Topic - Which children reveal the Father?

Those children who are serving the yagya from the beginning till the end, who are serving it even now by sacrificing their every bone, they will reveal God. Which service? They don't do service based on their own opinion, they don't do service by following the opinion of the human beings. They are the children who do service based on what is said in the murli. First, they show up in the form of the eight deities. And it is those children who reveal the Father.
