Topic - Only the purushaarth [made] at amritvela will enable you pass the examinations

The world will transform through [the power of] the mind. It will transform through vibrations. And to transform your vibrations, it is very essential that your mind is focused. Will [the mind] be focused, be strong at noon, in the evening, night or at amritvela? Try it out. It has also been tried and tested many a times. The day when your amritvela is very good, the soul conscious stage is firm, you feel light throughout the day. Why? (Student: foundation...) It is because the foundation was laid very well. No matter how many examinations you come across throughout the day but amidst all of them, you feel as if you are flying high and all the circumstances and situations below seem small.
