Topic - God doesn't teach bhakti, He gives knowledge

God comes and establishes the household path. He doesn't teach to separate females and males like the Sanyasis do. He teaches to control the organs. The sanyasis are in fact cowards. They leave their household and go because they can't stay pure while living together. God doesn't teach Sanyasyog when He comes. He doesn't teach devotion either. There is blind faith in devotion; it is taught by the human gurus. God comes and gives knowledge. And it is also written in the scriptures ritey gyanan na mukti. Without knowledge there is no liberation. God comes and gives that knowledge. Knowledge means information.
