Topic - Capability is unerring

In the path of bhakti, Tulsidas has written one quadruplet in Ramayana, 'Samrath ko nahi dosh gusaai, ravi paavak jal sam ki naahi'. [It means,] just like there is the sun. No matter how much dirt has spread in the whole world, the sun dries up all the dirt. Nobody considers it to be at fault as it eats up dirt, it dries it up. [As for] fire, it is capable. It burns all the garbage. It reduces it to ashes. So, they can't be equaled [by anyone].
