Clarification of Night class 28.07.1968

Om Shanti. Today it is the night class of 28th July, 1968. Actually, this is the mantra of the Unlimited Father. What? 'Om Shanti.' However, no one knows that He comes and gives the mantra. If gurus give mantras, [their followers] say: we have been prohibited to tell it [to others]. From where did the custom of having a guru come into existence? In reality, whatever custom is followed in the path of bhakti is of this time. This one is your Father, Teacher as well as Guru and here, He also gives you the vashiikaran mantra<sup>1</sup> to gain victory over Maya. What is that vashiikaran mantra? 'Manmanabhav', merge in My mind. It means, the stream of thoughts flowing in Me should flow in you as well. This is the mantra to gain victory over Maya. You should understand the meaning of the mantra, shouldn't you? They (the gurus) give mantra but it doesn't mean anything at all. And the Father comes and gives you the vashiikaran mantra through which you gain victory over the five vices. This vashiikaran mantra is for controlling the mind. It is also said: we conquer the world by conquering the mind. This is the mantra to gain victory over Ravan. The mind is inconstant, isn't it? When the mind is inconstant, you are called the children of Manu i.e. manushya (human beings). When you control the mind, when you gain victory over it, it means that you gain victory over Maya. Then, it is as if you certainly became victorious over the world.

Now, the Father says, 'Remember Me alone'. I too am a soul in the form of the mind and intellect. If you remember Me alone, you will merge in the thoughts of the One. So look, the Father will give you the mantra only when He comes, won't He? He is the Father, the Teacher as well as the Sadguru. All the three are the same, it means, the personality is one. You also explain in exhibitions: our Father, Teacher and Sadguru is the same [personality]. What do you receive from the Father? The children receive the inheritance from their father. So, you should also receive the unlimited inheritance from the Unlimited Father. You certainly receive the limited inheritance of happiness from the limited father [and] you will receive the unlimited inheritance of happiness from the Unlimited Father. He explains the cycle of the 84 births to you by becoming Teacher and as He is [your] Guru, He teaches you yoga. He says: your boat will go across [the river of vices] if you remember the One Sadguru. It is [about] which boat? You may call this body a boat, a ferry or a ship which the soul has boarded. Call it the river of the poison of vices or the ocean of vices, the ferry is sailing on it. Your boat will go across if you remember One Father alone. From the ocean of vices, you will sail to the ocean of milk (kshiirsagar). Why is it called the ocean of milk? Milk is called kshiir. When rice and sweet is mixed in it, it is called khiir. All the three mix to become one. Rice refers to the souls, sweet refers to the Unlimited Father. He is the Sweetest, isn't He? And His knowledge is the water. When that water of knowledge is narrated by human beings, it does the work of water and when the same knowledge is narrated by the Father, it becomes kshiir [i.e.] milk. Essence (i.e. butter) emerges when milk is churned. Nothing emerges by churning water. All the human gurus and all the Ganges of knowledge are the rivers of water. They narrate the concepts [of knowledge] that they have heard. They narrate the scriptures that they have read. Nothing new emerges at all. They keep narrating the old knowledge itself. So, the world continues to become old by narrating old knowledge [and] old concepts. And the Father comes and narrates new knowledge, new concepts of the essence [of knowledge] every day; the new world gets established through it. A small world in the form of essence is created. Then, this world goes on expanding from the Golden Age till the mortal world (mrityulok).

Now, the children are about to go to the Abode of Immortality from the mortal world. The children don't know how this age is the Purushottam Confluence Age. It is because the number wise elevated souls among the purush (souls) haven't been revealed yet. So, they forget it every now and then that this is the Purushottam Confluence Age. The old world is going to end and the new world is going to begin. This is called the Purushottam Confluence Age. And to take the great mantra of the Father, to take the vashiikaran mantra in this age is the task of just a second. It doesn't take time to take the mantra. You receive the mantra as soon as you believe that the Father has come. You take the mantra and the Father gives you the inheritance of liberation in life in a second. This is why, He says: explain the secret of the two fathers to everyone. One is the limited father who gives happiness for one birth, the bodily father who gives the inheritance of the body and the other is the Unlimited Father, the Father of the souls who gives the inheritance of happiness of the soul for many births. He gives the inheritance of heaven as well. It is because He alone is such Father who constantly stays in the soul conscious stage, so we also receive the inheritance of heaven [from Him].

Now look, Shivraatri was celebrated; He certainly must have come in the darkness of night and brought the dawn of the Golden Age in Bharat. He returned after making Bharat heaven. He is named Bharat. Now, [people] have named it Hindustan, otherwise, the actual name is Bharat. 'Bha' means light and 'rat' means to be engaged. It means, the one who remains engaged in the light of knowledge, the one who remains engaged in churning and thinking [the knowledge]. This is why, he is named Bharat. Bharat becomes heaven through this purushaarth. It is hell (narak) right now. Why is it hell? It is because all the five-seven billion human beings are nar (human beings) and narak (hell) is created through whatever nar does. God the Father is beyond the cycle of birth and death. He is Sadaa Shiva (always beneficial). He is always full of the light [of knowledge]. He is called Sadaa Shiva. He is the Knower of the cycle of the 84 [births] because He doesn't come in the cycle of birth and death. When all the souls in this world forget their form and come in darkness, He comes in that dark night and spreads light everywhere. First, the permanent chariot He enters becomes full of light. So, he is named Bharat. Certainly, it is he who stabilizes in the stage of the self first. The one who stabilizes in the stage of the self first, his name is joined with Shiva. He is called Shiva-Shankar Bholenath.

Bharat, which was heaven is hell right now. Then certainly, the Father Himself will come to make it heaven from hell. 'He will come' means He will get revealed. Just as, when a child is born in a house, a fortunate soul arrives in a house, the house, the family experiences a change. In the same way, when the Father comes, when the Unlimited Father comes to the unlimited world, He transforms the entire world to heaven from hell. Now, the Father is giving the inheritance of heaven. The children are receiving it number wise. They are practicing to stabilize in the stage of the self. Not everyone has the same [kind of] practice. This is why, they are number wise. They are doing the shooting of experiencing happiness for many births now. The Father has certainly said that this is the time of shooting, of rehearsal. The Confluence Age is the age of joy. The more you experience happiness through the mind in this age, the happier you are, the more the inheritance of happiness you will receive from the Father for many births. The children are receiving the inheritance of happiness number wise though Maya creates obstacles in their purushaarth. The children become sorrowful. Whether you call it Maya or the deceptive people, they (the children) make themselves sorrowful by coming under their influence. Then, they receive the inheritance of sorrow. The Father reminds the children every now and again, children, I had come to you the previous cycle as well. I had given the inheritance of happiness to you. You had become the residents of heaven. You had obtained the inheritance of many births in heaven. I come and give you the inheritance of heaven every cycle. So, you must have so much practice of receiving the inheritance of happiness for many births. When you do something many times, you become an expert in it, isn't it? Why do you remain weak in it?

You do know Shiva, don't you? Shiva, the Unlimited Father, the Father of the souls is the Beneficial (kalyaankaari) Father, isn't He? He definitely isn't the One who brings harm (akalyaankaari). After the Father comes, only the land of Bharat survives. It is the imperishable land. The other religious lands that spread ignorance, all of them are destroyed. There was no other religion when Bharat existed. Now, there are many religions. Everyone keeps fighting with each other because of diversity. So, it has become a horrible hell. Just like, worms keep wriggling and biting each other in drains, the world has become such horrible hell. Now, the Father comes and establishes heaven once again. The One Religion is going to be established once again. For that, the soul certainly has to become pure. What will be the sign of a pure soul? The sign of a pure soul will be that it will fly in a high stage, it will experience lightness. It will be happy within and it will also make others happy. It will take happiness and give happiness. It will take and give happiness even through vision. It will receive happiness and give happiness through speech and it will also make others happy and be happy through the karmendriyaan as well. The one who gives happiness is called a deity. So, the Father is establishing the Deity Religion now. The deities are pure.

So, their purity is worshipped. The statues of the leaders are also kept on the crossroads. The statues of religious gurus and religious fathers are also kept [there] but they aren't worshipped. Why aren't they worshipped? Temples aren't built for them. Why aren't they built? It is because they aren't pure. You become pure so your temples are built as a yaadgaar. The vibrations of the mind of the devotees become so powerful just by going to those temples; it becomes pure. This is the yaadgaar that the Father had established your temple like heaven. So, you certainly have to become pure. People don't know the secret of this drama. Those whose mind is inconstant, they themselves are called human beings. You practice to make your mind constant, you practice to concentrate your mind in the Father. You do become a deity from a human being. You become the children of Brahma for this very reason that you become complete Brahmin and then a deity. Yes, this is the examination to become a deity from a human being. You take the same amount of time for this examination that you had taken in the previous cycle. The Father certainly doesn't worry about it. He knows: the examination of the children will definitely be conducted. They will pass number wise in the examination of purity. And the children will definitely make purushaarth for it too. If someone doesn't make purushaarth, he will attain a low position.

As for the rest, the Unlimited Father will certainly give the unlimited inheritance to the children. In order to give the unlimited inheritance, Prajapita is also required. There are five-seven billion subjects; all of them will remember that Unlimited Father and receive the unlimited inheritance from Him. So, a media is certainly required. So, the Father asks the children, 'Brahma is the father of Brahmins. So tell Me, who is the father of Brahma?' The eldest mother is called Brahma, brahm maa. If she is the eldest mother, there will be the eldest father too, won't there? Who is he? Can Shiva be called the father of Brahma? Can we or not? Brahma had visions. Was the seed of knowledge sown in him through those visions? No seed was sown in him just by having them. The seed of knowledge was sown when he received its clarification. Many devotees have been having visions in the path of bhakti. That isn't knowledge. The Ocean of Knowledge, the Father Himself enters [someone] and gives the knowledge. He enters the Father of the human world and gives the complete knowledge of the visions which Brahma had. So, it will be said that the Father of Brahma is Shiva. But how is Shiva the father? A father is required with the relationship with the mother. So, who is the first Brahma? It will be said [it is] Prajapita Brahma. Which Brahma? Prajapita Brahma.

You are the children of Prajapita Brahma, aren't you? You are His sons as well as daughters. So, this is your family. There was the father, Brahma as well as the Brahmakumar and kumaris. The Brahmakumar and kumaris receive the inheritance from that unlimited father. When do they receive it? In 1969? Brahma left his body in 1969, [but] no one received the inheritance. Yes, the mother was revealed among the Brahmins. Just like the young children, infants recognize the mother first. When the same children grow up, they receive the introduction of the father from the mother. The vani that was narrated through the mouth of Brahma, the same vedvani is the form of Brahma. It is through that vedvani that the children attain the knowledge of the father of the unlimited human world. And it is certain.

This is about 5000 years ago. People will get confused if you say, '[it is about] lakhs of years'. It is ignorance to say, '[it is about] lakhs of years', because the history available with the human beings, with proof and evidence is of how many years? They have the history of 2500 years at the most. No proof and evidence before that time is available. The knowledge of 2500 years world which the human beings have is [of] the world of sorrow. History is written at the time of sorrow. People count each day at the time of sorrow. No one calculates time in happiness. This is why, it is also said: dukh me sumiran sab kare, sukh me kare na koi (everyone remembers [God] at the time of sorrow, no one remembers [Him] at the time of happiness). People count each day in sorrow and note it down which becomes history. So, this proves that the human beings have the history of 2500 years of the world of sorrow. And many kinds of religious fathers, who established their own religion, came to this world of sorrow itself. The history of all those religious fathers is available. These religious fathers are the people who create the world of sorrow. Their history is written. No one knows the Religious Father, the Unlimited Father, who creates the world of happiness at all. When they don't know Him, they narrate His biography and [describe] His form and appearance in their own way. Or else they say: He is incorporeal. If they introduce Him as corporeal, some say He is Ram, some say He is Krishna, some name Him Allah, some call Him God. No one knows His true identity. No one is able to make out His task on the basis of His name. This is called ignorance. This is why, they say that the world is of lakhs of years, whereas only the history of 2500 years is available with people. It is the history of the world of sorrow. This proves that the history of the night of ignorance is half of the history. The other half, the history of happiness isn't available with anyone. Just as it is day for half of the time and night for the other half. It isn't that there is night and only night and no day at all. If someone says that there is night for six months and day for the other six months at the North Pole and South Pole, it will still be said that day and night, both exist there, don't they? It never happens that there is only happiness in someone's life and no sorrow at all. If it is said that the history of two ages [i.e.] the half of the cycle is of only happiness, it will also be said that the history of two ages, the Copper and Iron Age is of sorrow. So, we need both, happiness along with sorrow; day as well as night are required. This world is a play of two. Whether it is a human being, a sentient or an inert creature, male and female both are required, only then can the world be sustained. In the same way, the world of sorrow is of 2500 years and the world of happiness is of [the other] 2500 years. No one other than the Father, the Ocean of Happiness knows the world of happiness.

The Father Himself comes and gives the knowledge of that world and says: every human being is lying in the darkness of ignorance in the Copper and the Iron Age. There wasn't so much darkness of ignorance in the beginning of the Copper Age. In fact, ignorance starts from the Copper Age itself. So, will the darkness of ignorance be satopradhaan [at that time] or will it be tamopradhaan? Ignorance was satopradhaan. The night was satopradhaan. The kingdom of Maya-Ravan was satopradhaan. Even the five vices were in the sattvik stage. The scriptures of Bharat written at that time also had truth to some extent. It is written in it even now that each age is of 1250 years. It is clearly written that the age of all the four ages is 1250 years [each]. But when human beings started becoming more vicious, because of having a vicious intellect, they multiplied the age of human beings with that of the deities. They spoil everything by multiplying [it with] 365 [days]. This didn't come in the intellect of the human gurus that the time of happiness and the time of sorrow should be equal. Now, the Father tells us: the world of happiness as well as the world of sorrow is of 2500 years [each]. I create the world of happiness and these religious fathers, human gurus create the world of sorrow. No matter how much you children are coloured by the company of the vidharmis, still because of recognizing the Father in the Confluence Age, you create your own world of happiness number wise.

As for the rest, the entire world is sleeping the sleep of Kumbhakaran. The entire world is under the influence of the demonic community, the demonic religious gurus. This is definitely the kingdom of Ravan but it doesn't sit in anyone's intellect that there is the rule of Ravan over the whole world. In Bharat, people do bhakti by playing ramleela<sup>2</sup>. They make [the effigy of] the enemy, Ravan and kill him. They kill him every year. Then, he keeps taking on a bigger form every year. They should at least think: when we have killed him once, he is finished. When we have burnt him, he should be finished. Then, why do we keep making [his effigy] bigger [each year]? Now, it has come in the intellect of you children. Why do they make it bigger [each year]? Where does its shooting take place? This shooting is going on now, in the Confluence Age world of Brahmins. The more you Brahmins burn Ravan each year, the more you burn him into ashes with new arrows of knowledge, he takes on a more fearsome form each year and stands in front of you. He keeps degrading your stage. So, they play Ramleela as a yaadgaar and burn him every year. Even in that, in which city is Dussehra celebrated very grandly? Mysore. There are different categories of Brahmins among the Brahmins as well. There are the Brahmins belonging to highest category as well as the lowest category. The Brahmins belonging to the lower categories turn a deaf ear to what the Father says. They keep coming under the influence of the other religious gurus. They can't be called Suryavanshii as they come under the influence [of others]. Will the Suryavanshii Brahmins follow only the Sun or will they follow others? They follow only the Sun. This is why, there is a city named mai (I) suurya (sun) in the path of bhakti. People celebrate Dussehra very grandly in that Mysore. It is certain that such Suryavanshii children would have finally turned the effigy of Ravan to ashes. Once the final [burning] takes place, there won't be any need to make [that effigy] again and again.

You do know that the Golden and the Silver Age are called the kingdom of Ram and the Copper and the Iron Age are called the kingdom of Ravan. Does Ram belong to the Silver Age or the Golden Age? They do say in the path of bhakti: the kingdom of Ram prevailed in the Silver Age. Ram was in the Silver Age. But the Father has told us: Ram doesn't exist only in the Silver Age, the kingdom of Ram prevails in the Golden Age as well. So, the kingdom of the True Father prevails in the Golden Age as well as in the Silver Age. That Father who is called Sat Chit Aanand (True, Living, Blissful). Even the English say, 'God is truth'. Truth alone is called God because He Himself comes and gives the knowledge of truth. As for the rest, there is falsity and only falsity in the intellect [of the people of] the entire world. The True Father narrates the true facts and establishes the true world. Through whom? Through Krishna's soul? Krishna is a child after all. He plays the role of the one with a child-like intellect. Ram is called the Father. The Father Shiva who doesn't come in the cycle of birth and death establishes the truth through the soul of Ram and all the remaining false [religious] lands get destroyed. All the people who create false world get destroyed.

Impurity is called falsity. [For example:] there is food; if we eat [a little] and give [the remaining] to a dog, did the dog eat the leftover (false) food or did he eat pure (sacca) food? He ate the leftover food. Everyone eats left over food in such land of falsity. It is as if there is no regard for purity at all. There is even such a religious sect where everyone likes to have the leftover food of each other. The Father says: now the world of false receiving, false giving, false food and false chewing should be finished. One Father and no one else. As the world of falsity expands, falsity rises to such an extent that there are fights and disputes in the entire world. The people of all the religions start colliding with each other. Whether you call it the land of falsity or a brothel, it is one and the same. You know that there is happiness in the kingdom of Ram. For what is Ram praised the most? Arey, is there any special virtue, which is especially praised for Ram? 'Maryada Purushotam Shri Ram'. He doesn't get indulged in false pleasures. He gets indulged in what is true. It is written [in the scriptures] for Krishna that he had 16,000 queens and what has been written for Ram? His entire life was dedicated to Sita alone. So, who is pure and who is impure? Ram is pure. The kingdom of Ram is established through Ram.

Ravan is shown with many heads. Among those many heads, five are male and five are female. The male heads are said to be the practical form of lust, anger, greed, attachment and ego. In such a big world, will everyone be lustful, wrathful, greedy, attached and vicious to the same degree? Or do they have the vice of lust and anger number wise? They have it number wise in them. So, there will definitely be someone who is hundred percent vicious, won't there? Someone will be hundred percent lustful, someone else will have hundred percent vice of anger, someone will have hundred percent vice of greed. Should there be someone who plays such a part or not? There should be. The person who is proved to be that, he himself will be proved to be the head of Ravan. So, five [heads] are [of] vices and the [other] five are [of] the forms of nature. The five forms of inert nature, who have an inert intellect. Earth... Earth is called 'mother earth', isn't she? So, would she have been someone living or is it about the inert [earth]? She is definitely living. Names like mother earth, the deity of water, the deity of air, the deity of fire have been given, haven't they? There are such people as well who act according to those names. Although, God does come, they even accept that God the Father has arrived, they also write the letter of faith but because of having an inert intellect, they deny it. Together, they take on a fearsome form. The collective form of Maya that takes on a fearsome form becomes the instrument for the destruction of the entire world. Earth is the chief element among those five elements. She contains all the other four elements within her. When that earth channels an earthquake, when there is an earthquake, the big buildings, the multistoried buildings of the world that have been built in big cities, where the maximum population of the world is living, all of them fall like a pack of cards. And a great destruction of the world takes place through earthquake. So earth, the combination of five elements is very destructive. There is so much of damage because of having an inert intellect, because of not recognizing God the Father. Then, there are the five vices which no doubt trouble the world, but they also trouble us Brahmin children. The Father says, 'among the five vices, [these] two are your archenemies. They are your bitterest enemies'. The chief of the five vices is the vice of lust. All the vices aren't single; they aren't sanyasis. If there is Ravan in the form of lust, there is Maya along with him. Maya is the female form. She has been shown as a sister in the scriptures. Although Maya in the form of Ravan is the enemy of the children, she makes them fall every now and again; still because of being a helper of the Father, she isn't able to bring a great loss to the children. However, when that same Maya-Ravan joins forces with the five elements of nature, when she allies with nature, she shakes all the Brahmin children by giving their final examination. She takes on such a fearsome form that only eight survive at the end. All the others fall to the ground. So, these are the ten heads of Ravan.

Ravan isn't present in the outside world. The ten heads that play the part of Ravan are present in the Brahmin world itself. They oppose the Suryavanshii Brahmin children in particular and the entire Brahmin world gets defeated. The handful, the eight [deities] who survive, the new world is created for them. In that new world, the number wise children... The children no doubt recognize the Father number wise, they are added [to that gathering] later. When [they get] added continuously, when the elevated souls are selected from every religion, 4.5 lakh souls gather in the end; they are those who recognize the Father and His Brahmin family completely through the corporeal body. As for the Chandravanshii souls who enter them, they are also 4.5 lakh in number. They are 9 lakh stars in total, who will spread the light of knowledge in the entire world at the time of great destruction. They will shine in [front of] the entire world. Those are the inert stars of the sky and these children of God are the living stars of the earth who are going to be revealed in front of the entire world within a few years. So, don't think: '[people] burn Ravan every year in the path of devotion, but he keeps taking a bigger form each year. Each year the size of his effigy keeps growing, so, the same will keep happening here.' No. Such a time will also come when this Ravan will finally burn to ashes. Om Shanti.
