

Short No. 10

Topic - How to recognize God?

Here, murlis are our walking stick. What is it? If you have love for the murlis, [it proves that] you have love for Murlidhar (the One who narrates the murlis) [as well]. So, Murlidhar, Shiva comes to this world in the form of the mother first. That mother is our murlis. By reading those murlis, we come to know – after doing the course, after doing the seven days bhatti – what the real form of God is. If the rest of the world wants to know just like that [thinking:] ‘let’s see who God is. This is God?!’ Nothing will sit in their intellect. No one can recognize God. God won’t announce ‘I am God’ when He comes to this world.
