Topic - The utmost merciful

If someone who went astray in the morning comes on the (right) track, comes home in the evening and makes intense purusharth to please the family members, the mother and father, he won't be said to have gone astray. God, the Father is very merciful, blissful. Those so-called Brahmins may or may not forgive... mostly, they don't forgive. However, the Father is very merciful.
