Topic - There is benefit only in the remembrance of the One

What will happen if you sit in remembrance? If you sit in the remembrance of the One, there will be one [kind of] vibrations. There will be one opinion. If there is one opinion, everyone will speak only one language. They won't speak two [different] things. There won't be duality in opinions at all. When there isn't duality in opinions, there is no question of fights and quarrels at all.
