Topic - When will someone be called pure?

So, all the ten indriyaan, whether they are the gyaanendriyaan or the karmendriyaan, if they become practiced in stabilizing in Baba's remembrance to such an extent... To what extent should they be practiced? They should just see the Father through the mind and intellect. If someone else comes close to us, if he comes in contact with us [or] even if he comes in relationship with us, our indriyaan shouldn't feel him. Why shouldn't they feel him? It is because the mind is engaged in the Father's remembrance. If we control our mind to such an extent, it will be said that we are pure. If our mind isn't under control, if it becomes engrossed in the pleasures of those indriyaan, if it gets attracted towards them, it means our soul is impure.
