Topic - Know the pure basic knowledge

What is the basic [knowledge]? What is the pure basic [knowledge]? The pure basic knowledge is the murli. If only the points of the murli are narrated, if no other opinion of the self or of the human beings are mixed in it, will it be called the advance [knowledge] or will it be called non-advance [i.e.] the basic [knowledge]? It will certainly be called the advance [knowledge]. The bodily religious gurus have mixed their opinions in the concepts of the murli. We started calling it the basic [knowledge]. In reality, the true basic [knowledge] is the knowledge of the murlis. Whatever has been said through Brahma's mouth in the murlis that itself is the basic [knowledge], that itself is sattvik, that itself is the Vedvani.
