Clarification of Morning class 30.12.1968

The morning class dated 30th December, 1968 was in progress. Monday, the beginning of the middle part of the fifth page. The Father says: no human being in the world knows that these Lakshmi-Narayan are God-Goddess. It isn't in their intellect [that] they must be having birth because they are God and Goddess. But the Unlimited Father says: no, these Lakshmi-Narayan aren't called God. They themselves have 84 births. So, certainly these ones alone were No.1. There is no one who has 84 births, the complete 84 births before them. It sits in the intellect of you children: yes, certainly, those who are in the beginning of the Golden Age themselves have 84 births. It is because they alone come down number wise. Then, they are also praised. Many pictures of theirs are prepared as a yaadgaar. We ourselves become deities. We say: we souls ourselves will become deities, we souls ourselves will become Kshatriyas, we souls ourselves will become Vaishyas in the Copper Age. We are souls, so, we will continue to refer to the souls, won't we? And the degree of the soul will also continue to decrease. Now, it is as if a very big gathering is sitting and you sit and give a speech. You [know] yourself to be worship worthy as well as a worshipper. You bring [yourself down] from being worship worthy to being worshippers. So, it is also said correctly; otherwise, who will have 84 births? The 84 births represent that you will become tamopradhaan from satopradhaan. You will have such births, you will have rebirths and fall because you forget it. You did understand, didn't you?

Maya is such. And [the Father] just can't explain everything at once. So, what should be done for it? Well, you should make a book of all these points which you should study nicely. So, those books are also made for you to study. The books for which you know: when destruction takes place, those books won't be left at all; they are temporary for us. The Gita, which the Father narrated in the Confluence Age... He didn't narrate the Gita. This very... Just like the Unlimited Father keeps narrating it... it was the same. All these scriptures were there. Now you know that it is the Confluence Age, isn't it? Now you know that there is a whole lot of the Vedas, scriptures and books at present. All these will burn when the destruction takes place and then, no Vedas, scriptures will be made at all. It is because there is no book, etc. in the new world at all. [They are neither] in the Golden Age nor in the Silver Age. Later, they are useful in the path of bhakti. Then they emerge after that, it means they are made again. Children, everything is made, isn't it?

They have made all this, Ravan, etc. too, haven't they, but out of ignorance. They can't tell anything. Otherwise, the Father has explained nicely, hasn't He, children? [He has explained] very nicely: look, they make his effigy every year, they kill him; he is a great enemy. Now, the poor ones don't know how he is an enemy. He is an enemy; they also kill him. What does he do then? Yes, he had abducted Sita. Oh, this is why he is the enemy. Vaah, our God's, Ram Chandra's Sita was abducted; so, isn't he [our] enemy? He is a dacoit, a big dacoit. They abduct, kidnap [people] even nowadays. They do that, don't they? They abduct many women. They abduct girls. Then, they have made a story for them; this neither happens in the Golden Age nor in the Silver Age. Which Sita did he abduct? So, this will certainly happen at the end that Ravan will die. Then, no one will be able to abduct Sita. So, this will be called the churning of the ocean of thoughts.

Sixth page of the morning class dated 30th December, 1968. Have you children ever thought...? Has Baba ever explained...? So look, He explains today that it is pre-ordained. So, certainly Ravan at the end and... and an intelligent, wise, silent child like you... It is because no one should have a bad temper; they should be really calm. Just ask them: at least tell me this, Sita of Ram Chandra who was abducted... Now, there certainly won't be the rule of Ram Chandra alone in the kingdom of Ram Chandra all the time. There will definitely be a dynasty. Second dynasty after the first one. It is impossible that the age of one Ram Chandra alone will be one hundred thousand or two hundred thousand [years]. They, who sit on the throne, will certainly be number wise. ...of which number? Definitely, they will think and [say] of the last number. Children, they don't know that there are twelve thrones in the Silver Age, do they? They will consider it to be the last [throne]. It is then that the kingdom of Ravan gets over. When Ravan is killed, the Golden Age arrives. The Copper and the Iron Age do come after the Silver Age. This can't be true either. Can it? This also becomes *gurgurdhani*¹. The idea doesn't stay firm at all; then what will it be called? Even these scriptures are false; the false scriptures. Well, can anyone ever call the scriptures false? Never. Look, if someone calls them false, they become so angry. So think, see, how they are made. They don't have any date or time, still, the scriptures are revered so much; whereas, they are nothing. Now you read such scriptures which have nothing in them. So, the Father comes and explains: daughter, all these Vedas, books and scriptures, etc. are like gossips. Moreover, no one can ever find Me through these Vedas, books and scriptures. Certainly, look, has anyone found Me by reading these [scriptures]? No. The Father says this, it is bhakti. When everyone becomes sorrowful after suffering blows continuously in bhakti, they cry out: Baba, come and liberate us from this sorrow. So, the Father comes and... It won't be said that the kingdom of Ravan lasted for half a cycle. It will never [be said] like that either. It means Ravan is nothing. If his kingdom continues, why do they kill their king every year? Then, Ravan would also have a wife, wouldn't he? If there is a household, Ravan's wife should also be shown. They show someone... Yes. Someone said: Mandodari. Accha, alright, they show Mandodari. They have named her Mand udari. The stomach is called udar. It is her stomach like intellect which is dull. Alright. But you would have never seen that they make Mandodari's effigy and burn it. Hey fool, if he died, his wife will also die along [with him], won't she? Someone said: Baba, she was intelligent. Arey, although she was intelligent, there should be some picture, etc. or something of the intelligent one, shouldn't there?

So, when the Father sits and explains, He does name everyone: false Maya, false body and a false world. Everything false is included in it. Even the false scriptures are included in it, aren't they? So, that land is also called a false land. Now, when the entire land itself is false, those staying on those lands are all false. Look, all the human beings also become false. Now, you do see the difference between false and truth, don't you? You are sitting here to become what? You are sitting to become true deities from false human beings. Now, they too are in fact human beings. So, you will always speak the truth there, in the new world. And everyone speaks lies here, in this old world. Moreover, the Father has explained what lies they speak. They speak the No.I lie that God is omnipresent. Now, this has certainly sat in the intellect of the children, hasn't it? Everything is based on this alone. It is a lie. The Gita, which is the crown gem of all the scriptures, they have written the lie in that as well: 'I am omnipresent'. The Father does say now, He says, doesn't He: I never said that I am omnipresent. No. It is my children who are omnipresent. He will say that, won't He? They are sitting in front of Me. He will say: among the souls, it is My children who are omnipresent; their Home is above, where I too reside. He will say so. [He] will explain to the children this way: children, this is right, isn't it? Look, who says [that]? Everyone's Baba says that. He is praised so much. He is the Ocean of Knowledge. So, He Himself is the Ocean of Knowledge and He alone brings sadgati to everyone. He alone gives so much of knowledge to you. Otherwise, does anyone in the world have knowledge? You will say: no. There is no knowledge. Knowledge starts at the time... when the sadgati of the entire world takes place, it means, when the new world is established, the new world which is called heaven. Seventh page of the morning class dated 30th December, 1968. Then, the Father comes, who makes hell into heaven.

So, the Father kept explaining all these things to the children, didn't He? Arey, [He explains] to the children. Now, Shivratri comes. The children are very confused about Shivratri. What should I tell so that the children have faith on Shivratri? So, the Father is sitting. Children, don't think that many will certainly have faith. Yes, they will have it. And the Father has explained... the place where all these exhibitions and projectors, etc... where all this was explained... It was explained in the museum. So look, you can always see that... when Baba comes... three, eight, ten, fifteen, twenty, twenty-five [people] take the course. Now also you write, don't you: they take course. This course has come up. So, even more additions will continue to take place in the course in future, won't they? Yes, these many [people] come at present. So many come now, then, they will become thorns. They will become thorns; even for that Baba says: children, all those who come to you, the numerous children, it isn't that they will just keep studying; no. Maya will break the connection of their intellect and make them illiterate. They will become bhaganti (they will run away). They will become sorrow giving thorns. And the Father keeps explaining daily [and] you yourself know it; these Brahminis of Pune also know [that]. "Baba, definitely many come, they also take course but those who take course become bhaganti later." So, the Father does say, doesn't He: children, a few among crores and a few even among those few will come. There will be rare ones who will know Me. What will they know? What I am, how I am, only a rare ones will know Me. Look, He keeps teaching even now. It has been 12-15 years, He [still] keeps teaching. Some children are such who start studying, teaching soon after coming. They don't study, they teach at once. Just a little [knowledge] sits in their intellect and they become a teacher. It is because the knowledge is very easy, isn't it? It is because it is said for it [that] you can grasp this knowledge in a week. And if it sits in your intellect, they will ask: yes, what is it? You have to recognise Baba and the cycle of 84 [births]. And Baba has certainly come to give you the inheritance of the Golden Age. You definitely have to assimilate the divine virtues as well. Just this is the main thing, isn't it? It is certainly not something great. But it is still seen that... no. Look, they themselves are also sitting, the Father and Dada, [Dada,] who has to attain a high position. Well, you too definitely have to attain that [position] number wise. But you see, they themselves say: we became tamopradhaan from being satopradhaan; we have to become satopradhaan from tamopradhaan. It took us half a cycle for that. And we have to become satopradhaan only in this one last birth. So, it takes a little trouble to become satopradhaan from being tamopradhaan. Om Shanti.
