Topic - What is the best action?

The best action is... (Students reply.) It won't suffice if you just give the introduction. How many will you give the introduction to? So many years have passed since you have been giving introduction, so many speeches have been delivered, so many conferences have been organized, so many fairs etc. have been organized, so many project [shows] and exhibitions have been organized, was the Father revealed? He wasn't. To reveal the Father on the Father's directions. We children keep following His directions as He keeps giving them. You attain fruits for many births by learning good actions. So, the best action is... What? To give the introduction of the Father and to reveal Him. There is no action better than it.
