

INTRODUCTION OF THE CREATOR OF ADHYATMIK VISHWAVIDYALAYA

1. I and you, every human being isn't [just] a perishable body.
2. We all are imperishable souls in the form of points of light along with the mind and intellect who are sitting in our own filled up bhrikuti (place between the two eyebrows). It is because a person dies immediately only when he is shot in the bhrikuti and bindi (a dot) which is the remembrance of a soul, is also applied in the very bhrikuti.
3. The Supreme Father Shiva, the Father of the subtle point of light souls is also an extremely subtle point of light in the form of a brilliant atom.
4. A unique Actor among all the souls, the Supreme Father Shiva alone is beyond the cycle of birth and death. For this very reason He is bodiless, incorporeal and because of being Trikaaldarshi (the One who knows the three aspects of time), it is said [for Him]: 'there is one God', 'truth is God'. That very 'Satyam Shivam Sundaram (true, beneficial, beautiful)' brings about the establishment of the divine kingdom in the imperishable religious land of Bharat with the heavenly, true, Ancient [Deity] Religion of the beginning of the world [i.e.] the Golden Age and makes us renounce 'all the religions' of various perishable religious lands or the lands of falsity in the Iron Age.
5. For the accomplishment of both these great tasks of establishment and destruction, according to the word 'praveshtum (I am capable to enter)' in the Gita, the Incorporeal Shiva, God the Father enters the chariot like body of the first father (Aadipita), the first deity (Aadidev) named Shankar or Aadam or Arjun or Adam or Aadinath of the Jains [i.e.] the most famous seed form in all the religions of the human world tree. And through him, He does narrate the true knowledge of the Gita orally like the other bodily religious fathers, but He doesn't write any religious scripture.
6. Through this very true knowledge of the Gita the most famous 'Third World War' of the massive (mahaabhaari) Mahabharata in the form of a massive revolution of knowledge is brought about in the entire world. This war isn't brought about through the information [given] by the deity Krishna complete with 16 celestial degrees, who is worshipped in the form of [the one with] a child (like intellect) as a remembrance in the temples even today. In fact, he is worshipped in the temples as a completely vice less child. It is the incorporeal God Shiva Himself, who makes human beings into deities. He is praised as kalaatiit (the One who is beyond the celestial degrees) and kalpaantakaari (the One who brings an end to the kalpa (cycle)). Just after a short time of the 'Third World War' of Mahabharata, all the perishable religious lands like Russia, China, America, Europe and so on are destroyed in the last, the Fourth World War through the pestles in the form of missiles that emerged from the stomach like intellect of the European Yadavas (the descendants of Yadu, the ones belonging to the dynasty of Vrishni) in the form of Russians and Americans. Only the imperishable religious land of Bharat remains. It is the pure land of Bharat on the Earth (farsh) where the Incorporeal God the Father Shiva Himself comes with the name Khuda (God) from the Supreme Abode or the Soul World or the Seventh sky (arsh) before the very destruction and establishes paradise or jannat or heaven (svarg) through the chariot like body of Arjun, Adam or Aadam, the one being in whom He is present (ekvyaapi). All the other religious fathers are selfish (svaarathi=sva+rathi) because of having their own chariot like body. It is God Shiva alone who creates heaven because of always being stabilized in the stage of the self of the point of light soul. Everyone else, the men (nar) just create hell (narak).
7. Krishna didn't bring about the Mahabharata war in the end of the Copper Age and establish the sinful Iron Age. 'Kalaatiit kalyaan kalpaantakaari (the One who is beyond the celestial degrees, benevolent and the One who brings an end to the kalpa)', har-har, bam-bam Mahadev Shiva-Shankar Himself is praised as the only title holder who brings about the Third World War especially in Bharat and the Fourth World War of missiles or bombs among the European Yadavas.
8. A clear direction given through the mouth of Brahma with four gathered heads to change the name 'Prajapita Brahmakumari Ishwariya Vishwavidyalaya' to 'Adhyatmik Ishwariya Vishwavidyalaya' in the end of pg.4 of the murli dated 20.03.74, narrated by Shivraba at Mount Abu is as follows: "God the Father is called Spiritual, Knowledge full. So, you will write the name 'Spiritual University'. Nobody will object to this; then you will remove those words (P.B.K.) from the board as well and write this 'Spiritual University'. Try and see; write: 'God Fatherly Spiritual University'. This is their aim and objective. There will also be changes in your museum, pictures and so on day by day. Then you will have to write on all the centers: 'God Fatherly Spiritual University'.
