Topic - The Father of even the religious fathers – Incorporeal Shiva

All those who are the highest, who are considered the greatest in the entire world, He is even their Father. Whom do the Christians believe to be great? The Christians believe Christ to be great. The Buddhists believe Mahatma Buddha to be great. The Muslims believe Mohammed to be great. But there is someone greater than even those religious fathers, towards whom the religious fathers used to point. They didn't use to call themselves God the Father. But they think, He is incorporeal, meaning a point (bindu). But it is not so.
