Clarification of Night class 21.12.1968

The night class dated 21st December, 1968 was going on. The topic being discussed in the beginning of the middle part of the second page was: the main thing is that you shouldn't drink the urine [of lust], you shouldn't indulge in vices. And for that you shouldn't become body conscious in anyway. Otherwise, body consciousness makes you commit some or the other sin. Then, because of not telling the Father [about it], it keeps increasing. That body consciousness doesn't finish at all and the karmic accounts of that body consciousness stay pending. Then what is the result? The position is demoted. In this body consciousness itself... they drink the urine [of lust] because of body consciousness and the position is demoted just because of it. They receive punishments as soon as the position is demoted. They will certainly receive punishments as well. Moreover, the positions of many will certainly be demoted. So, you should remember the Father very nicely. There is no harm even if you leave your body while remembering Baba and only Baba. It is famous for this alone: when you leave your body, you should remember the Father through your mouth. You should remember the Father as well as the explanation of the Father. It is an absolutely simple thing. It is about the cycle. You should remember it.

It is because He knows, the Unlimited Father knows that Maya is opposing. So, the Father sits and keeps explaining: children, you should be very careful, extremely careful. Arey, Maya definitely gobbles up half of them and she defeats half of them. So, half of them take the inheritance number wise from Baba. It will be said number wise according to the purushaarth. So, half of them are number wise according to the purushaarth. Not [according to] purushaarth but according to wrong purushaarth Maya gobbles them up. So, this is why the Father says: remember the Father constantly, with a lot of love. It is because there is nothing lovely like these Unlimited Fathers at all. Are there two fathers? One is the father of the human world and the other is the Father of the souls. Both are interdependent. The task of one can't be accomplished without the other and the task of the other one can't be accomplished without the first one. So, it was said: no one else can make you attain the attainment like these Fathers. Both are the unlimited fathers; the Father of the souls and the father of the bodies, the father of the human souls. There is no one in the world except Him who can make you the master of the world. No one can give the master ship. Now, when the children have come to know... Just leave the topic of the others except for the children. And who are the children? He mentioned that as well: [those who are] obedient, loyal, compliant, honest; they are no doubt that number wise.

So, those whose topic has to be left are in the path of bhakti. And that path of bhakti is no less. Now, it is the end of bhakti and there is a din of bhakti everywhere. There is a lot of show, a lot of pomp and show in it. Then think that many, everyone has become mad in the pomp and show of bhakti. Now, you saw it, didn't you? Baba told you how those in the path of bhakti have gone mad, didn't He? That child told you, didn't he? What are their manners? What will the human beings think? On the contrary, the knowledge of the Father makes you so peaceful, it makes you so sweet. Although, there are also such who become mad. You did understand, didn't you? And it isn't even so that some become mad [and] create a lot of turmoil. If you send her on that service, she comes back as a failure. Baba says, doesn't He: send her anywhere [for the service] of the imperishable gems of knowledge, she will certainly return as a failure. Daughter, there are also many failures, aren't there? There are many failures. And there is so much of loss in it. This is why, children should be careful. Children, they forget that Baba is in an ordinary body now. This is why they forget. And they understand that the Father who comes every cycle... the One who comes to do the establishment every cycle... Moreover, that highest of the high establishment will definitely take place. There is certainly the praise of the Father who does the establishment and that praise is also famous in the scriptures. Look, whatever He sits and explains to you now, whatever He narrates or explains is also praised in the path of bhakti. They just praise [Him] as God. Now, no one should have any enmity with God.

Arey, all of you children have connection only with Shivbaba. You don't have connection with anyone except for Shivbaba. [Your] give and take, [karmic] accounts, everything [should be only] with Baba. This is why Brahma is certainly there, he is like a trustee. As for the rest, [your] give and take is with Shivbaba, isn't it? So, you should have a lot of joy within. You should have a lot of regard. [You should have] wonderful regard and joy within like these ones. It is because the one whom someone has regard for... He sits and teaches the children so much. He teaches [them] what they understand nicely and He teaches with understanding. Moreover, what does He teach? At least see what the aim [and] object is. The aim [and] object is the highest of the high. And He also keeps giving all the points.

Third page of the night class dated 21.12.1968, second line. When someone asks to do function here, Baba tells everyone: do any function but praise Baba, praise the Father; that's it. It is because nobody knows the Father at all. A to Z, all the bhogi souls, the human souls of this world are included in nobody. Even the father of the human world is included in it. He too doesn't know; what? What doesn't he know? Oho! What doesn't he know? Arey, does he know who that Incorporeal Father is, what He is, what He does, when He comes? Even he doesn't know that. Yes, this is the fact that you have to explain to them very easily. You have to explain very clearly for Krishna as well, don't you: Krishna isn't God (Bhagwan). What? Can he be wealthy (dhanwaan) or not? He can be wealthy. He isn't God, he isn't the Purifier of the sinful or he isn't the Father, the Teacher or the Guru either. Then? If he isn't the Father, is he the mother? He is the mother. Is one Krishna the mother or both Krishna the mother? (Student replies.) Yes, one is Parambrahma and the other one is just Brahma. Well, that Brahma isn't the Father, the Teacher, the Guru. You shouldn't explain it. These are also points, aren't they? Baba explained today and He explained very nicely and He keeps explaining on that very concept. The Father had certainly explained that the one from every centre, whether small or big... and the one who explains should certainly be good. So, you should sit and explain nicely everything that the Father explains. Although, that explanation... a little... the journalists write and keep giving the entire explanation as it is... and number wise according to the purusharth itself means the first class, second class and third class... They are certainly that. The journalists are also like that. So, whoever is first class in a centre, they should explain to them what they are receiving from the Unlimited Father, how they receive the inheritance from the Father. And it isn't something new; they receive this inheritance every cycle. They received this very inheritance of becoming Narayan from a man or of establishing the capital 5000 years ago as well. So, children should sit every day and [think:] what we should explain on Shivratri. And those from every centre have to explain [on it]. He (the teacher) should sit and explain every day and he (the student) should write [it]. He should continue to explain and he should continue to write. Arey, while writing continuously that vani will become absolutely first class and refined and he will also remember it. Then the mercury of joy will also rise. So, we have to explain all this. We have to explain what we have understood from the Father. The Father Himself says, doesn't He: whatever I explain to you, you should explain that to the others as well. It is because it is certainly something to explain. Nothing happens just by listening and narrating. And the One who explains hasn't studied any book. So, you write this as well or pick up a book.

Otherwise, does Baba, Shivbaba pick up any book? So, even children shouldn't pick up any book in the end. So, practice it.

Where... As for the rest, this picture is very nice. There are such worse ones. Look, the worse human beings go and bow their head before them, don't they? So, even human beings worse than the monkeys go and bow their head before the monkey. They sit considering monkey itself to be God. So, they are worse than monkey, aren't they? You can explain to them very nicely: look, what the condition of the human beings become by the end of the Iron Age. Accha, you do keep explaining all these concepts a lot daily. There are many who worship Ganesh, Hanuman. If someone comes and falls or something happens... still I do have to write, don't I? So, they have more interest only in the murli. Someone will come and ask a point. If this has to be done, it won't come to Baba's mind at all at that time. It is correct, isn't it? It is because not everyone listens. One or two come and listen. And it is the same thing, I will keep giving the same points. But I like to give it to many. Who said that? Brahma Baba said: I like to give it to many. Which Brahma Baba said it? Arey, be it any Brahma, He likes to give it to many. And whom does the No.1 Father of the souls like to give? He likes to give it to one. Not many listen, do they? It is because I am the Unlimited Father, am I not? They ask. Then the opinion of Baba... He will remember all the children automatically. And if He remembers them, His churning of the ocean of thoughts will keep taking place. It will keep taking place, points will keep emerging. The extent to which the churning of the ocean of thoughts takes place, new points will keep emerging to that extent. When they have come and it has completed... that's all, it is over! Then the very thought goes out of the intellect. Then more points... All this is in the control of the drama. Remembrance, love and good night number wise according to the purushaarth from the heart and spirit, affection and love of the Spiritual Father and Dada to the long lost and now found spiritual children. Namaste of the Spiritual Father to the very sweet spiritual children. Om Shanti.
