Topic - Which is the language of God?

As such there are scores of languages in India but which language is spoken the most by the common public in the land of India? Which is the language? It is Hindi. So, God will come and speak in the Hindi language, the language of the commoners, isn't it? Hindi is such a language, the language of God, it has a proof - the language in which God will come and speak, it will be the simplest of all; it will be easy to write it, it will be easy to read it, it will be easy to listen and even to speak it. And it will be easy to understand it as well. Particularly, that can be the language of God.
