Topic - Secret behind the beads of rudraksh having mouth

Rudraksh means the eyes of Rudra. There are mouths made on the rudraksh. Some have one mouth, some have four mouths, some have ten, some have fourteen. Those beads of rudraksh are the yaadgaar of taking their mouth. So, the children whose mouth God has used for doing Ishwariya service... just as Baba says: if a child is foolish, the one who explains is foolish and the one who understands is sharp but the one who explains has shown courage to explain. So, I help him in return of that courage. The Father enters him and gives the power of drishti, of speech, of vibrations and benefits the soul whom he gave knowledge. His intellect changes. So, it is as if that bead of rudraksh came in the intellect. The one who listens has an imprint of him in his intellect. Whose? The one who narrates. So, it is about rudraksh.
