something [similar to it here]; the Father sits and explains it. This is why, even if the war starts now... alright, they even take two - four bombs. If someone takes them up from below, why will he take them? He will take them up, to drop them, won't he? Still, what is your faith? What does your belief say? What does your belief say? "The Father will protect us!" Arey! Those whose wrong actions are destroyed, He will protect them anyway. Your faith says: Though two to four bombs fall on a city, still you have the faith that it will cool down. It was said that this rehearsal will keep going on, wasn't it? Arey! Our kingship hasn't been established yet. Our capital isn't established, right? Until your capital is established, the last destruction can't take place. This is why, the destruction in the world for peace won't happen like this. How will it happen? How will it happen? First your kingdom will be established, in it there will be complete peace, there won't be any restlessness.

Your kingdom will be full of happiness and peace. So you can write, 'when was there peace in the world?' There was peace 5000 years ago, wasn't it? When is peace in the world? When there is the last war, the World War. So, war in the world means, if the world itself ends, there will be peace and only peace. It is because all the human beings who spread restlessness in the world will kill each other. So this itself is called the world war. The World War.

Baba will also tell you, won't He? You are... This is a university. Why? All of them won't be called university. Why? It is because, the entire world won't be taught through them. Is there any school in the world that writes, vishvavidyalaya, university, that teaches the entire world? This is the Ishvariya (of God) University, it guarantees that the entire world will come and learn from God; and after studying, they will take the inheritance of liberation and liberation in life. So, you give knowledge to the entire world. In those universities, only those who have learned to some extent, who have studied the basic knowledge, who have passed the junior high school or who have passed the high school will be enrolled. Will the entire world be enrolled? No. So how is it a university? They lie by saying university. They say, 'Yours isn't a university (vishvavidyalay), stop writing vishva. Ours is a university.' Alright, yours is a university. What authority do you have to tell others whether they should write university or not?' They say, 'We have the UGC.' What is this UGC? Grants Commission. University Grants Commission. 'Arey! You don't have such university, such school at all. There is no such university in the world that gives knowledge to the entire universe. How can you give a grant to the whole universe? And the Ishvariya Vishvavidyalay whom you are prohibiting [to write university saying:] "It doesn't have any rights to write university", first of all, it doesn't ask for grants from you. Does it take grants from you? Then why are you boasting?' There is no other university at all, although they write the name. There are many who keep saying: universe, universe, universe. Arey! The entire world is a universe, isn't it? Which university is giving the knowledge of the world to the entire world? And it guarantees that it will give this knowledge to the entire world. And the entire world will have to take the knowledge of God.

Only the Father comes and transforms the entire world. The entire world has become hell, the Abode of Sorrow. He comes and makes the Abode of Sorrow into the Abode of Happiness. So He transforms, doesn't He? He transforms the age of distress and despair, the age of fighting and quarrelling into the age of truth. As for the rest (of the so-called universities), there can't be anything like this at all, that someone uses the name of the universe. Even if they adopt the name, no one knows the universe at all. When they don't know the universe, why do they keep the name university? They don't even know what the age of the universe is. So look, they don't know anything at all. Arey, do they know what the age of the universe is? No one knows it. No university in the world knows about it. They keep shouting universe, universe, universe. Daughter, does anyone know about it? No. So, the children came to know what the age of the universe is. You came to know, didn't you? You can know the age of the universe.

When was hell created? The human being makes hell, so it was named hell. Nara ka, ka means to perform, nar means man, human beings. So, when did the world become so hellish that sorrow began? It is said that the history of human beings is of 2500 years. The human beings have created it. Abraham, Buddha, Christ, everyone comes in that history of 2500 years. All those belonging to the other religions come in it. No one knows about the Ancient Religion of India, older than 2500 years. It is because, the one true Father establishes that true Ancient Religion after coming. The one Sadguru teaches the entire world. What study does He teach? He transforms the world of hell into heaven. He makes the world of sorrow into the Abode of Happiness and that Abode of Happiness continues for 2500 years. There in that world, there is no need for anyone to suffer blows by going to mosques, temples, churches and gurudwaras, pilgrimages, mountains. They suffer so many blows. They go to the Kaba. So, this is the world of sorrow, where they suffer blows. This is called the night of Brahma in the scriptures. They suffer blows at night, don't they? The path isn't visible either, where they have to go. There is no one who can take them along either. So, for 2500 years, there is day in the world, the day of happiness. What? The world which saves you from suffering blows. There won't be any sufferings of blows. There, the deities reside. It is the world of deities. There is also the praise... who made human beings, a man into Narayan? Narayan means a deity who is 16 celestial degrees complete. Who made him so? They say: God made him so.

So, God comes and makes man like Narayan. They, the foreign religious people have given the name Aadam to the man [God] made No.1 Narayan. The Christians named him Adam. But they don't know that Adam, Aadam... they do believe that he was in heaven first, but, who made him reach heaven? Aadam, from whom the human beings (admi) were born, whose children are the human beings of today? They say, 'They are the children of Aadam'. Baba Aadam. They named the oldest person Aadam. So, they say, Aadam-Havva, Aadam-Bivi, God shoved them from paradise. [He said:] I gave you an instruction, "Don't eat the fruit in the middle of the body. And you ate it? Now fall." They make such stories, but it doesn't come in their intellect, who makes Aadam fall from heaven and who makes him reach heaven. Certainly, Aadam must have given orders after coming, he must have given shrimat, mustn't he? Aadam himself comes and gives elevated directions, doesn't he? Aadam himself comes and makes the constitution for life, doesn't he? So it is the highest constitution. Its name is the Shrimad Bhagvad Gita. But even in the Bhagvad Gita, the name of the child Krishna was inserted. Visit any temple of Krishna, is the child Krishna worshipped or is the adult Krishna worshipped? The small child is worshipped. This proves that the worship worthy Krishna, who is a deity, is the childhood Krishna. That child Krishna is worshipped. Why isn't the adult Krishna worshipped? Does he die in his very childhood? No. He grows up but when he grows up, he becomes bhogi<sup>2</sup>. What? After becoming a bhogi, he won't be called a yogi. In fact, God comes and teaches Raja Yoga. Will anyone become a bhogi through Raja Yoga? They become yogi. And with whom do they have yoga? They have yoga with the One Supreme Father Supreme Soul. Just like the Supreme Father Supreme Soul is pure, similarly, the ones who have yoga [with Him] also become pure. So, when they become pure, they enjoy happiness for 2500 years. When they become impure, when they eat the fruit in the middle of the body, when become impure, then what happens? They fall in hell. They fall in the Abode of Sorrow.

So now, no one in the world can raise the question, what the age of the world is. The age of the world is twice [the age] the human beings know, that is mentioned in history. This is the world of 2500 years made by human beings. Na ra ka, nar ka. The world created by man (nar), that hell is of 2500 years. And it is God the Father who makes a man into Narayan, a deity. So, Supreme God the Father also creates the world of happiness for 2500 years. This is something to understand, what a human being does and what God does, isn't it? So, anyone can understand, yes, day and night are certainly equal.

It is also said in the scriptures: Brahma's day and Brahma's night. Brahma himself created the entire world. Brahma created the world of happiness as well as the world of sorrow. Brahma created heaven as well as hell. Brahma created deities as well as demons. Brahma created sages and saints too. It is said for Brahma, isn't it? Then, this is also said: Brahma's day and Brahma's night. But they don't understand what the age of the world is. No one knows it at all. Now, they say: the age of the world... They say: now, the age of the world... 40 thousand years are left for the Iron Age. It means, they mention the age of the Iron Age.

Arey! Is there only one scene in a drama? When a drama or a play is enacted, there are three to four scenes in it, aren't there? As a matter of fact, all the things in the world pass through four stages: satopradhaan, satosaamanya, rajo and tamo. Similarly, this world too passes through four stages. The Golden Age is called satvapradhaan (satopradhaan), the Silver Age is [called] satvasaaman (satosaamanya). When two religions begin, when the religions founded by human beings begin, when two kingdoms are established, when two languages begin, when two clans and dynasties begin, it is called the dualistic Copper Age world. In such a world of the dualistic Copper Age, the seed of fight and quarrel will certainly be sown. If there are two opinions, they will clash with each other.

In fact the Father says: Although there is a difference of opinions (matbhed), as every soul's sanskaars (personality traits) are different but there shouldn't be disharmony (manbhed) . Why? It is because souls are brothers for each other. But they don't consider themselves to be souls at all. They are very expert in fighting: Stop writing the name Vishvavidyalay. Those who give a lot of money can continue [writing it]. What? Brahmakumaris Ishvariya Vishvavidyalay should continue. And where God Himself has come and is establishing the true Ishvariya Vishvavidyalay, who gives order through the mouth of Brahma, sitting in Mount Abu: "Write the name 'Adhyatmik Vishvavidyalay'. Remove that previous word 'Prajapita Brahmakumaris'." It is the direction of Brahma himself, the direction of the Vedvani, they disobey it.

Look! They don't know anything about the age of the world, what it would be including the age of the Golden Age, whether they are the deities of the Golden Age, the Kshatriya (warriors) of the Silver Age, the Vaishya of the vicious world, the Copper Age world or those from the Iron Age who create disputes and distress – what? – the Shudra . So, it is Brahma who is the creator of all of them, isn't it? But they say the age to be of lakhs of years. It is written in the scriptures, isn't it? So, they believe in the topics of the scriptures. Arey, it is the human beings who wrote the scriptures, isn't it? God certainly didn't write any scripture. Does any religious father come and write [something]? Does he write any religious book? Arey! They narrate it orally. Similarly, God too comes; He doesn't have His own body. He doesn't have to be born through the womb at all. His soul is devoid of sin forever, He is indeed called Sadaa Shiva (forever benevolent). So, because of being Ajanma<sup>3</sup> He enters [someone]. In whom does He enter? The names Arjun, Aadam and Aadidev are given.

So, the Father says, “The topic of lakhs of years, which is mentioned in the scriptures; they are totally in the dark [to mention this]. They are in the darkness of ignorance.” Now you children know that this world, this world of falsity is to be certainly destroyed. Everything they do, they keep doing false things. And it is true that the age of the world is 2500 years. It is the world created by human beings. A man, a human being is called nar. The world of 2500 years is created by human beings, no matter how great those human gurus are, whether they are Abraham, Buddha [or] Christ. And the world God creates is the world of 2500 years, the world of heaven. That is called the Abode of Happiness and this world which is created by human beings is called the Abode of Sorrow. And when this Abode of Sorrow is set on fire, when the entire world burns violently, then that’s it, there will be peace in the entire world. So, there are three abodes. That is why He is called Trilokinath<sup>4</sup>. What? The Abode of Happiness, the Abode of Peace and the Abode of Sorrow. Om Shanti.
